INVALID FOR YEARS

Made Well by Curing the Weakened Kidneys.

R. A. Davis, 700 Third Ave., Columbus, Ga., says: "A slight irregularity of the urine accompanied with pain in the back made me aware that I had kidney trouble. I neglected it, and finally got so bad I had to stop working. My back ached terribly. I could not rest well at night. I had rheumatic pain and lost all energy. The urine was in an awful condition. I ran down and down until I was an emaciated wreck and an invalid, in bed and out of bed, but in it most of the time. At the time I started with Doan's Kidney Pills I weighed only 125 lbs. As they helped me I kept on until well again and up to my old weight, 170 ibs. In five years I have had no return of kidney complaint."

R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

"Every state by which trade conhow to rid plants and trees of black Edna, 14 years old, daughters, of ditions are determined records im-William Stottlemeyer, of 309 Penn provement. In the iron and steel trade the progress made is, indeed, extraordinary and again does this branch of industry give a signal proof of its power to rise out of the depths of depression with wonderful rapidity. Increased orders, expanding production, higher prices and wages, and in some lines records approaching even the high figures before the panic-such are the reports that now come from the trade every week. Thus the recent progress making toward full business recovery in the United States is most notable and it is facilitated by favoring financial conditions. The effects of the late crisis are still to be seen in the large volume of commercial defaults, although this seems a passing condition, as the aggregate of these in May was the smallest of any month of this year. The tariff de-bate is still on in the Congress, with the final vote apparently still a month distant, but the business world, impatient of fruther restraint shows a disposition to move ahead regardless of its action and the crop uncertainties."

"One Kitchen" Houses Fail. Berlin's "one-kitchen" house, in which scores of families living in the same building were to be supplied with meals from a central cooking establishment, are in difficulties after a brief career of a few months.

Two houses were in existence, and two others in course of construction. According to the Tageblatt, the families of dwellers in these Utopian palaces have had to content themselves with Spartan fare, because the creditors of the proprietary company gradually despoiled the buildings of almost everything which was not nailed down. A gang of laborers who were getting anxious about their wages recently raided one of the model kitchens, and took possession of all the provisions. Some of the tenants, who are still loyal to the "one-kitchen" idea, have formed a cooperative union to keep the establishments going, but the creditors of the original company have depleted the houses of most of their essential furnishings .- Berlin Correspondence of London Mail.

Let Him Stay Man.

A man soon gets mighty tired of treating his wife like a godess. If he cannot be at ease with her and smoke when he pleases and take off his coat if he wants to and throw ashes on the floor and cigar stubs all over the house, he is going to be mighty uncomfortable, and long to go where he can. For it is born in a man to like to do these things, just as it is born in a girl to like to do her own pet things. Moreover, if a girl has once known a man in a perfectly comfortable chummy way she will find him worth twice as much as before he dropped his awe of her. Men are pretty nice as they are, but for goodness' sake, don't try to make a man ladylike. He isn't and won't be if he is even half a man .- Atchion Globe.
