Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Benner during the past week were Miss Elizabeth Stover, of Bellefonte; Mrs. O. D. Eberts, of Martha; Miss Mattie Williams, New York; W. A. Stutsman, Johnstown; David Leitzell, Flemington.

S. M. Campbell, the Millheim furniture dealer and undertaker, who uses the Reporter's columns to good profit as an advertising medium, was a caller last week, having come to Centre Hall to spend a day on Grange Park. Of course, he would not leave home on such a trip, without taking Mrs. Campbell with him.

Rev. W. W. Rhoads, of Howard, was one of the numerous callers at the Reporter's quarters. He was very much pleased to say that his daughter, Miss Ida, is home from the Methodist Hospital, Philadelphia, and is very much improved; in fact, so well that he is altogether hopeful of her complete recovery. Her condition was very serious, and was obliged to undergo three operations.

Among the tenters on the Park who had a jolly good time were the Hettingers. The party was composed of Mrs. W. S. Musser, of Columbia, formerly of Spring Mills, and Miss Marion Musser; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hettinger, of Altoona, and F. C. Hettinger, of Geensburg. The former Mr. Hettinger is a foreman in the Penny shops, and the latter who for some years has been in the express service in various sections of the country, both north and south, is now chief clerk in the Rappe hotel, Greensburg. The Rappe is the best hotel in that section of the state and Mr. Hettinger is holding a position it is difficult to fill.

DEATHS.

MRS. MARY ELLA SCHUYLER.
Mrs. Mary Ella Schuyler, wife of Dr. W. Henry Schuyler, of Centre Hall, died in the Bellefonte hospital at six o'clock on Wednesday evening of last week, after nine months of severe illness. She took sick last January and was taken to the hospital for an operation. She recovered sufficiently to be taken home but her ailment developed later and in June she was again taken to the hospital for a second operation. Since then she had been under constant treatment in that institution and several weeks ago she was apparently growing stronger, but ten days previous to her death Bright's disease developed and from that time she sank gradually until the end, being practically unconscious for twenty-four hours prior to her death.
Deceased, whose maiden name was Mary Ella Carver, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Carver, and was born at Kinderhook, on the Hudson, sixty-two years ago. She was a woman of rare educational attainments, having graduated from Elmira college in 1867. She was a great reader and student and was conversant with many of the leading and important books of the past and present. Mrs. Schuyler was a great aid to her husband in his pastoral work; she was also deeply interested in Sunday school and missionary work, as well as in the W. C. T. U., and local Hospital Aid Society. She was a woman of charitable inclinations, and was much concerned for the welfare of others outside her immediate family.
In 1876 she was united in marriage to Rev. W. Henry Schuyler, and they moved to Centre Hall in 1907, since which time he has been pastor of the Presbyterian church here. They had two children, William Cattell, who died in the Hayes private sanatorium, Bellefonte, in November, 1901, after undergoing an operation, and Miss Mary Eloise, a teacher in the Cape May, N. J., High School.
The remains were brought to the Presbyterian Manse Thursday morning, and interment was made in the cemetery in this place Saturday morning. Rev. J. Allison Platts, of Bellefonte, was the officiating minister.

TO THE FARMERS OF CENTRE COUNTY :

Our business during the Grange Encampment and Fair was of such a character in volume that we feel like expressing gratitude to the Encampment management for the opportunity to make an exhibit and in that way bring our machinery and implements to the notice of the farmers in Centre County.

The patronage on the part of the farmers was liberal, very liberal, and we have endeavored to sell to them and succeeded because we offered to them the best makes of machinery and implements that are manufactured. Our machines are not always the cheapest in price, but they are the best money will buy.

Those who examined our exhibit and have not already given us their orders, are invited to call at our regular places of business at Centre Hall or Oak Hall Station, where we will be ready to quote prices for present or spring deliveries.
