

DEATHS.

MISS JENNIE HUNTER.

By the Boalsburg Correspondent. Miss Jennie Hunter passed away from time to the great beyond, after a short illness, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Emma Stuart, at Pittsburg, on New Year evening, at nine o'clock. She was born at Boalsburg, November 23, 1844. Her parents were Dr. Reuben and Ellen Brislin Hunter. In 1862 they moved to Milesburg, while living there her father enlisted in the army, was surgeon of the 54th Regiment, P.V.; he died at Annapolis, Md., September 10th, 1864, and was buried at Boalsburg. Shortly after his death the family returned to Boalsburg. After the death of her mother, which occurred in 1885, Miss Hunter made her home with the Stuart family, residing in Boalsburg until after the death of Col. James Stuart, when they moved to Pittsburg.

About thirty-five years of her life were spent in teaching in the public schools in different parts of Centre county, the greater part of the teaching being in Boalsburg. The young people of this community recall with pleasure the time spent under her care and guidance. Early in life Miss Hunter united with the Methodist church, but on account of the small number of members in the Methodist church in Boalsburg the little flock was left without a shepherd, consequently she transferred her membership to the Boalsburg Presbyterian church, and always took an active part in all the services. She was buried at Boalsburg, Tuesday morning. Services were held at the home of her nephew, William H. Stuart, conducted by Rev. W. H. Harnish and A. A. Black.

She is survived by one brother and one sister, namely, George Hunter, of Charleston, West Virginia, and Mrs. Emma Stuart, of Pittsburg.

MISS PRISCILLA STUART.

By the Boalsburg Correspondent. Miss Priscilla Stuart died at the home of Mrs. Emma Stuart, at Bellevue Station, Pittsburg, Sunday, December 26th, after a short illness with pneumonia. The remains were brought to her late home at Boalsburg on Tuesday afternoon following, where the funeral services were held on Wednesday morning, conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. K. Harnish, and Rev. A. A. Black, after which interment was made in the Stuart burial plot in the cemetery at the Branch.

The deceased was the oldest daughter of David and Martha Johnston Stuart, and was born near Linden Hall, December 14, 1835. She was aged seventy-four years, and twelve days. The family moved from Linden Hall to Centre county, and later returned to Centre county, and in 1862 they moved to Boalsburg. Since the death of her parents she was the only occupant of the old home. During the last few years she closed her home and spent the winter months with relatives in different parts of the state.

Miss Stuart took an active part in all the different branches of church work, and was always ready to render help when needed.

She is survived by two brothers, John W. Stuart, of State College, and Harry Stuart, of Sandy Ridge; also, an aunt, Mrs. Hannah Burchfield, of Altoona, the last surviving member of the Col. James Johnston family. A sister, Mrs. Samuel Wilson, died at Lovettsville, December, 1890, and a brother, Col. James T. Stuart, died in Boalsburg, March 7th, 1902. Both died of pneumonia.

MRS. MARY MAYES.

By the Boalsburg Correspondent. Mrs. Mary Mayes died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. S. Ishler, in Boalsburg, on the evening of the last day of the old year. She had been a sufferer for a number of years, having a sore limb which at times became very painful. Her parents were John and Margaret Huey. She was born July 25, 1838. Her childhood and youthful days were spent near Centre Furnace. After her marriage to William Mayes, she moved to Boalsburg, where her husband died quite suddenly of heart disease, June 15th, 1874. A daughter, Mrs. Margaret Shuey died of the same ailment three years ago, and a son also died in one of the western states. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Ella Ishler, and ten grandchildren. She was a member of the Methodist church at Lemont. Funeral services were held at her home on Monday forenoon. Rev. W. K. Harnish, assisted by Rev. A. A. Black, and Rev. David Sowers, of the Methodist church, conducted the services. Interment was made in the cemetery at Boalsburg.

MRS. EMMA HOFFER HAIG.

Mrs. Emma Hoffer Haig, wife of Walter Haig, died at her home at Oak Lane, a suburb of Philadelphia, Monday, 27th ult., aged thirty-eight years. Interment was made Thursday following. She is survived by two small children and a husband.

