After having steamed company quarters, which they captured after wounding one of the native officers.

After a fight lasting two hours on the following day, in which one man named Libbey was killed and four others wounded, the mutineers took to the mountains on the approach of a company of the constabulary stationed at Mapi, which hurried to best reports here, was taken off in the relief of the besieged Americans and loyal natives.

Without any warning the muti-neers suddenly attacked the quarters at night and gained possession of them before any resistance could be offered by a few native noncommissioned officers and several loyal members of the company.

Governor Walker, of the Davao is the capital, immediately rallied saying: the Americans and such natives as could be trusted in a large church and preparations for defense were hastily made during the night. Windows and doors were barred, loopholes cut, food and water taken into the building and everything made ready to withstand a siege.

At 5 o'clock on the afternoon of the 7th the mutineers began an attack on the church. For three hours the fight raged. A heavy fire was directed against the church and its defenders, but Governor Walker and his small force replied with such vigor that they discouraged all attempts to storm the place.

The mutineers retired and evidentcover until a safer and more successful attack could be made on the church. Timely Aid Rendered By The North VICTIMS German Lloyd Steamer Prinzess Irene And The Hamburg-American The Villages Of St. Cannut And Liner Batavia-The Slavonia Was Bound From New York For Naples. The Ships Rescuing The Passengers Also Bound For Naples-List Of Cabin Passengers.

New York (Special) .- Through cable messages news reached New Manila (Special) .- A portion of York that the Cunard liner Slavonia, successfully more than half way across the Atlantic the vessel, which left this port for Naples on June 3, is almost a complete wreck; but thanks to the timely aid rendered by North German Lloyd and Hamburg-American liners, which responded to the Slavonia's appeals for aid by wireless, every passenger, according safety. These liners which aided the Slavonia in her distress are the Prinliner Batavia. Both were also bound for Naples.

First reports that the Cunarder had run aground reached here shortly before 4 o'clock in a message to the North German Lloyd from Capprovince, of which the city of Davao tain Petersen, of the Prinzess Irene,

When the foregoing was received the Cunard Line office here had had on advices whatsoever and it heard first of the accident through the North German Lloyd.

Flores Island, off which the Slavonia stranded, is the most westerly of the Azores group, with dangerous precipitous cliffs. The foundering of a vessel there can be easily imagined, but by good fortune the two other liners, the Prinzess Irene and ly expected to await darkness under the Batavia, which left N. w York on June 5 and June 3, respectively, were close by, and the laconic message of Captain Petersen would seem to indicate there was no loss of life or injury to anyone.
