Isaac Shawver and wife, of Millheim, Centre county, were visitors to Milroy last week and attended to their lot in Woodlawn cemetery. . . A. Brown McNitt went to Centre county and brought a drove of cattle over the mountains.

Yeagertown: Contractor George Tate has completed the contract at Greenwood Furnace, where he erected a dam and reservoir on the State reservation lands.

Good Way to do Business.

In ordering a 50c bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at 25 cents, J. D. Murray is giving one of the greatest trade chances ever offered to the people of Centre Hall.

Even though offered at half-price for introductory purposes the specific is sold under a guarantee to cure or the money will be refunded.

If food does not digest well, if there is gas or pain in the stomach, if the tongue is coated and the breath bad, if there is constipation and straining, Dr. Howard's specific will cure you. If it does not, you have druggist Murray's personal guarantee to return your money.

This remarkable remedy comes in the form of tiny granules, and can be carried in the vest pocket or purse. It is very popular in New York City, and it is not unusual to see someone after a meal at one of the large hotels or restaurants, take a dose of this specific, knowing that it will prevent the uncomfortable feeling which frequently follows a hearty meal.

Dr. Howard's specific gives quick relief and makes permanent cures of constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles.

LOCALS.

D. F. Luse and S. E. Sharer are painting the dwelling house of James B. Strohm, which was remodeled throughout.

In a debate between the Lock Haven and West Chester Normals, the former won, the judges giving a unanimous vote in their favor.

Our $3.00 women's shoes have made a whole army of friends. It's the best shoe made for the money.—Mingie's Shoe Store, Bellefonte.

D. L. Kerr, Mrs. Mary Odenkirk and Mrs. W. Frank Bradford, of Centre Hall, attended the funeral of Miss Emma Forster, in Millinburg.

Misses Jennie Longacre and May Taylor, of Bellefonte, for several days last week were guests of Misses Elsie and Verna Geiss, of Centre Hall.

When in Centre Hall call at the Harry Witten clothing store, and examine the bargains in clothing, gents furnishing goods, ladies' waists, curtains, etc.

Today (Thursday) a special is scheduled to run over the local branch from Lewistown to State College to give farmers an opportunity to visit the institution.

The salary of Postmaster Harter, Bellefonte, has been increased from $2400 to $2500, and that of Col. John W. Stuart, at State College, from $2300 to $2400.

S. L. Condo, the Spring Mills carriage builder, passed through Centre Hall last week with a string of new buggies. He was on his way to Nittany Valley where he had disposed of them. Mr. Condo is doing a prosperous business, and is making carriage building one of the leading manufacturing industries of Spring Mills.

A horse while playing in a barnyard accidentally kicked A. D. Lucas, who lives on a farm on upper Marsh Creek. The animal left the imprint of one of his shoes on his owner's face, the calks registering above the eyes and the toe below the mouth. The injury was very painful. The unfortunate man is being attended by Dr. O. W. McIntire, of Howard.

DEATHS.

ALFRED H. WEAVER.

Alfred H. Weaver died suddenly at two o'clock Saturday morning. He retired feeling in his usual health, and no one in his family thought he had spent his last day on earth. A short time previous to his death, Mrs. Weaver was awakened by his hard breathing, and failing to receive a response to a call, she arose and lighted a lamp, but before the family could be apprised of his condition, death came.

Mr. Weaver was a farmer by occupation, having acquired the Weaver homestead, east of Centre Hall, from his father, Jonathan Weaver, and for twenty-three years he and Mrs. Weaver lived there and farmed. He was a man who paid close attention to his own affairs, and it was characteristic of him to prefer to do his work, and even the little chores, himself.

There survives a widow, nee Angeline Catherman, and nine children, the father being the first death in the family. The children are: Charles Adam, at Murray's school house, in Brush Valley; Harry Elmer, Aronsburg; Ada, wife of S. E. Sharer, Centre Hall; Annie, wife of O. E. Laird, Centre Hall; Sarah, wife of L. E. Watson, Unionville; Grover C. Verba, Orris P.; and Willis A., at home.

The following brothers and sisters also survive: William Weaver, Jacksonville; Mrs. Annie M. Emerick, Mrs. George F. Emerick, Centre Hall; Mrs. Harry Shaffer, Mrs. M. P. Musser, Zion; Mrs. W. M. Dukeman, Winburne.

Interment was made in the cemetery at the Union church, Farmers Mill's Rev. B. F. Bieber officiating.

All the children attended the funeral services.

JOHN B. HUTCHINSON.

John Barber Hutchinson, a native of Centre county, died at his home in McPherson, Kansas, on the 18th of May, aged seventy-six years, five months and eighteen days. He was the son of Thomas Hutchinson, at one time a prominent man of Gregg township. Capt. A. Boyd Hutchinson and Maj. James F. Hutchinson were brothers of the deceased.

John Barber Hutchinson was born in this county, on the first day of January, 1833. He continued his residence with his father until the year 1861. At the first call for troops in the beginning of the civil war, he enlisted as a private, but at Harrisburg was elected second lieutenant of Company I, 15th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry.

In November, 1864, he was married to Mary Ellen Carson, and the following spring removed to Carroll county, Illinois, where he resided until 1869, when he moved to Kansas, settling at Black Jack, Douglas county.

About five years later he moved to Johnson county. While living there he was elected a member of the legislature.

In the fall of 1881 he removed to McPherson county to a farm just west of McPherson, where he continued to reside until 1900, when he retired to McPherson where he has since resided. His wife preceded him to the grave September 3, 1886.

MISS EMMA C. FORSTER.

After a severe and lengthy illness with asthma and other diseases, for the past year confined to her room and bed, Miss Emma C. Forster, of Millinburg, passed into rest on 31st., aged fifty-eight years, seven months and four days.

She was a daughter of the late John and Margaret Kerr Forster and was born at Centre Mills, this county. She went with her widowed mother to Millinburg in the year 1874. Surviving her are her brother, William K. and Frank H. Forster, of Millinburg, and a half brother, James I. Forster, of Philadelphia.

Joseph Heverly, a veteran of the Civil War, died at his home in Beech Creek. He had been a sufferer from asthma for a number of years, and this, together with heart trouble, caused his death. He followed the occupation of lumberman most all his life. During the Civil War he served in Company G, 203rd regiment, P. V. He was a little past sixty-seven years old and is survived by his wife and five children.

Mrs. Matilda Gates Rumberger, widow of John L. Rumberger, died at the old homestead on Tadpole, Wednesday last week of paralysis. She was eighty-two years old. Her husband has been dead for twenty-two years, and not having any children she made her home with two nieces. Her only immediate survivor is one sister, Mrs. Thomas Bollinger, of Aronsburg.

Miss Ruth Foster died at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Johnson, in Ferguson township, of a complication of ailments, after an illness of several years. She was forty-eight years of age and was born in Virginia. Surviving her are one brother and a sister.

Jacob DeLong, of Blanchard, died Monday morning of last week. He was a blacksmith by occupation, and was fifty-six years old. His wife, two sons and one daughter survive.
