May Not Bar Small Checks,

In contradiction to the published statement that it is illegal to draw checks for a less amount than $1, Benjamin H. Swarts, secretary to Representative Moon, of Philadelphia, chairman of the committee on reversion of laws, on behalf of Mr. Moon says : "The section does not mean that the purpose of preventing the issuance ment and stamps were authorized to be used as money. The act was passed of paper money in denominations less than $1 and has very little importance in its effects upon the public ".

At the same time the secretary of the treasury has asked the law officers of the government to give an opinion on ship, September 11, 1909. $2 90 the construction to be put on the provision.

To the Lewisburg Fair.

The return train to Lewisburg fair was well patronized by the valley people. The names appended were handed the Reporter as some of the people, young and old, who bought excursion 21, 1909. $1. tickets.

Centre Hall : Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Royer, Mr. and Mrs. T.A. Hosterman, Mrs. J. R. G. Allison, Mrs. D. Milton Bradford, Mrs. J. W. Mitterling, Misses Lena M. Emerick, Isabel Rowe, Rae Frisher, Laura Runkle, Fermor Hoover, Sarah Reish, Margaret and Laura Mitterling, Nettle Lingle; Messrs, James Smetzler, George Durst, Soloman Lingle, D. W. Bradford, George Sharer, F. M. Rossman, Rev. B. F. Bieber, Robert Foreman, Joseph Lutz, Prof. P. H. Meyer, Calvin Smith, Clayton Homan, Leslie Jacobs, John Arney and Bruce Arney.

Linden Hall-Bertha Tressler. Spring Mills-At this point forty-two tickets were sold. Only a part of the names of the per sons who attended could be secured, and they are these : Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Meyer, Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Braucht, Misses Mable Brown, Mabel Finkle, Estella Wolf. Marion Finkle, Ida Condo, Rae Houtz, Mr Woods, Mrs. Ruhl, John R. Shook, Miss Rachau, Clayton Dunlap and two sisters, William Ruhl, W. H. Meyers, Mrs. S. L. Condo and daughter Mary, J. A. Finkle, Miss Rosie Smith.

Old Relic Department.

A very interesting exhibit at the Grange Encampment and Fair was first time. The exhibit was very carefully investigated by many of the people who attended the fair. The exhibitors in this department were as follows:

Mrs. John W. Conley Mrs. W. A. Alexander Mrs. A. McClenahan Edith Sankey Mrs. William Farner John Wolf Mrs. V. B. Bilger William Shutt Mrs. Mary Goodhart William Shutt Mis B. W. Rumberger Lizzie Weaver Israel Kauffman Mrs. Mary Goodhar Mrs. Clyde Bradfors W. M. Swabb W. M. Swabb
Esie Slick
Mrs. J. W. Brown
Prof. W. A. Krise
Mrs. W. A. Krise
Mrs. B. F. Reish
J. B. Fisher's & Sons
Mrs. F. O. Bairfoot
Mrs. J. S. Meyer
Mrs. J. A. Heckman
Mrs. R. U. Bitner
Mrs. J. B. Strohm
Mrs. J. B. Strohm
Mrs. J. Daniel Daup Mrs. Sarah Etters George C. Miller George W. Miller Mrs. H. N. Hoy Mrs. Clayton Royer Mrs. Bert Hartmen Rebecca Derstine Bertha McCormick A. C. Grove Bamuel Ertle Mrs. Daniel Daup H. I. Ailman Dr. S. C. Musser Mrs. M. S. Miller Mrs. Charles Arney Mrs. Henry Lingle Robert Bartges

New Departure

After two months of remarkable sales, Bitner, and Murray, the enterprising druggists, say that their plan of selling at half price the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, system. and guaranteeing to refund the money est success they have ever known.

of the specific; and as yet have not purchased some time ago. Considerhad one returned, although they stand able filling up is needed, but when ready at any time to refund the completed the appearance of that money should any customer be dissatisfied.

