

DEATHS.

JOHN MEESE.

John Meese, one of Bellefonte's most prominent and highly respected citizens, died very suddenly Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. Meese was born in Bellefonte almost seventy years ago. From there he removed with his parents to Howard, where he remained until sixteen years of age.

Mrs. Meese, nee Leticia Lucas, also of Howard, survives, as do also a daughter, Mrs. J. Will Conley, and a granddaughter, Miss Nellie Conley.

The following brothers and sisters also survive, namely, Jacob, New York; George, Washington, D. C.; Lewis, Pittsburg; Mrs. R. H. Rutherford, Zanesville, O.; Mrs. Nancy Holter, Pittsburg; Mrs. Andrew Morrison, Williamsport; Mrs. Shuman Pletcher, Howard.

JOHN K. HOSTERMAN.

The death of John K. Hosterman occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clayton Weaver, at Wolf's Store, where he had made his home during the past five years, Tuesday evening, aged eighty-three years.

Interment will take place Friday morning, Rev. Wetzel, of the Reformed church, to officiate.

The deceased lived in the community in which he died for many years, having gone there from Millheim when but a boy. His wife preceded him to the grave five years ago.

MRS. SARAH HELLER.

At the advanced age of eighty-seven years, eleven months and seventeen days, Mrs. Sarah Heller died at her home at Rockville, near Rebersburg, Friday of last week.

The deceased was the widow of Peter Heller, and was the mother of nine children, two daughters and seven sons, four of whom survive.

RACHAEL MEEK.

Miss Rachael Meek, eldest daughter of ex-Senator P. Gray Meek, died Tuesday afternoon. She had been in delicate health for six or more years, but during the most of the time was able to be about.

For a number of years, Miss Meek was a valuable assistant on the Democratic Watchman, editing one or more of its special departments with ability.

Ruth Pearl, aged two months and seven days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baylor, of Reedsville, died on 14th instant.

"We had a little treasure once, She was our joy and pride, We loved her, ah, perhaps too well, For soon she slept and died, All is dark within our dwelling, Lonely are our hearts today, For the one we loved so dearly Has forever passed away."

Miss Lizzie Stalker died at Wilkesburg, and the remains were interred at Grayville Tuesday morning. She was aged seventy-six years, and died Friday from stomach trouble.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Boyer, of Aaronsburg, died last week. Interment was made Saturday, Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder, officiating.

Barn Burned.

The large barn on the Ricker homestead farm in the east end of Nittany Valley, in Lamar twp., Clinton Co., owned by Samuel L. and Charles L. Ricker, the dairymen, with eight head of horses, one cow, a number of farm implements, and 200 bushels of barley in the granary, unthreshed wheat from forty acres and about twenty acres of oats, besides a large quantity of hay, was destroyed by fire, from some unknown cause, Sunday morning between four and five o'clock.

Classis Committee Work.

The executive committee of West Susquehanna classis will meet in the Reformed church, West Milton, today (Thursday), to transact business relative to several pastorates in the classis district, among which will be to confirm, if found in order, the call of Rev. H. I. Crow, to the new charge consisting of Hubersburg and Zion charges; to dismiss Rev. S. H. Deitzel to Pittsburg Synod; to appoint a committee of supply for the reconstructed Nittany Valley charge.

Birthdays Remembered.

Monday evening the home of D. C. Krebs, of State College, was taken by storm during Mr. Krebs' absence. His daughter Margaret arranged the affair to a successful surprise, though it was her own birthday as well as that of both her parents.

On the same evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lytle, on the Branch, gave a birthday party to the younger set in honor of their eldest daughter, Verna, who attained her sixteenth birthday. Many fine presents were presented and of course there was an elaborate spread.
