NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR CHARTER IN THE COUNTY OF COMMON PLEAS OF CENTRE COUNTY.
Notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the Honorable Ellis D. Orvis, judge of said court, on Monday, the 27th day of September, A. D. 1909, at ten o'clock a. m., under the Act of Assembly which provides for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations, approved April 28th, A. D. 1874, and its supplements, by W. F. Hooker, J. B. Wert, D. S. Garow, C. W. Swartz, W. S. Neff, E. W. Franke, Samuel Klumfeldt, E. C. Ripka, R. R. Rickert, K. C. Harter, M. E. Ransom, and E. C. Wert, for a charter of an intended corporation to be called "The Reformed and Lutheran Cemetery Association," of Tusseyville, Centre county, Pennsylvania, the charter and object of which is to purchase land or receive the same by gift or otherwise, to lay out, sell, and dispose of burial lots, and to erect and maintain a cemetery, and to care for a place for the burial of the dead; and for these purposes to have, possess, and enjoy all the rights, benefits, and privileges conferred by the said act and its supplements.

LEGAL NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that the following account will be presented to the Court for confirmation on Wednesday, September 29th, 1909, and unless exceptions are taken thereon, on or before the second day of the term, the same will be confirmed, to wit:
Third account of G. H. Lichtenhalar, committee of Sebastian Schuckman.
First and final account of Anthony Dussling, guardian of Emma Gross.
Account of A. S. Brown, receiver of the Osceola Foundry & Machine Company.

HYDRAULIC RAM FOR SALE.—The undersigned offers for sale a second-hand hydraulic ram, in good condition, at a great bargain. Call at the Hot Air Pump Exhibit, during the Grange Encampment and Fair, or address as below:
T. HOWARD WEBB,
Lincoln University, Pa.

DIAMOND PIN LOST.—A heart-shaped pin, set with diamonds, was lost by the undersigned on the mountain road between Hecla Park and Penna. Care, Monday forenoon. A suitable reward will be paid for its return.

Wanted—Rain.
When you are in doubt where to get it, go to Emery's.

Miss Grace Huffman, of Tyrona, is this week the guest of Miss Helen Bartholomew.

Columbus discovered America in 1492; Cook attached the stars and stripes to the North Pole in 1908. Both are now historical facts.

Mrs. Sarah Wolf and Mrs. H. H. Miller, of Rebersburg, visited their brother, Merchant H. W. Kreamer, in Centre Hall, and from here went to Bellefonte to visit a sister.

There will be no September court this year, owing to the fact that the court house is being remodeled and accommodations could not be had. The next regular court opens the first Monday in December.

Dr. A. G. Lieb, of Bethlehem, was in Centre Hall the latter part of last week, having come here to consult with his tenant, John A. Corman, who conducts the large Lieb farm, east of Centre Hall.

None of the Reporter readers should leave Grange Park during the Grange Encampment and Fair without first calling at this paper's headquarters. By becoming better acquainted with its readers, the editor will be able to better serve them.

Have you prepared your exhibit for the Grange Encampment and Fair? Every farmer in the county has something that would look well on the exhibition stand, and why not take it there especially when you can get cash premiums for every exhibit.

The annual convention of the Pennsylvania Millers' Association convened at the Pennsylvania State College, Wednesday, and will continue until Friday. The College Experiment Station has arranged to have some milling tests of varieties of wheat made in co-operation with this association.

The season of the year is here when the public schools are opening. The state is appropriating large sums of money for the education of the children and it is important that parents send their children as early as possible. An education is an inheritance to your children, which they cannot spend. Send your children to school.

Jared Fleisher, accompanied by his daughters, Mrs. C. F. Gerny and Miss Leanne, and Mrs. Gerny's husband, were the guests of Miss Kathryn Fleisher during the past ten days. Mr. Fleisher is a son of the late Daniel Fleisher, and has been located in Jamestown, New York, for some years. He has been exceptionally successful in business, and now is enjoying his income. The party traveled in one of Mr. Fleisher's autos, and while here made a number of side trips.

Burglars After Tax Money.
Benjamin Everhart, tax collector in Franklin township, Huntingdon county, who is well known in the upper end of Penna Valley, made a narrow escape from being relieved of a sum of money collected as taxes, Thursday night of last week. About midnight, burglars gained entrance to the hall of his house, but the noise awakened his sister, Miss Martha, who called "who is there?" and gave alarm. The burglars beat a retreat. A vehicle of some description was standing near the gate, in the darkness, and in this the men escaped.

Boalsburg vs. Linden Hall.
An interesting game of base ball was played between Linden Hall and Boalsburg on the former's grounds, which was won by the latter, (score 8-13) but not until thirteen hard fought innings were played. The game abounded in good plays as well as poor ones, on both sides. Rupp pitched a good game for Boalsburg, but the poor support of the men back of him, at critical times, enabled Linden Hall to tie the score in the ninth.

Mail Carrier Elop.
Steward Harpster, mail carrier between Pennsylvania Furnace and Spruce Creek, and Mrs. Frank Thomas, both of Spruce Creek Valley, eloped last week and when last heard from were in Pittsburg. Harpster sold his mail outfit in order to get the ready cash much needed on the unheralded trip. The incident has caused much comment because of the fact that both parties left large families consisting of small children.