Anyone suffering with dyspepsia, constipation, liver trouble, headaches. dizziness, coated tongue, or the gener- Harry W. Dinges wishes he had the al tired feeling caused by inactive thief who stole several bags of wheat liver and bowls or disordered digestion, from his barn under just such a senshould take advantage of Bitner and tence. For a year or more petty thiev-Murray's new departure and buy a log about Centre Hall was a "lost art", bottle of Dr. Howard's specific at half but the old conditions are beginning price, with their personal guarantee to to return. refund the money if it does not cure another car load of cement and lime colic, and Monday of the same week stone screenings which are offered for he had hired a horse to one of the sale at the lowest prices. If you route men gathering cream for the intend building concrete walks or Spring Mills creamery. On reaching C. Confer. doing any other concrete work, I will a point opposite the Snavely farm. be pleased to consult with you.

Cement and Lime for Sale.

W. GROSS MINGLE, Centre Hall, Pa.

Unclaimed Letters.

The following unclaimed letters re-When called for please say advertised : tree, J. H. Holtzinger.

McAllister Scholarships.

Out of a desire to establish a lasting intendent of schools in each county. All nominations will be made by com- were destroyed. then to prevent the circulation of these petive examination, which shall take and of notes not issued by the govern- into consideration conduct, habits, is $3,500; Deitz's loss $3,000 and John the Great Peace. ment. It refers only to the issuance scholarship and needs of financial assistance.

Transfer of Real Estate.

Marcella S. Beals, et al to John Smay, tract of land in Huston town-1909, $2300.

Harry F. Cogan, et ux to W. Scott 1909. $100.

Lloyd Stover, to Anna Stover, tract of land in Worth township, September three years ago from Rev. J. M William L. Foster, et al to Effie Reimensnyder, lot in State College, August 14, 1909, $235. William L. Foster, et al to Simon P.

14, 1909. $240. Thomas Foster, et al to Nittany, Light, Heat & Power Co., lot in State College, April 14, 1909. $300.

LOCALS.

Men's $4.00 leather boots, $2.48, fair week only, at Yeager's.

There will be a regular meeting of Progress Grange Saturday afternoon. It is claimed by those who have ingiving season.

Ex-Sheriff and Mrs. Brungart and Misses Cora Brungart and Jennie Thomas made a trip to Beliefonte last week in the Harper automobile.

the old relic department. There were Gramley, of Spring Mills, attended opera house on Monday, October, 11. Missouri is on the rise. He purchased many articles there this season for the the sessions of the Central Pennsyl- This is one of the latest plays from a farm there some time time ago, and vania Synod, of the Lutheran church, the pen of C. C. Hoyt, and is as bright, writes that he sold it for more than held at Blain, Perry county.

with this work he will go to Monroe Furnace and survey state lands.

The real estate of Mary V. Sharer, iff's sale by Clement Dale, Erq., for is carried. $80, in behalf of his client, Mrs. Arrey Cole.

Hon. A. McCall, of Sincer, Ontario, Canada, a member of the Canadian parliament, was in Centre county last week. He was here in the interest of his government investigating the and were the guests of Wm. Bair. supply of white pine timber still standing in Pennsylvania.

A Bell telephone will be installed in the residence of Dr. A. G. Lieb, at Penn Hall, and also at his farm east of Centre Hall, tenanted by John A. Korman. The latter will be on the Penns Cave rural line, under the place. Patrons Rural Telephone Company's

Beginning of this week George H. if it does not cure, has been the great- Emerick began building the foundation for a concrete walk along the They have sold hundreds of bottles front of the Durst property he community will be much improved.

> Judge Evans, of Bloomsburg, sentenced a thief thirty years for stealing several bushels of wheat, and now

W. H. Ruhl, the Spring Mills liveryman, had unusually hard luck last week. While attending the Lewis-The undersigned has just received burg fair one of his horses died from occupied by Edward S. Wiser, the animal fell over dead.

