

ENGINEERS CORPS HAVE MOVED.

Surveying Now in the Vicinity of Selinsgrove.

The corps of civil engineers mapping out and making changes in the route of the New York and Chicago Air Line, have moved from New Berlin to near Selinsgrove. The corps of ten men was at New Berlin for two weeks, making a route which is now about two miles south of New Berlin. It has been rumored lately that the project is a part of the Delaware, Lockawanna & Western railroad, which is seeking a route west from Northumberland, and intend at some time in the future to bridge the Susquehanna to connect with the Air Line road. At the head of the Air Line road is former president of the Wabash system, Mr. Ramsey, and connected with it also is W. D. Holliday, former general freight agent. Sons of both gentlemen were with the engineering corps.

The Hunters Furnish Little News.

The hunters who become good story tellers will be able to refer to the hunting season of 1909 as one during which little game was killed. Not in a long time has the season passed over with as few deer captured as is the case this year. The Seven Mountains, usually a fine and profitable hunting ground, has little to its credit up to this time. The Regulars, at Potters Mills, and the Musser-Lucas party, from near the same locality, each killed a deer, the same was mentioned in our last issue. A local party, from Potters Mills, out for a day, fired at a bear on Tuesday, but brain escaped. The Horner party, from Pleasant Gap, came from Poe Valley, last week, with one or two deer.

LOCALS.

Friday evening of last week George H. Emerick became ill, and for several days was in a serious condition. At present he has again almost fully recovered.

A. Y. Williams, of Port Matilda, had a hand caught in a bolting machine and badly crushed. Four fingers were amputated. Mr. Williams is sixty years old.

Farmer Perry H. Luse hauled a car load of agricultural lime from the Centre Hall station to the E. M. Huyett farm, west of Centre Hall. The lime was shipped from the White Rock lime kilns.

Deputy Sheriff James B. Strohm, who had been seriously ill during the past week, has very much improved, and expects to eat his Thanksgiving dinner, at his home in Centre Hall, with his family.

Farmer Miller Goodhart, of near Farmers Mills, was in town Monday. He has not yet fully decided what he will do after the first of April. He has several propositions in view, but he would prefer buying a farm somewhere to his hiking.

The annual program incident to the opening of the thank offering boxes distributed by the Missionary Society connected with the Lutheran church, at Tusseyville, will be executed next Sunday evening. The exercises, which are always looked forward to with interest, will be public.

The announcement of the marriage of Miss Margaret Stuart, of State College, and Roy Gilliland, of Ridgeway, now engaged in the Meek drug store, at State College, has been published to take place about the middle of January. Miss Stuart is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. John W. Stuart, and is well known to many of the Reporter readers in and about Centre Hall where she frequently visits.

Enmanuel White, of Penns Cave, since his return from a Philadelphia hospital, is very much improved, and is able to drive out into the country. He was in Centre Hall the other day, and was highly elated over the ability of the Philadelphia physicians to repair and renovate old and well worn kidneys, for it was the failure of Mr. White's kidneys to properly perform their functions that caused him to suffer for a number of years.

On attaining his eighteenth anniversary Harry Hubler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cook Hubler, of Centre Hall, was given a birthday party on Tuesday evening. On his return from the Centre Hall railroad station where he is learning telegraphy, on the evening mentioned, he found almost forty of his companions awaiting him. An elegant supper was served, and then followed an evening spent most pleasantly. A number of presents were presented to "Happy," and then he was happier than ever.

LOCALS.

Go to Grange Arcadia this evening for your supper. You will be supporting a good cause by so doing.

Elwood Brooks is plastering the new dwelling house erected by C. D. Bartholomew, on his poultry farm at the station.

Al Oman, since the last issue of the Reporter, has very much improved and is now able to take food in the natural way. The wound has been healing nicely, except at one point, where an opening remains.

After a week's stay in Bellefonte assisting to take care of her brother, D. Wagner Geiss, Miss Elsie Geiss returned home the beginning of this week. Mr. Geiss has improved sufficiently to be able to be about again.

It is Thanksgiving today. One of the things that most people are thankful for, whether they express it or not, is the fine weather we have been having throughout this month. October has been set in the shade by the pleasant days November brought us.

The team of horses Harry Gherett, of Bellefonte, was driving ran away on High street, Bellefonte, Tuesday morning, and as a result the driver sustained a broken leg. He was taken to the Bellefonte hospital. Mr. Gherett is a driver for the R. S. Brouse grocery.

Messrs. Harry and Wallace Camp, representing the Camp candy factory of Tyrone, made their initial trip through Central Pennsylvania, landing at Centre Hall the latter part of last week. They were greatly pleased over the encouragement received and the numerous orders taken on this trip. The senior Mr. Camp has had large experience in the manufacture of candies, having been manager for several years of one of the largest factories in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hockenbury, of Bellefonte, were in town from Thursday until the beginning of the week, packing household goods preparatory to setting up housekeeping in Bellefonte. They will be located on South Spring street, at No. 246. Mrs. Hockenbury, before marriage, was Miss Carrie Spicher, of Centre Hall, and while here she received many good wishes from her acquaintances. During the past six months she had been in Ohio, Illinois, and Indiana, for the greater part of the time.

Rev. Demetrius Elias Constanstintzeas Vishanoff, M. D., of Thessalonica, Salonica, Macedonia, Europe, addressed audiences in the Lutheran, Reformed and United Evangelical churches, in Centre Hall, Sunday. He stated that he was the first of the noblemen in his country to become a Christian, and was disinherited as a consequence. He came to the States, and since being here graduated from a Methodist theological institution, as well as from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia. Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

That Necessary Magazine
—for the thinking man—for the professional man—for the busy business man—and his family; in short, it's for You

25 cents per copy $3.00 a year

The Review of Reviews

first, because it is a necessity—that is the rule in magazine buying of America's intellectual aristocracy. It is indispensable to the busy business man, who must keep abreast of the times, because it gives him the real news of the day in concise, readable form; it is invaluable to the thinking man, who demands only the truth and then draws his own conclusions, because it gives him just plain, straight facts. It is helpful to the whole family. In it you will find a monthly picture of men and affairs by Dr. Albert Shaw, in his comprehensive editorial, "Progress of the World," a clever cartoon history of the month; book reviews; the gist of the best which has appeared in the other magazines and newspapers of the world; pithy character sketches; and interesting articles on the all-important topics of the day. Authoritative, non-partisan, timely and very much to the point, "it's a liberal education," is the way subscribers express it.

OUR 1909-10 CATALOGUE
of all American magazines is a money-saver. You can't afford to order for next year without first seeing it. If you appreciate superior agency service, and demand maximum magazine value for the lowest dollars, write for it—today. It's free to YOU.