Maude M. Miller, Bellefonte

Eloped, but Did Not Marry.
Millheim had a bit of a sensation Saturday evening, when it was discovered that Boyd King and Miss Viola Campbell, both of that place, disappeared. It was presumed the young couple had eloped. The mother of the young girl got busy over the telephone and spoiled their plans, if marrying was contemplated. Monday evening both Mr. King and the young lady returned, and it is said both are yet in single blessedness.

Shot to Death Playing Wild West.
Playing "Wild West" in the backyard Sunday afternoon at Milroy, James Lepley, aged 14 years, son of John Lepley, shot his companion, William Shank, aged 9 years, in the right eye with a target gun, the ball entering the brain and killing him instantly.

Saved at Sea.
The above is the title of a complete service of story and song that will be rendered in the United Evangelical church, Sunday evening. All are invited.

Speakers for Veteran Reunion.
While engagements have not been definitely made, Dr. John H. Harpster, captain company G, 148th Regiment, who just came to the states from India, Dr. Sparks, president Pennsylvania State College, Dr. Platts, of Bellefonte, and H. H. Hipple, Esq., of Lock Haven, will likely be among the speakers.

Turkey Dinner at Old Fort.
A turkey dinner will be served at Old Fort Hotel Sunday, September 12. These dinners have become a feature at this hotel, and we will be pleased to meet our former guests as well as any others who care to partake of first-class dinner.

LOCALS.

Next week comes the Grange Encampment and Fair.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodhart, of Altoona, were in town a few days last week.
John Snavey, of Spring Mills, offers for sale three brood sows and a fine heifer. See advertisement.
Messrs. John W. Neese and A. B. Homan advertise the real estate of Jacob Neese in Gregg township, at private sale.

Harry Witten & Company advertise in this issue. It will be the reader's worth while to visit their clothing store and examine their goods.

John K. Hosterman, of Wolf's Store, is suffering from a rupture and is confined to bed. He is past eighty-two years of age, and is the father of Dr. G. W. Hosterman, of Centre Hall.

Since adding a first class Golding press to the Reporter's job department, first class work can be done at this office. If you have any printing to do, let the Reporter make you a bid.

George C. Tate, the well known contractor and builder, will erect the new home for the Democrat and Sentinel in Lewistown. The building will be a modern one. Mr. Tate is well known in Centre county.

It is thirty-six years since the first Grangers' picnic was held in Centre county. It was a one day affair then, and was held in Leech's woods, near Linden Hall, known at that time as the camping meeting grounds.

Under the direction of State Zoologist Surface a number of orchards in Centre county will be inspected. The work will be under the direct supervision of T. C. Foster, who has had large experience in that particular work.

Mrs. Rebecca Cummings, of Centre Hall, and sister, Mrs. Sarah Strobecker, of Rebersburg, beginning of this week returned from a visit to the former's daughter, Mrs. B. P. McClees, in Chicago. The ladies also visited Mr. and Mrs. John Stump, at Elwood, Illinois.

Emery, the general merchant, has stocked his store with a line of goods especially suited to campers on Grange Park, during the Grange Encampment and Fair. You will find all kinds of green goods, canned goods, and the modern package goods, in great variety, at Emery's.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Shirk, of Springfield, Missouri, arrived in Centre Hall Wednesday and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Brisbin. Mr. Shirk is the son of the late Reuben Shirk, and is a railroad man, being a passenger conductor on the Frisco system. They will be in the east for ten days or more.

After a connection with the clothing store of Montgomery & Company for a number of years in various capacities, John M. Bullock is now a member of that firm. This is proof that his past services have been most valuable. Mr. Bullock is a young man of good business qualities, and is in every way suited for the business in which he has engaged. Success to him and his firm.

Miss Helen F. Williams, of Beech Creek, has been elected to teach the Intermediate grade of the Centre Hall borough schools. Miss Williams is a graduate of the Central State Normal, at Lock Haven, and has had four years experience as a teacher. She and a brother had arranged to go to Cuba, but later, after the schools in her home county had been let their plans were changed.

William Johnstonbaugh, of near Zion, closed a deal for the purchase of the William Thompson farm at Houserville, which is one of the largest and best farms in this section of the state, containing three hundred and fifty acres, or practically a square mile. The consideration was $12,250.00. Mr. Johnstonbaugh expects to take possession of the same on or before the first of April, next.

The "Old Relics Department" at the Grange Encampment and Fair gives the ladies an opportunity to put on exhibition and receive for the same a cash premium for any articles of needle work they may have on hand. This department is very popular among the fair-goers, and especially with the gentler sex, who spend much time in examining the work. The articles put on exhibition are well taken care of during the encampment, reducing the risk of damage to the minimum.

After a desire to live in the country for many years, Dr. A. G. Lieb, who for twenty-one years has been a practicing physician in Bethlehem, will take up quarters in the Duck residence, between Spring Mills and Penn Hall, about the first of October, and will "batch" it until next spring. Dr. Lieb has been on his farm east of Centre Hall, tenanted by John A. Corman, during the past week, and while here sold his timber land, consisting of about one hundred and thirty acres, to Messrs. Showers and Shesley, the former a resident of Centre Hall. They will begin operations some time in October. With quarters at Penn Hall, Dr. Lieb expects to make daily trips to his farm, and thus get the full benefit of country life. It is possible, should his expectations of country joy not be full before the arrival of the spring poet of 1910, that he will locate permanently somewhere in the valley.

Oak Hall.

Miss Laura Benner spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Willis Houz, near Rock.
Miss Gertrude Wieland returned Saturday evening from a visit to Sunbury.
