YOUNG MAN, OWN A HOME; BUY IT NOW

Rude-Turn-By.
A pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Turney, on 29th ultimo, when their daughter, Miss Blanche, was united in marriage to John Rude, of Bellefonte. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. D. A. Sowers, of the Methodist Episcopal church, of Pleasant Gap. Fifty guests witnessed the ceremony and partook of the wedding supper. Their many friends wish them a happy voyage on the sea of life.

Minnick Stover.
Lester W. Minnick, of Millheim, and Miss Amy A. Stover, of Rebersburg, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott G. Stover, on Thursday evening of last week. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Frank Wetzel of the Reformed church.

Madisonburg vs Georges Valley.
A rather spirited game of baseball was played at Spring Mills between the Madisonburg and Georges Valley teams, the result being a score of six and four, the latter winning. Pitcher Smith did fine work, and kept the opposing team from making tours of the diamond.

LOCALS.
Mrs. J. D. Smithgall, of Austin, is at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Annie Spangler, in Centre Hall.
A car load of "Fresh Air Children" are being entertained by farmers about Belleville. They were "shipped" from Jersey City.

The Keystone Gazette thinks William A. Carson, farmer east of Centre Hall, has a bee in his bonnet singing of the possibilities of him becoming a Democratic candidate for sheriff.

Michael J. Doyle, along the pike near Burnham, who conducts a small tobacco store, was robbed Saturday night by two masked persons. They secured about $45.00. Doyle was knocked senseless and bound until the highwaymen secured their booty.

Last week mention was made in these columns that Miss Ida Rhoads, daughter of Rev. W. W. Rhoads, of Howard, had been taken to a Philadelphia hospital. Word has been received that she underwent an operation at the Methodist hospital, and that her condition is very favorable.

Among the passengers Monday going east was Capt. W. H. Fry, who was on his way to Milton to visit his son, a recent graduate from the veterinary department of the University of Pennsylvania, who swung his V. M. D. shingle on the breeze in that flourishing Northumberland county town.

Harris Township.
Corn, potatoes and all vegetation is suffering from lack of rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher returned to Altoona Monday.

Edwin Rupp, of the Mountain City, spent a few days with his parents.

Mrs. H. S. Harris and children are visiting her aunt, Mrs. Lindsey, at Pitsaun.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Rishel spent the time from Saturday until Monday with relatives near Axe Mann.

Mrs. Weiss, of Altoona, was a guest at the home of Charles Kuhn over Sunday.

Misses Katie and Lizzie Ziegler, of near Axe Mann, spent Saturday at the home of their brother, Adam Ziegler.

Miss Katie Burkholder, of Centre Hill, visited friends at Boalsburg and Walnut Grove on Saturday.

Misses Margaret and Ruth Coxe, of Bellefonte, were visitors at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Nannie Coxe.

Dr. Kidder and family and Miss Anna Dale spent Saturday evening at the home of George Dale, at Dale Summit.

W. C. Meyer and sister, Miss Elizabeth, of State College, spent Friday evening at the home of their brother, J. H. Meyer.

Mrs. George Fisher, with her two interesting little boys, Harold and Nevin, enjoyed a week at her parental home at Bellefonte.

Don't forget the festival Friday and Saturday evenings, given by the Odd Fellows in the town hall at Boalsburg.

Miss Alice Weber, of Huntingdon, is having a vacation of ten days, part of which time she is enjoying with friends in Boalsburg and vicinity.

Misses Elsie and Nora Barr, who are visitors from Kansas, and their aunt, Miss Salie Barr, of Pine Grove Mills, returned from a trip to Atlantic City.

B. Cowher, of Bellefonte, had a display of moving pictures in the town hall Saturday evening, which proved an enjoyment to quite a number of people.

The Lutheran Sunday School will hold a picnic in McFarlane's Grove, Saturday, August 14. The other Sunday Schools of Boalsburg are invited to enjoy the day with them.

Mrs. John Durner and son Paul visited for a few days with her sister, Mrs. William Johnson, at Pine Hall. On their homeward way they called on relatives at State College.

Mrs. Clarence Passmore, of Harrisburg, is a guest at the home of her father, Adam Felty. She expects to remain for some time and will visit relatives in different parts of the country.

Teachers elected for this township are: High School, Prof. H. C. Rothrock; Boalsburg grammar, E. H. Williams; Boalsburg primary, Miss Margaret Mothersbaugh; Rock Hill, H. M. Hosterman; Walnut Grove, H. N. Lonberger; Shingletown, William Fressler.

Miss Susan Alexander, while visiting relatives at Smithtown, had a fall, which made it difficult for her to walk. She afterwards visited at the home of J. W. Conley, at Centre Hill, where she was again unfortunate in falling, making it impossible for her to walk.

at all. She had a desire to be at her home in Boalsburg, and at her request James Keller and sister, Mrs. Conley, accompanied her to her home, where she is now receiving proper care by her niece, Mrs. Frank Meyer, of Gregg Station, spent several days with her attending to her wants.

LOCALS.

Sidney Kuhn, of White Deer, attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Frank Armagast.

Monday afternoon carpenter Henry Gettig lost his pocketbook between his home and that of Peter Jordan, near Colyer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Wagner Geiss accompanied by their children, and Samuel Hart, of Braddock, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Geiss, Sunday.

There are scores of families in Centre county who hold annual reunions, but the largest family of all--the Smiths--have refrained from participating in the fad, and all, perhaps, because the business of the county would be too much interfered with if the members would take a day off for such a pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dellett, daughter Margaret and sons James, Ross and Harry and Miss Leontine Lakin, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ross, son Spencer and daughter, Elizabeth, of Harrisburg, drove across the seven mountains Friday, from Milroy, stopping at "Pat" Garity's on their return for supper.

Lumberman John Treaster, of Centre Hill, is sporting an automobile, and it runs, too, just when he wants it to. Mr. Treaster owns a portable saw mill, and has cut a number of small timber tracts in the valley which netted him a handsome profit. He has an eye to business, and will not let the automobile fever keep him from filling lumber orders.

In this issue D. M. Campbell, the Millheim furniture dealer, advertises a clearance sale that means just what the advertisement says. Mr. Campbell carries a large stock of goods in his line, and it will pay anyone wishing to make a purchase of furniture to go to his parlors and inspect his goods. The sale is not made up of out-of-date furniture, but the latest patterns are included.

The annual gathering and basket picnic of the farmers and their friends, of Huntingdon, Centre and Blair counties, will be held in Funk's grove, Warriorsmark, on Saturday, 14th instant, and a complete program for a fine day of recreation has been arranged. At 10 o'clock in the morning there will be an address by Hon. Alva Ag. of State College, and other speakers will also take part in the platform meeting.
