

SUGGESTIONS FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Neckwear

All the solid colors in Barthea weaves 50c
Black and white, in large variety . . . 50c
Fancy figures and stripes 50c
Knitted ties, all colors 50c

Gloves

Heavy Cape Gloves $1.50
Silk lined 1.00
Mocha 1.50
Fownes' black and tan 1.50
Famous Caston Buck Gloves

Shirts

Negligee in Madras and Percalé . .
from 50c to $2.00
Flannel Shirts with collars attached,
. $1.00 to 3.00

Pajamas

Nainsook, Cheviot and Madras . . . 1.50

Underwear

Every conceivable kind of Underwear that can be obtained.

Half Hose

Black, Fancies and all solid colors.
. 25 and 50c

Handkerchiefs

Pure Irish Linen 25, 35 and 50c
Silk 25 and 50c
Initial Handkerchiefs . . . 10, 15 and 25c

Belts

Tan and Black Cowhide 50c

A Man's Store WITH Quick Service

We can supply you with anything from an inexpensive handkerchief
to the most luxurious overcoat.

Leather Bags and Suit Cases

The Famous Likly Bags . . . $4 to $20

Raincoats

From the best makers . . . $10 to $30

Umbrellas

Cotton, Gloria and Silk; all desirable styles of handles.

Waistcoats

For business, semi-dress and evening
wear $1.50 to $5

Jewelry

Scarf Pins, Cuff Links and Shirt Studs.

Sweaters

In all colors, from a child's 25c Sweater to a Spalding Skater Sweater at $7

And last, but not least,
the most complete line of
MEN'S CLOTHING

it has been our pleasure to carry.

MONTGOMERY & COMPANY Bellefonte, Pa.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Philip Brower, an aged and highly respected resident of Union township, died at her home at Runville after a brief illness from pneumonia. She was aged seventy-one years. Since early girlhood Mrs. Brower had been a consistent christian lady and an active member of the United Brethren church. Her death is sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends.

Surviving are her husband, Philip Brower, and the following children: William, of Niagara Falls; Martin, of Indiana county; Mrs. Thomas Poorman, Mrs. George Lucas, Mrs. Joseph Alexander, Mrs. Joseph Reese, all of Union township, and Mary, at home. She also leaves a brother, Thomas Watson, and a sister, Mrs. Henry Bush, also of near Runville.

MRS. CHRISTINA BOWER.

Mrs. Christina Bower died at her home in Asaronsburg, Sunday morning, at the age of eighty-three years, funeral services were held in the Reformed church by her pastor, Rev. W. D. Donst; interment at Wolf's chapel. She leaves to mourn her loss six children and a host of friends who will miss her in their homes.

West Brush Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brungard spent Sunday at the home of C. E. Duck.

James Beck and J. A. Wert made a business trip to Burnham last week, and reported times dull.

Those on the sick list in this vicinity are Mrs. D. A. Weaver and Maria Beck.

Mr. Phillips and Mr. Long made a business trip to Spring Mills Saturday.

Master Clarence Wert spent Sunday at the home of H. W. Wert.

Prayer meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. James Duck, next Sunday.

Doner and Lloyd Rachan are cutting cord wood for Rufus Haugh.

J. E. and H. M. Wert left for Paddy Mountain to hunt bear.

Those who spent Sunday at the home of R. E. Wert, were J. A. Wert, D. A. Weaver and son, W. H. and Lizzie Rider, and Lizzie Wert.

Mano Gentzel spent Sunday at the home of S. H. Beck.

Miss Cora Weaver will spend her Christmas in the western part of the state.

Ladies' cloth rubbers, at Yeager's, $1.00

Portland sleighs and bob sleds—Weber Brothers, Centre Hall.

LOCALS

Sleighs and bob sleds—Weber Bros. Ladies' fur trimmed slippers, $1.25 at Yeager's.

The schools are closed this week. The teachers are being taught.

Mrs. C. P. Long, of Spring Mills, has been ill during the past few weeks.

W. H. Meyer killed a hog that dressed five hundred and five pounds. It was a fine porker.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett and daughters Misses Leila and Miriam, are in Reading and will remain over Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Smithgall, of Austin, are in Centre Hall, and will spend the holidays with the latter's grandmother Mrs. Anna Spangler.

