DEATHS.

WILLIAM C. PATTERSON.

The death of William C. Patterson closed a useful life. Shortly after the close of the war, Col. Patterson located at State College, first as a clerk in a store, but soon afterwards was made assistant to Superintendent William Huey of the then Farm School. He was an assistant only long enough for his superiors to learn of his worth, when he was made General Superintendent of the institution, which position he held until his death. Mr. Patterson saw State College grow from a hamlet to a thriving borough, and the institution develop from a Farm School to the great institution it now is. He was identified with every move of advancement, and was consulted in every contemplated step of progression.

At the opening of the Civil war he was among the first to tender his services as a member of the 5th Pennsylvania Reserves. For many months he was a prisoner in Libby, the name of which causes one to shudder. Since the close of the war he has been very close and dear to his comrades, and was always foremost in movements for their good.

Col. Patterson was a son of John and Mary Irvin Patterson, and was born on the Lion farm, at Pennsylvania Furnace, seventy-two years ago. He was educated in the public schools, which education was naturally limited, but in later years he developed to a large extent.

Mrs. Patterson, nee Adaline Matern, of Warriors Mark, survives, as do also three daughters and one son—Charles, who for some years has been superintendent of the Maryland Agricultural Farm; Mrs. Irving L. Foster, State College; Mrs. McDowell, Altoona; Mrs. Miller, Harrisburg; also one sister Mrs. John Hutchinson, Warriors Mark.

Death came Saturday evening at 8:15, after four days illness. During the early summer he suffered a light sun stroke and he never fully recovered from the effects. Interment was made Tuesday afternoon. Public services were held in the Auditorium, and the services at the home and cemetery were private.

The pallbearers represented the College faculty, student body, the First National Bank of which he was the president, and trustees, with his old comrades as escorts.

MRS. HARRIET FRAZIER.

Mrs. Harriet Frazier died at the home of her stepdaughter, Mrs. Davis F. Rimmey, at Pleasant Gap, Wednesday of last week after an illness extending over a period of some months. She was a sufferer from cancer. She attained the age of seventy-two years on June 8th. Interment was made at Pleasant Gap, Friday, Rev. D. A. Sowers, Jr., officiating.

Mrs. Frazier is survived by the following children, namely, Mrs. John Brown, Farmers Mills; Mrs. David Knepp, McVeytown; Charles and Albert Frazier, Stockton, Illinois.

She is also survived by the following step children, who held her in high esteem and ministered to her wants during her last illness: Foster Frazier, Tusseyville; Jeremiah Frazier, Pittsburg; James Frazier, Kansas; William Frazier, and Mrs. David F. Rimmey, Pleasant Gap. The late John Frazier, of Centre Hall, was also a stepson.

MRS. JOHN ARMAGOST.

Mrs. Armagost, wife of John Armagost, of Rock, died Thursday afternoon of last week, and the remains were interred at the Meyer cemetery, near Hunter's Park, Sunday afternoon. The deceased was aged fifty-six years, and death was due to heart trouble from which she had been suffering for some time. She is survived by a husband, but no children.

Mrs. Armagost was the daughter of the venerable Amos Koch, and besides her father the following brothers and sisters survive: Mrs. Ella Stover, Bellefonte; William Koch, Stockton, Illinois; Mrs. Ida Rimmey, Filmore; Mrs. Samuel Kreamer, and Mrs. William Bodle, of Rock.

Captain Philip Emory Sellers, a native of Curin, this county, and well known to many of the older families of the county, died at his home in Horton, Kansas, aged sixty-four years. He served during the Civil war. He married Miss Mary C. Emerick, of Buffalo Run, who with one daughter, survives. Both Mr. and Mrs. Sellers have many relatives in this county.

Stewart Wilson, an old veteran of the Civil war, died at his home near Steffy's church, of heart trouble and dropsy, aged sixty-four years. During the war he served as a private in company G, 148th regiment and was arranging to go to Cold Harbor on a trip when he died. He is survived by nine sons and four daughters.

FRIEND FARMER:

We wish to call your attention to the Weber and Columbia Wagons we have been offering you for the last few weeks through the columns of this paper.

In referring to the good qualities of these wagons we wish to say that nothing but the best of material enters into their construction; this combined with the best of mechanical skill, and the latest improved machinery designed especially for the construction of wagons, goes to make up these most complete and perfect wagons; not even the smallest details are overlooked.

The lumber used is selected by experienced men and is of four years' seasoning.

The axles are of the very best grade of hickory.

The hubs are the very best quality of white oak.

The spokes are strictly A 1 grade of oak and hickory mixed and driven in hot glue.

The felloes are oak and are thoroughly soaked in boiled oil before tires are set, and are joined with improved steel dowels, which prevents clipping at the joints.

They are exceptionally well ironed, light running and attractively painted, and in all a wagon that will give years of service.

We very cordially invite you to step in and examine these splendid wagons whether you are contemplating a purchase now or not. We want you to thoroughly understand their construction and see where they are better than the ordinary vehicle.

The important thing in buying a wagon is to know before hand what service it will give you; the important thing in selling them is to show you that, as well as we can, and then be sure that they are as good as we lead you to expect.
