Thursday, August 19, the hall of Washington Grange, near State College, is the date and place of the next meeting of the Centre county Pomona Grange.

George F. Norton, a New York State licensed optometrist of fifteen years' experience, will assist Dr. J. R. G. Allison in his optical work until August 10.

The Centre Hall junior baseball team is making arrangements with either the State College or Boalsburg team to play a game at Rhoneymede Saturday afternoon.

John Neese, of Memphis, Tennessee, has been at the home of his sister, Mrs. Emma Homan, during the past few weeks. He has traveled over a large portion of the states, and has had varied experiences in his extensive travels.

Harry Potter, who is at Taylor, Washington, was one of the thousands who registered in the land lottery recently conducted by the government. Some of the tracts which are timbered are valued, by those who are acquainted with them, at as much as $50,000.

An effort is being made to enforce the liquor law in Millin county, where no liquor licenses were granted by Judge Woods. As a result of this determination a speakeasy was raided a few days ago, and now the offender and the evidence—several kegs of beer—are in jail.

The summer assembly of Lutherans is on to-day (Thursday) in the grove north of Indian Lane, and Saturday the Centre Hall-Linden Hall telephone company will have their annual outing at Rhoneymede, which will be put into order by Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Brooks, who live there now.

Mrs. John S. Hosterman and little son are at the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Hosterman and will remain until school opens at Montrose, in September. Mr. Hosterman will be here about the middle of this month, at which time the summer term at the Columbia University, New York, which he is attending, will close.

Lieut. W. W. Bieley Post, No. 298, G. A. R., and Major R. Henry Foster Camp, Sons of Veterans, will hold a picnic Saturday, August 7, near Rebersburg. An invitation is extended to every person to attend. There will be unusual entertainments, among other things, bands, a sham battle, speeches and a camp fire. A festival in the evening at Rebersburg.

It would be difficult to find anywhere else in the state as fine a group of buildings as adorn the campus of the Lock Haven Normal School. They are on a commanding elevation facing the beautiful West Branch, are surrounded by the picturesque rolling hills of the Allegheny system, and, most important of all, the drainage is perfect. The school is most fortunate in having plenty of pure mountain water. School opens September 6th. Address the Principal for a catalog.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Krape, who are temporarily making their home on the farm with Prof. C. R. N. H., recently visited their son, E. J. D. Krape, at Cameron, where he is employed as a telegrapher by the P. and E. Railroad Company. The young man is married and has a family of two children, and is getting on in the world. He is among the Penns Valley boys, who realizing that success depends not so much upon great ability or opportunity as upon perseverance and concentration, has pressed forward till he is now placed in charge of a tower along the main line.

False reports were circulated in some quarters to the effect that Mrs. Thomas Boat, of near Spring Mills, had made an attempt to commit suicide. The report no doubt had its origin from the fact that the family physician had prescribed a remedy for an enlargement of the muscles of the neck, and that the first dose caused vomiting. Mrs. Boat thinks the false construction was placed on the incident with bad intentions, and asks that this correction be made, although the report had not reached the newspapers. She also states that the slanderous reports concerning her husband are also untrue, and that they were circulated by persons who knew them to be such.

Died at 97 Years. Mrs. James Stratton, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Harkless, at Graham Station, aged ninety-seven years, ten months and seventeen days. She was the daughter of John Hoover and originally came from York county. Her husband John Stratton, who died in 1876, was a native of Unionville.

J. B. ARD. Joseph B. Ard, one of the most widely known men in upper Penns Valley, died at his home in Pine Grove Mills Wednesday morning.

The deceased was the descendant of Dr. Joseph B. Ard, who died in Philadelphia in 1861. George Ard, who was born in Lewistown, was his father. There were four children, namely, Eliza R. wife of Francis Shoemaker, who died in Philadelphia; Dr. Wilson P., a practicing physician, at Woodward; Ellen R., wife of Robert A. Lorett, who died in Florida.

Mr. Ard began life as a store clerk, and after two years in a country store held a similar position with Cooper & Conrad, Philadelphia. In 1864 he took a course in a mercantile college, and returning to Pine Grove Mills in 1868, established himself in mercantile business, which he successfully carried on until 1871, when he engaged in merchant milling.

In 1885 Mr. Ard was married to Miss Mary C. Lytle, of Ferguson township, who survives him, as does also one son, Joseph, aged about sixteen years. In politics Mr. Ard was a stalwart Democrat. For some years past he had been living retired, but always took a lively interest in all the affairs of his home village.

He was aged about sixty-seven years.

MRS. FRANK ARMAGAST. After a prolonged illness Mrs. Frank Armagast died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kuhn, at Old Fort, Saturday. She died of tuberculosis, and her age was twenty-six years, six months, two days.

Interment was made at Spring Mills Tuesday morning, Rev. J. Max Lantz officiating. The husband and one child survives, as do also the parents and several brothers and sisters.