Harry C. Bailey, one of the hustling farmers of Harris township, was in Centre Hall Monday evening, and remained in town over night. He came here to attend a meeting of the Masonic order.

Mr. and Mrs. Hary Smith, of Freeport, Illinois, are east, and visited at the home of Merchant J. F. Smith. The former is a son of S. F. Smith, and expects to begin farming by the first of April.

A full line of combs are now on sale at Murray's drug store. Hard rubber combs, horn combs, fine combs, pocket combs, in case. Also chewing and smoking tobacco. Castor oil for lubricating purposes, at 30c a gallon.

The removal of a large number of huge stumps from the farm of J. K. Moyer, along Elk Creek, at Centre Mills, has made a decided improvement in that quarter, and indicates what can be accomplished by a man determined to improve his holdings. Mr. Moyer believes in making land produce its best, and as an evidence of this now has on hand twenty bushels of clover seed which he offers for sale.

It was thirty-eight years ago today that Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Smith, of Montgomery, came to Centre Hall on their wedding tour, stopping with their uncle, the late Dr. Peter Smith. They were then thinking of beginning an active life on the farm. They are here now the guests of the writer, but not as farmers nor retired from active business life. Mr. Smith is the president of the First National Bank of Montgomery, with a capital stock of $500,000, and is also interested in several industries in Montgomery. Some years ago he was one of the county commissioners in Lycoming county, and served the people by introducing more economic methods in the affairs of the county.

Woodward.

Edward Boon, formerly from this place, but now from South Dakota, is visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Mary Foreman, Roy Mueser and Ammon Minrie, teachers in this place, are attending Teachers Institute at Bellefonte.

Mrs. Samuel Orndorf and daughter Edna, are spending the week with Mrs. Phoebe Wise.

The members of the Evangelical Association church will have their Christmas service Sunday evening December 28th.

Mrs. Ard spent Friday afternoon at Coburn.

Samuel Kreamer and son Claire, had business in Millheim Saturday afternoon.

Misses Maranda and Mary Mowery, of Asaronsburg, are spending the week with their aunt Mrs. Mary Motz.

C. H. Hoeterman, wife and daughter Miss Lida, spent a few days with their son Herbert, at State College this week.

Harry Gilbert after spending some time at the Woodward House, returned to his home in Millersburg this week.

Bruce Stover, a student at State College, is spending the holidays with his parents Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Stover.

Geraldine, the infant daughter of Harry Stover is seriously ill.

Oak Hall.

Mrs. Krape, of Salons, arrived in town Friday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. William Ferree.

Miss Mary Homan came home from the Lock Haven Normal to spend her vacation with her parents.

James Gilliland transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday.

Luther Dale and William Rose, of Pleasant Gap, spent Monday in town.

Miss Elizabeth Bohn and a little son of Calvin Coble are among the sick.

A number of people from this place are attending State Grange at State College this week.

Pianos and Organs.

The Lester pianos are used and endorsed by all the leading musical conservatories and colleges in the U. S.

The Stevens piano organs are the latest achievement in modern organ construction.

Pianos and organs sold on easy payment plan. Write for catalog.

at C. E. ZEIGLER, Spring Mills, Pa.

Men's leather slippers, 60c at Yeager's.

Our Great Sacrifice Sale of Clothing for Men, Women and Children; of Shoes, Hats and Furnishings, Is Now Going On. . . .

IT'S our greatest triumph in clothes selling. It's a complete surrender of values, an unmerciful cut in prices where costs or values are absolutely not reckoned. The time is opportune—four months yet of winter weather in which you will need seasonable clothes. The merchandise is worthy products of the world's foremost manufacturers. Our stock is so large that we can surely please you.

YOU know the quality of merchandise this store sells. You know that no where, no time can you get more for your money than here.

REMEMBER that every suit or overcoat in the house is included in this sale; the famous "EMBEY" Clothes and other well known brands.

EVERY effort has been forth to get the very newest and best wearing apparel for men, women and children, and you can rest assured that any Christmas Gifts purchased here are sure to be highly appreciated.

Do your Christmas shopping early.

A. KESS'LER, THE RELIABLE CLOTHIER Millheim, Pa.