The Keystone Gazette makes this reference to Centre county's present last Saturday from the Lock Haven sheriff : Sheriff W. E. Hurley pur- hospital where she underwent an operchased a fine team of horses from ation, and is very much improved. main in the Centre Hall postoffice. Treasurer George G. Fink, of Marths, and since that time the sheriff has had tle, Frances and Warren, of Spring one o'clock. The property consists of Chas. Weder, George Carr, Harry little time for anything else but show- Mills, visited at the home of James a farm of one hundred and twenty-Boyd, Thomas Fulton, Chas. Roun- ing off that team, which is indeed a Foust last Sunday. dandy. His friends declare that they

A big fire at Mt. Eagle the other memorial to Hon. Hugh N. McAllis- Friday afternoon entirely destroyed Meek, the Watchman printed these ed his five year old daughter, Cathter, his daughter, Mrs. Hayes and hus- the handle factory of Leathers Bros., lines. band Dr. Thomas R. Hayes, gave an the dwelling house and store of Frankendowment of ten thousand dollars to lin Daitz and the barn on the rear of Pennsylvania State College to be used the lot of John Leathers. How the glad of life because it gave her a ing himself with unusual care, Allen thank you. to found five Freshman scholarships. fire originated is not known but it is chance to love and to work and to threw a light overcoat over his arm, According to the plan outlined the supposed that it caught from a spark play and to look up at the stars; to be picked, up a suit case, and going children, at Yeager's. you can not draw a check for $1. It was five scholarships will be given to the from the engine room of the factory. satisfied with her possessions, but not through the corrider to the main door taken from the revised statutes and five counties in Pennsylvania showing From there the fire communicated to was originally passed July 17, 1862, for the highest ratio of population of the Deitz's residence and store and thence made the best of them; to despise the door, the signal used by visitors county to the number of students from to John Leathers' stable, all of which nothing in the world except falsehood when ready to depart. Mrs. Wright, 23rd. of the old "shin-plaster." At that that county attending State College were totally destroyed. Most of the and meanness; to covet nothing of her the wife of the sheriff, was in charge time currency representing amounts the preceding year. The nominating machinery was removed from the less than $1 was issued by the govern- board will comprise the county super- handle factory, but about one hundred Leathers' loss on his barn $500. There was no insurance on any of the destroyed property.

Dr. Bituer Sold Farm.

Dr. H. F. Bitner, of Centre Hall, sold the Alexander farm, west of Old Maggie Runkle, et al to S. A. Don- Fort, to Martin M. Keller, of Peru, achy, lot in Bellefonte, September 18, who will occupy it by the first of April. Mr. Keller is a son of Ephraim Keller, who for some years lived Cain, lot in Port Matilda, August 14, near Linden Hall on the farm now owned by Prof. P. H. Meyer.

Dr. Bitner bought this farm just Rearick, now of Salona, for $4500. The selling price to Mr. Keller was $6000, which indicates the natural advance in real estate in this community. The farm has an acreage of Hennigh, lot in State College, August one hundred and forty-eight.

Prosperity at Burnham.

Indications of returning prosperity at the Standard and the Logan companies' works at Burnham are constantly growing brighter. Yesterday sixty-nine cars loaded with scraps were placed upon the Burnham railroad siding for unloading at the steel a resort in Virginia, and while there works. An extra crew was called into service to handle the cars, something which has not happened for will be very scarce for the Thanksproducts from the plants have been ed at Philipsburg, having moved unusually large the past week.

At the Garman Opera House.

"The County Sheriff," an entirely new play this season, produced by O. Although not a delegate, T. M. E. Wee, is the offering at the Garman interesting, witty, quick, dramatic twice the price he paid for it. William Grove, of Spring Mills, is and delightful as anything he has Witmer Smith will break up housefinishing the surveying of the Mifflin- heretofore written. The plot is Center county line, and when through original, holding one's interest to the very last. There are many amusing situations and intensely interesting scenes. A very elaborate production along the turnpike between Bell-fonte is utilized and everything essential to and Axemann, was purchased at sher- make the production a complete one Rebersburg.

Henry Royer, of Altoons, spent the past week in town visiting relatives. Mifflin Moyer and wife, of Centre Hall, spent last Sunday at this place, Jackson Ocker intends moving to Sugar Grove, Illinois, in the near future. Calvin Crouse will occupy the Centre Hall, had the misfortune to house Mr. Ocker vacates.

recently purchased Oren Weaver's about the face. Mr. Richley within farm situated two miles west of this the last few years expended $1500 in the latter part of this week.

