

LOCALS.

Miss Sarah Miller, of near Millheim, a handsome young miss, was the guest of Miss Virgie Durst on Sunday.

Misses Nettie Bair and Helen Robb, of Bellefonte, drove to Centre Hall Sunday and spent the day with Miss Cora Brungart.

Frank A. McClintic, of Linden Hall, was a caller at this office last week, and advanced his subscription. He knows that newspapers cannot be run on wind all the time.

Tuesday Miss Rebecca Derstine, of Centre Hall, went to Chatham Run, where she will remain for the greater part of the summer with the family of her brother, Rev. M. S. Derstine.

Mrs. John S. Getchell is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Brungart, and while here is getting ready for housekeeping, which she and her husband will begin shortly in Dunbar, Fayette county.

The erection of a milk condensary at Mill Hall is assured. Work on the plant will be commenced about the first of July. Milk will be received from a large territory, including Bald Eagle and Nittany Valleys.

Miss Aida Musser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Musser will spend the summer at her home in Millheim. For the past two years she has been living with her aunt in Illinois, and will again return to the west in September.

The Reporter office has been supplied with bouquets during the past two weeks, by John Garis. Printers, you know, are passionately fond of flowers, and that is why John comes around so frequently with the choicest roses to be found.

Miss Flossie Geary, niece of F. P. Geary, came to Centre Hall last week from Millheim, and is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geary. She will keep a watchful eye on little Miss Geary who is big enough to go out when accompanied by a nurse.

In the absence of their regular pitcher and another member of the nine, the local junior base ball team was defeated at Pleasant Gap last Saturday to the tune of 19 to 5. A return game is looked forward to, when, with their regular team, lost laurels will be won.

Keep in mind the local option meetings—Spring Mills, 10 a. m.; Centre Hall, 2:30 p. m.; Tusseyville, 7 p. m. Rev. Gupp, the district superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, will be ready to enlighten you on this most important question. Everybody is invited.

James Rockey, of Altoona, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gfrerer, west of Centre Hall. Mr. Rockey is on the pension roll of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and at the age of some seventy years finds that the faithful service he gave his employers is being well repaid.

I. A. Shawver, in Millheim, proprietor of the National Hotel, holds the palm for catching the largest trout in Elk creek this season. He caught one below the falls of McMullen's mill dam that measured twenty inches and weighed three pounds. It was of the California variety.

The inside pages of this issue contain much news of a widely diversified character. One page is devoted to general telegraphic news; several columns to news of special interest to Pennsylvanians; the markets are quoted, giving the prices paid for grain, etc., in the leading centers of trade. Those who fail to read the inside pages of The Centre Reporter each week, just miss several pages of the best reading matter.

Daniel Daup is having his residence repainted. John Noll and assistants are repainting the large porch of the Mrs. F. O. Bairfoot residence. Lyman L. Smith is rushing the work on his new dwelling. Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobs had some papering and painting done on the interior of her dwelling. M. M. Codd is having a number of minor improvements made at his home. A new concrete walk was laid in front of the residence of E. W. Crawford.

Harris township has the best roads of any of the townships on the South side of Centre county. The supervisors have exercised good judgment in road building, and once a road has been given a top dressing of crushed lime stone, an effort is made to keep the road in trim, and not left to wreck by total neglect. There is enough money spent in almost every township in the county to make the roads much better than they are, provided the expenditure of the money had been more wisely directed.

Sunday some fifty guests dined at noon at the Old Fort Hotel, when turkey was served. Quite a number of the guests were from State College and Bellefonte. The Sunday previous over one hundred persons, mostly Pennsylvania State College students and friends from a distance, were served. The Old Fort Hotel, you know, has a wonderful reputation for getting up elegant dinners, and consequently the hungry find their way there. Landlord Royer prefers to profit from the table rather than the bar, a fact very much to his credit.

Children's Day at Spring Mills.

Children's Day services held in the Methodist Episcopal church, Spring Mills, Sunday evening, was a complete success.

The music was excellently rendered under the direction of B. F. Kennelly, assisted instrumentally by Messrs. Calvin Meyer and Cleave Gentzel.

Superintendent Michael Shires gave an eloquent, comprehensive address on the object of the day. All the children creditably performed their parts. The boys' flag drill was neatly executed and much commented upon. In the "Flower Queen" the five young ladies, Misses Weagles, Hasenplug, Cummings and Shunk gave an original rendition executed in faultless style.

The decorations were tasteful, artistic and attractive. Much credit is due the ladies who so successfully planned and carried out the work.

Pessimistic? No.

Sorry to say it, but the extension of the trolley line from Lewistown to Bellefonte is not within sight. If it will do any one good to think they will ride by trolley over the Seven Mountains, with a stop at Foust's for recreation, within the next decade, there will be no objections filed, but at present such a joy ride is a little more than a dream.

It is reasonable to predict that the Wabash will be built through Pennsylvania (perhaps throughout the full length of Penns Valley); the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad extended by the way of State College to Tyrone; or that the Penns Valley Oil and Manufacturing Company will pay several millions of dollars as royalties to Penns Valley farmers for spouting oil wells, before the time of the completion of a trolley line connecting Lewistown and Bellefonte.

Children's Day services were observed in the M. E. church Sunday evening. The service consisted of recitations and songs, and was exceedingly well rendered before a large and appreciative audience. Amid the lavish flower and plant decorations the service was very appropriate to the June time, and the young folks deserve much credit for their worthy interest and efforts.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Swamp-Root corrects catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.
