DEATHS.

LEONARD MESSIMER

Wednesday of last week Leonard Messimer died at his home in the vicinity of Green Grove church, north of Penn Hall, and interment was made in Green Grove cemetery Saturday morning, Rev. D. C. Caris, pastor of the Evangelical church officiating.

Mr. Messimer was a veteran of the civil war, and was aged eighty-one years and ten months. He had been in delicate health for some time due to age. He is survived by a wife, nee Maria Snyder, and seven children, namely, John, Joseph, Mrs. Henry Wagner and Mrs. Reeder, all of Green Grove; William, of Greenburr, Clinton county; Jacob, of State College, and Mrs. John Snyder, of Penn Hall. The deceased was a member of the Evangelical church for a period of forty-one years.

MRS. JOHN ZERBY.

Sarah Elizabeth Stitzer, wife of John Zerby, of Colyer, died at her home Friday, aged sixty-six years, seven months and twenty-one days. Interment was made in the Evangelical cemetery, Zion Hill, Monday morning, Rev. D. C. Caris, pastor of the Evangelical church of which the deceased was a member for a period of years, officiating.

Mrs. Zerby was the daughter of William Stitzer, and was born near Millheim. She is survived by a husband and three sons--John, Emory, and William--all at home.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hunter, wife of Capt. John A. Hunter, of Armstrong, died on the 3rd instant, in the home in which she was born and raised. She was the daughter of Abraham and Susan Elder, who established the home as early as 1784. She was born December, 1824 and in 1852 became the wife of Capt. Hunter.

She is survived by her husband and four children, namely: Anna Mary, who is at home; Dr. Wallace R. Hunter, of Erie; Professor John A. Hunter, Jr., of Boulder, Colorado, and Mrs. A. W. Smith, of Blairsville.

Jeremiah Rider died recently at the home of his daughter at Pannettown, of diseases incident to his advanced age. He will be remembered more distinctly by many of the residents in the vicinity of Pleasant Gap where for years he resided on what was known as the Gibson Larimer farm, now owned by M. M. Keller. He was also an old soldier. His wife died several years ago. He is survived by several children. The remains were brought to Bellefonte for interment.

Nittany Club House Burned.

The Nittany Country club house, at Hecla Park, was burned Wednesday evening of last week. How the fire originated is not known. Much of the furniture was saved.

The building was 60x80 feet, and originally was built almost a century ago, and was the property of the McMullen estate, the Country Club Association having leased it.

The loss is variously estimated at from ten to twenty thousand dollars. The club had $3000 insurance, and the McMullen estate $6000. Two thousand of the insurance was in the Centre Hall fire insurance company.