Rebersburg can now boast of having amsport having opened up business Neff property, to Mrs. Alfred H. in Emma Bair's building.

at present circulating among relatives the Reporter you are missing a good in this place. Mr. Smull is buying up thing. Then there is all the difference a car load of winter apples which he in the world between a borrower and a will ship west within a short time.

Wetzel, in this place.

Georges Valley.

lic sale last Saturday and was purchased by Steward Ripka.

with the former's brother, James the robbing of mountain sides of their

Tuesday, where he has obtained work. to install a gasoline engine in his Jane Weaver spent Sunday with A. be able to operate his mill at all times, Miss Gertie Lingle spent Sunday relying on water power.

at Spring Mills with her sister, Mrs. Jasper Wagner. Miss Edith Confer returned home

W. F. McClellan and children Myr-

Clayton Frick and wife returned to A Just Tribute.

In speaking of the death of Miss fullest enjoyment seemed to be in the escaping. service for others. Her happiness was measured entirely by what she was able to contribute to the happiness of those about her.

LOCALS.

Good school shoes for big and little girls, at Yeager's.

Dr. A. G. Lieb, of Bethlehem, is now located at Penn Hall, as his intentions these columns.

sale of the personal effects of her Graham. mother, Mrs. Lucinda Weaver, in Centre Hall, Saturday, October 15th, one o'clock.

Mrs. A. M. Harter, of Harter, West list at this writing. Virginia, wife of the Centre county lumberman, who had been very ill, is much improved. She had gone to recovered her health to a large extent.

F. W. E. Snyder, one of the superintendents of the lumber firm of there from Milmont. The lumber firm which employs him has a large mill at Morrisdale.

According to a report sent to friends by A. R. Alexander, of Butler, Missouri, real estate in that section of keeping, and with his eldest son will board in Bellefonte. Clyde, the second son, will remain with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith, in Centre Hall, where he had been staying most of the past six months.

September passed without a frost severe enough to kill the corn in this immediate section. There were sections in the Valley where the corn engaged in doing some surveying for middle of the month, but Centre Hall, rity's in the seven mountains. although the altitude is the highest here, escaped.

known in and about the vicinity of organ and a rubber tire buggy. lose his house in St. Clair, by fire, turned from Philadelphia where she remodeling his home.

George H. Emerick, sold his house a clothing store, a party from Will- and lot in Centre Hall, known as the Weaver, east of town. She will C. O. Mallory who lives two miles occupy the premises after the first of east of this place, is making prepara- April. Mrs. Weaver has had a good tions to move to town in the near offer for her farm, and it is thought she will accept the same.

Wm. Smull and wife, of Illinois, are If you are not a regular subscriber to regular subscriber to a country news. Mrs. Joseph Sweet, of Grace Run, paper. That dogged appearance disis visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. appears when your name is placed on the subscription list and you pay for your paper like a man. Once you have forsaken the borrowing habit, The Zettle property was sold at publyou will never want to return to it.

The gradual lessening of the water H. I. Foust and wife spent Sunday in all sections, due to droughts and G. M. : growths of timber, was the cause that Clayton Barger left for Johnstown forced E. B. Mc Mullen, of Millhelm. J. K. Confer and family and Mrs. roller mill. With this power he will which he was not able to do when

Dr. G. W. Hosterman, of Centre Hall, and Edwin G. Hosterman, of Wolf's Store, advertise at public sale the real estate of the late Susannah Hosterman and John K. Hosterman, in Miles township, at Wolf's Store, to be sold on Thursday, November 4th. one acres and a house and lot. There walk Over shoes for men, at Yea
Walk o are some twenty acres of choice timber

