Ephraim H. Shook Dead.

Ephraim H. Shook, a well known farmer in Gregg township, took his own life early Wednesday morning. It appears he and one of his sons occupied a room, and about three o'clock the son went down stairs for some medicine, and during his absence the father arose from his bed, and with a shot gun committed the deed. Mr. Shook had been in poor health, and the temporary aberration, during which time the awful tragedy occurred, is attributed to that fact. He was a member of one of the most prominent families in Gregg township, being a son of Philip Shook, deceased, his mother, Mrs. Catharine Harter Shook, surviving him, as do also three brothers, namely, George F. and Emanuel P., both of Spring Mills, and Daniel, of Coburn.

Mr. Shook lived on the Shook homestead, near the Heckman cemetery, below Spring Mills. His wife was Miss Roush, who survives as do also two noble sons, one of whom is a school teacher in Gregg township. His age is about fifty-three years. Interment will be made Friday and will be strictly private. The community expresses great sorrow over this sad death, and especially does sympathy go out to the aged mother who is so deeply grieved.

Kepler Barn Burned.

Tuesday evening, between seven and eight o'clock, the barn on what is known as the Harter farm, near Pine Grove Mills, owned by Hon. W. J. Kepler, was burned as well as the contents, consisting of the crops of wheat and oats, and a large quantity of hay. No stock was burned, and in the implement line nothing but one wagon. The fire was first discovered on the hay mow, but no explanation can be made of its origin. The barn was built about twelve years ago. George Inhoff, a farm hand occupies the premises, the farming being conducted from the Kepler homestead. There is $1000 insurance on the barn and $200 on the contents in the Centre Hall fire insurance company.

Saturday the Boalsburg Junior base ball team played the State College Athletics a return game at State College, Boalsburg winning by the score of 5 to 5, after a hard fought contest which was not decided until the last man was out. The feature of the game was the batting of Leech and Keller for Boalsburg, the former getting two triples and a double, and the latter getting a home run and two singles. Fielding for Boalsburg, and Kline for the Athletics, carried off the fielding honors. Score by innings: Boalsburg—0 1 0 2 0 3 0 2—8 Athletics—0 0 0 1 0 3 1 0—5

LOCALES.

Mrs. Charles Geary, of Altoona, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rossman, near Tusseyville. The little daughter of Wallace Geary, of near Tusseyville, who was quite ill is considerable better at this time. Mrs. P. H. Meyer, of Centre Hall, recently made a trip to Selingsgrove, where she was the guest of her brother, Rev. Foster R. Fetterolf. Miss Gertrude Bartholomew, who holds a position as bookkeeper in Patton, is in Centre Hall and will be here until Friday, the guest of relatives. Misses Irene and Ruth Ross and Master Fred Ross, all of Linden Hall, drove to Centre Hall Friday afternoon. They are daughters and grandson, respectively, of Merchant J. H. Ross. While putting down pipe on the line from the reservoir to Laurel Spring, D. B. Brisbin, the contractor, was hit on the leg by a pipe that broke while being sprung into position, and received painful bruises. While in the garden Daniel Wion, of Centre Hall, felt the effects of the heat to such an extent that he thought it best to go to the house, and on the way fell to the ground. He soon recovered but later became ill. Wheat in Union county is a rank failure. It is estimated that the average yield from the county will not be over ten bushels per acre. On some of the best farms, where there was an abundance of straw, the yield has fallen below that average. Corn and oats have also been greatly damaged by the drought. Mrs. Lizzie Maginn, of Chicago, came east Monday for a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Krise, the latter being a sister. From here she will go to Harrisburg, and in company with her nephew, W. S. Krise, of Johnstown, will go on to Baltimore to visit another sister. Mrs. Maginn just returned from a prolonged visit to her son, a practicing physician in In Butte, Montana. Her eldest daughter is a school teacher in Chicago, and was one of five of the corps who spent her vacation touring in Europe. While in Rome the young lady was granted an audience with the Pope, a favor much sought after.

He is advertising that he will give away, absolutely free, several valuable pieces of furniture, and what he advertises he will also do. Mr. and Mrs. John Scholl, accompanied by their son Arthur, of Altoona, are spending the week at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Rebecca Scholl, in Centre Hall. Some forty persons, young and old, held a picnic on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lutz, Thursday of last week. They were friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Lohr, of Philadelphia. Part of the time was spent in reciting poems, singing and playing games. After the auction lot sale at State College, Saturday afternoon, the State College transportation company will carry passengers to Centre Hall, Millheim, Coburn and intermediate points. This will give those traveling by rail an easy way of returning home, and also afford the pleasure of an automobile ride. Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Meyer, Miss Emma Meyer, of Rebersburg, Rev. and Mrs. D. A. Nolly and three children, of Wayne; Mrs. H. E.
