LOCALS.

One inch of rain fell on Monday. It was much needed.

It is nice to be handsome but it is a good deal handsomer to be nice.

Tuesday night mercury dropped to twenty-nine degrees, or three below the freezing point. It was the first offense this fall.

H. F. McManaway, of Millheim, who had been on the road as traveling salesman for the past three months in the western states, spent several days at his home.

L. D. Orndorf, the well known Woodward merchant and prominent citizen, has been seriously ill during the past ten days. He is suffering from a severe case of indigestion.

Constable Charles D. Frazier is assisting A. J. Cummings to operate the Ercod well drilling machinery. They are now working on a well on the farm of H. W. Frazz, at Earlstown.

Please do not hesitate to hand the Reporter personal mentions of company that may be at your house. Of course, the Reporter wants all kind of live local news matter, so do not fail to switch the news items this way.

A few nights ago the two horses belonging to Merchant C. E. Finkle, of Spring Mills, broke the stall partition down, and finally got to kicking each other. The result was one of the horses broke the leg of the other, obliging its owner to have it killed. It was considerable of a loss to the merchant.

Horace Dale, son of George Dale, of Dale Summit, who left this county twenty years ago after his graduation from Pennsylvania State College, located at Rushville, Nebraska, recently visited friends in this section. Mr. Dale is cashier of the Stockman's National bank, at Rushville, and holds the controlling interest in that institution.

About the first of the year, Lyman L. Smith will retire from the firm of Foreman & Smith, doing business at Centre Hall. Mr. Smith, so rumor says, will become a wholesale shipper of grain, hay and produce. As a crude expression has it, he has the ginger to make business go, and no doubt will make a success in whatever line he takes up. His successor will be ex-Sheriff Cyrus Bunnagat, who with Mr. Foreman will continue conducting the grain and coal business as heretofore.

The grand opening of the D. J. Nieman & Company department store, at Millheim, will take place Saturday, of this week. Two bands will furnish music for the occasion, and a fine souvenir will be given every customer. The opening will be in the new store building just completed, which is handsomely finished and equipped for a store just of the character of the Nieman brand. Of course, there will be special bargains on the opening day, and every day thereafter. Mr. Nieman has engaged space in the Reporter, and his advertisement will be found in its columns each week.

It is about twenty years since Mr. and Mrs. John B. Reed went to Washington to cast their lot, and in that time neither of them have been east until now. Mrs. Reed having arrived in Johnstown, the home of her cousin, Mrs. S. H. Heckman, and after a short visit there she will go to Philadelphia, the former home of her husband, then to Williamsport, and from there to Centre Hall and other points in Centre county. Mrs. Reed will be better remembered as Miss Mezie Hill-bish, daughter of the late Dr. Daniel Hill-bish, of Rebersburg. When a young girl she often visited at the home of her uncle, Merchant H. W. Kreamer, and will be kindly remembered by many of the residents in Centre Hall. Mr. Reed is a real estate man in Tacoma, and was also connected with a bank in that city.

Mrs. C. J. Finkle, of Spring Mills, who had been quite ill, is improving.

Allison's flouring mills, at Spring Mills, which were undergoing repairs, are about ready to begin the manufacture of flour with the new machinery installed.

Letters testamentary on the estate of John K. Hosterman, of Miles township, deceased, are published by the executors, Dr. G. W. Hosterman and Edwin G. Hosterman.

On the terms of the sale the Henney farm, east of Old Fort, will be sold the present tenant, Roy Shaffer, will remain until the expiration of his lease, or until April 1st, 1911.

George T. Bush and sister Mrs. Elizabeth Calaway, of Bellefonte, will make a tour of the world with Frank C. Clark, who has chartered the steamer Cleveland to take a large party with him.

George E. Meyer, the State College music dealer, has just received a new supply of the latest popular songs; also, stringed instruments and supplies for same. He sells the F. Radie pianos, a very sweet toned and well constructed instrument, fully guaranteed. Finest in stock at all times. Call to see him.

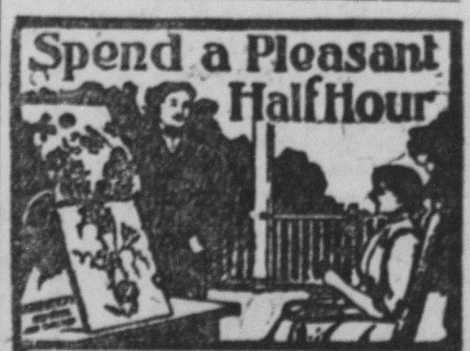

The Robinson Brothers spectacular Uncle Tom's Cabin Company, will exhibit at Centre Hall, Saturday, October 16th, on Grange Park, under their water-proof canvas theater. This is the largest and most complete company, thirty star actors, thirty horses, ponies and donkeys, a pack of genuine Siberian blood-hounds and the Challenge band and orchestra. There is no need of going into details as to the merits of the ever popular moral drama, which is familiar to all theatre goers and has made the name of Harriet Beecher Stowe world-renowned. Bring the children and give them a glimpse of the sunny south, as it was in slavery days before the war. Popular prices.

As master of the Centre County Pomona Grange, Hon. Leonard Rhoads is very much interested in the meeting of the Pennsylvania State Grange to be held at State College the latter part of December, and with a view of ascertaining what arrangements had been made in that town for the entertainment of the two thousand or more delegates and visitors to the meeting, he and Prof. W. A. Kries drove to that place last Friday. They were informed by Dr. Hunt that the town had been canvassed and that lodging places had been secured for nine hundred and fifty-five. In addition to these accommodations must be added the capacity of the hotel, the fraternity houses and College dormitories which will bring the total lodging places up to the necessary number. The rate will be from fifty cents to one dollar per day, exclusive of boarding.

New Departure

After two months of remarkable sales, Bitner and Murray, the enterprising druggists, say that their plan of selling at half price the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and guaranteeing to refund the money if it does not cure, has been the greatest success they have ever known. They have sold hundreds of bottles of the specific; and as yet have not had one returned, although they stand ready at any time to refund the money should any customer be dissatisfied. Anyone suffering with dyspepsia, constipation, liver trouble, headaches, dizziness, coated tongue, or the general tired feeling caused by inactive liver and bowels or disordered digestion, should take advantage of Bitner and Murray's new dispensary and buy a bottle of Dr. Howard's specific at half price, with their personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

FRIEND FARMER:

We wish to call your attention to the Weber and Columbia Wagons we have been offering you for the last few weeks through the columns of this paper.

In referring to the good qualities of these wagons we wish to say that nothing but the best of material enters into their construction; this combined with the best of mechanical skill, and the latest improved machinery designed especially for the construction of wagons, goes to make up these most complete and perfect wagons; not even the smallest details are overlooked.

The lumber used is selected by experienced men and is of four years' seasoning. The axles are of the very best grade of hickory. The hubs are the very best quality of white oak. The spokes are strictly A 1 grade of oak and hickory mixed and driven in hot glue.

The fellos are oak and are thoroughly soaked in boiled oil before tires are set, and are joined with improved steel dowels, which prevents clipping at the joints. They are exceptionally well ironed, light running and attractively painted, and in all a wagon that will give years of service.

We very cordially invite you to step in and examine these splendid wagons whether you are contemplating a purchase now or not. We want you to thoroughly understand their construction and see where they are better than the ordinary vehicle.

The important thing in buying a wagon is to know before hand what service it will give you; the important thing in selling them is to show you that, as well as we can, and then be sure that they are as good as we lead you to expect.