Tries to Walk Out of Jall. O. Arthur Allen, who shot and killarine, wounded his wife and attempt- HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST Rachel Luella, eldest daughter of ed suicide, has so far recovered that he Mr. and Mrs. P. Grav Meek, who was was able to attempt to escape. Dresscontented with herself until she had leading to the cell tiers kicked against neighbor's except his kindness of at the time. She did not know Allen heart and gentleness of manner, to and opened the door. As he walked thousand handles of various kinds think often of her friends and every through the door he said pleasantly, day of Christ, followed these guide "I guess I'll be going now," and con-Leathers brother's loss on the factory posta of Vandyke's until she came into linued to the street door. Sheriff Hers was a life peculiar in that its ever, and prevented the prisoner from to waste until the tax collector comes

I. O. O. F. Officers.

Pennsylvania Lodge, No. 276, I. O. George T. Graham being the instaliing officer : Noble grand, Isaac Campbell : vice grand, H. A. Elder, treasurer, J. G. Heberling; financial secretary, M. E. Heberling; recording Tusseyville. See his advertisement in secretary, E. C. Musser; warden, W. were announced a week or two ago in H. Fry; auditor, J. E. Bressler; R. S. to N. G. Harry McCracken; L. S. to The Centre County Road Supervis- N. G., A. S. Walker; R. S. to V. G., ors Association will meet in Bellefonte W. H. Goss; L. S. to V. G., A. S. today (Thursday), at 10 a. m. The Bailey; chaplain, Dr. R. M. Krebs; R. movement should bring about good re- | S. S., Harry Walker; L. S. S., Charles Meyer; inside guard, H. M. Krebs; Miss Anna Weaver will make public representative to grand lodge, Frank pects to occupy the same as a resi-

Spring Mills.

Mrs. M. B. Herring is on the sick Liveryman William Ruhl last week lost two valuable driving horses. Merchant C. P. Long last week shipped two car loads of apples.

G. E. Miller, of Centre Mills, last week purchased a fine piano from C. E. Zeigier.

John Horner and wife, of Cresson, are Spring Mills visitors at present. Mr. A. G. Gentzel and wife, of Shamokin, spent Sunday with the for-W. Gentzel.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the Lewisburg fair. Station Penns Valley has the best soil in the agent W. L. Campbell sold over forty state for apples, and is surprised that tickets on Thursday morning.

Mrs. S. L. Condo with her son Lesler and daughter Mary on Friday r turned from a few days visit to Lewisburg where they attended the fair. Messrs. Zerby and Showers have entered a contract to saw out a tract of north west of town. The members of the United Evangelical church are at present engaged fifty cents. in painting their church, which will make a great improvement. William M. Grove is at present was pretty badly frosted about the the state in the vicinity of Pat Gar-Messrs. S. L. Condo and C. E. Zeigler, last week made a business trip to Anthony Richley, who is well Lock Haven, where they delivered an Mrs. Sadie J. Wolfe on Saturday re> nery goods, and will have her opening vania State College, received the Messrs. O. A. Jamison and S. G. Rote, of Penn township, were Spring Mills visitors on Friday evening, and tendered his resignation. Mr. Gentzel

Dr. A. G. Lieb, of Bathlehem, ar- ries with it a salary of $3000 per rived on Wednesday with his house- annum. hold goods and moved into the Michael Duck property along the pike, his boy, gets down to that eager, inquirand will become a citizen of Spring ing, restless little soul and explains delivered a lecture in the Methodist Lantz.

At a regular session of Spring Mills Lodge, I. O. O. F., on Friday evening, the following officers were installed Etkins Park, Montgomery county, and power afforded by the small streams by W. O. Gramley, acting as D. D. has assumed control of the Chelten-

N. G., W. H. Sinkabine V. G., J. S. Meyer P. G., C. E. Zeigler Recording Secretary, W. Calvin Meyer Financial Secretary, J. A. Wagner Treasurer, J. D. Wagner Chaplain, F. S. Musser

R. S. N. G., S. L. Condo L. S. N. G., G. S. Shook R. S. V. G., J. A. Snyder L. S. V. G., Frank Richardson R. S. S., Clarence Stover L. S. S., C. J. Wolfe

Warden, G. Cleve Gentzell

Conductor, I. W. Bartges I G., Irvin Zettle O. G., Jerry Shunk Rep. Grand Lodge, M. T. Duck

Dr. S. H. Braucht was elected representative to the Sunbury orphansge. The Spring Mills lodge has ninety-six members in good standing and is in a flourishing condition.

This is fair week

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

FROM ALL PARTS.

The first week in October, 1909,

Educator and Pla-Mate shoes for

The picnics and fairs for 1909 will be over this week. Next comes the horse show at State College, on Saturday, The wheat crop in 1910, in Penns Valley, has a rather dim outlook. Much of the wheat failed to sprout on account of the lack of moisture.

Everybody is in for the good roads, Wright was sitting on the porch, how- good lights, good crossings, and water around, then the song changes to economy.

Liverymen Boozer and Fetterolf, of Centre Hall, have had their hack, run-O. F., at Pine Grove Mills installed the ning to and from the station to meet all following officers, Past grand master trains, very much improved. It was painted and generally overhauled.

A stock sale is advertised to take place Friday, October 15th, at one o'clock, by Harry A. McClellan, near this issue. Some good stock will be sold at this sale. J. Kennedy Johnson, Eaq, purchased the John Anderson property on Bishop street, Bellefonte, which was sold at public sale. The purchase price being $2700. Mr. Johnson ex-dence next spring. George W. Bradford shipped a car load of fat hogs and shoats to the eastern market the latter part of last week. It was the first shipment made from this station this fall. Large hogs, weighing over two hundred and fifty pounds, are not plentiful.

The wall for a circular barn is being erected by Byron Garis for Prof. 'C. R. Neff, on his farm west of Old Fort. The wall will be forty-eight feet from centre to circumference, making the wall a circle of a trifl; over three hundred feet in circumfarence.

J. Vincent Johnson, representing mer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George the Western New York Nursery Company, is canvassing the valley for the sale of fruit trees. Mr. Johnson thinks so little attention is paid to their growing. The potato crop in Penns Valley i considerable better than was anticipated beginning of September. For the first year in ten, there, was no blight, the stalks remaining green untimber for Dr. A. G. Lieb, on his farm til the end of September, except the early varieties which had fully matured. The price being paid in bulk is > Merchant C. F. Emery closed the first half year of his business in Centre Hall, October 1st. To say the least Mr. Emery is very much pleased with Centre Hall as a business place, and it is safe to say that he has sold more goods over the counter than any merchant who did business at the same stand. This paper is glad to make note of his success.

Perry Homer Gentzel, superintend-Rumor has it that G. P. Garret quite and his wife was very badly burned purchased her fall and winter milli- ent of light and heating at Pennsylappointment of general superintendent of the Selinsgrove electric light, heat and power company, and has were in attendance at the regular ses. expects to assume his new duties sion of Spring Mills Lodge, L. O. O. F. about December 1st. The position car-

> The father who is "chummy" with and encourages, does not need to cut a Miss Minnie Kline, of Centre Mills, birch gad in order to maintain discipline; and the mother who sympachurch on Sunday evening to a well thizes, cuddles and plays with her filled house. Sunday evening was the children can keep her slippers on her commencement of a series of meetings feet and her hair-brush on the dressing in the Methodist church under the table. Children need love and sympadirection of the pastor, Rev. J. Max thy as much as flowers need air and sunshine.

Prof. W. F. Zeigler, who spent the summer at Madisonburg, is back to ham High School, of which school he is principal. He has eight assistants under him. Prof. Zeigler has been the head of the school mentioned for a period of fifteen years, having gone there shortly after graduating from Franklin and Marshall college. That is a splendid record.

The Siglerville correspondent to the Lewistown Democrat and Sentinel, has this to say: A very enjoyable time was spent at the home of Calvin T. Rossman, it being Mr. Rossman's birthday, Mrs. Rossman gave her husband a complete surprise by inviting a large number of his friends to spend the evening with them. Mr. Rossman received a number of handsome and useful presents. Excellent refreshments were served and all departed for their homes well pleased with the evenings entertainment,