Mrs. Haig was the youngest of the children of Mr. and Mrs. George Hoffer, both deceased, and was born near Centre Hall. She had been in Philadelphia for a number of years with her brother, I. O. Hoffer, one of Pleasant Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cowdrick and son Ira, of Niagara Falls, were visiting Mrs. Cowdrick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ross, in this place, and also circulated among their many friends. Paul Brooks and wife, of Altoona, spent Christmas with their parents, at this place. Also, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gentsel, of the same place.

Lloyd Sampsel and wife have started housekeeping in Larry Hile's house, in Horatown.

Walter Dunkelbarger purchased a new horse. He says it is a dandy.

Rev. David Sower and wife spent Christmas at the latter's home in Watsonstown. Mrs. Sower intends staying at that place for a few weeks.

Mrs. Sarah Corl is reported worse at this writing.

Ray Melroy, of West Waterford, spent a few days visiting old acquaintances at this place.

George and Ward Showers, of this place, spent their Christmas vacation in Altoona among friends.

The firm of Smith & Herman, who had been in the butchering business, was dissolved January 1st, by mutual consent. D. W. Herman assumed entire control at that time.

Ira Gill and bride have gone to housekeeping on the hill, by the furnace.

The Grammar grade had no school last week on account of the serious illness of the infant son of the teacher, Harry Breen.

A number of Bellefonte people were disappointed when they learned there would not be a New Year's parade from the Gap. The boys say it was too cold, but promise to make an appearance when the weather gets warmer.

Mrs. Robert Kline, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. A. J. Swartz.

Frank Weaver and John Uhl spent a few days at Millheim and Coburn.

Oak Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Krape returned to their home in Salona after a few weeks visit with their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Ferree.

John Zeigler, of Altoona, recently spent several days in town.

Saturday Mrs. Oscar Rishel went to Sunbury for a short visit. During her absence Miss Gertrude Wieland is housekeeper in the Rishel home.

D. B. Lowder visited friends in Huntingdon county during the holiday season.

Mrs. Sara Eiters and Mrs. Julia Shuey, of Lemont, and Luther Dale and family, of Pleasant Gap, spent Tuesday at Sunny Hillside.

A young son recently arrived at the home of Arthur Peters.

Misses Nelle and Mary Dale were callers in town on Saturday.

A large crop of ice was taken off the mill dam Friday and Saturday.

Dr. Niseley, of Bellefonte, was in town on Friday.

The callithumpians turned out Saturday evening at serenaded Wm. Garner and bride, and Waldo Homan and bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Garner returned Saturday from their wedding trip to Altoona.

Henry Houser and wife, and Mrs. Miller, of Linden Hall, were guests at the home of Clayton Eiters, last week.

George H. Emerick, who has been seriously ill during the past months, is very much improved and is now able to be about the house.

The leading merchant tailors, now located on Chestnut Street. About four years ago she married, and since then has been living at Oak Lane.

The funeral services were attended by her only sisters, Mrs. A. C. Mingle and Miss Fannie Hoffer, both of Bellefonte.

Mrs. Julia Kerstetter, wife of John H. Kerstetter, died at the home of her son, Robert, at Milroy, of heart disease, after an illness of five weeks, aged sixty-one years, one month and eight days. She leaves to survive a husband and the following children: Mrs. May Myers, of Iowa; Mrs. W. H. Sykes and Maude Kerstetter, of Philadelphia; Lloyd, of Reedsville, and Mrs. Mabel Boyer and Robert Kerstetter, of Milroy. She was for a number of years a resident of Millheim. Interment was made in the Reedsville cemetery.

Mrs. Christina Bower, widow of Jacob Bower, died at her home in Aaronsburg, 18th ult., of paralysis, aged about eighty-two years. She is survived by the following children: Henry, of Aaronsburg; Mrs. Susanna Stover, of Berrien Springs, Michigan; Mrs. Jacob Stover, of Miles township; George, of Illinois; John, of Northumberland, and Mrs. Elias Bressler, of Penn township. Interment was made at Wolf's Chapel.

Jonathan Kreamer died at his home at Valley Falls, Kansas, of diseases incident to old age. He was about eighty-two years old. Deceased was a former resident of Rebersburg, and left for the west about twenty-nine years ago. His wife and four children preceded him to the spirit world. Surviving him are two brothers, William Kreamer, of Millheim, and Jared Kreamer, of Rebersburg.

Harris Township.

James Fry, of Portsmouth, Ohio, was a guest at the home of George Kamp during the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swartz, of Tusseyville, and Mr. and Mrs. James Irwin, of Millinburg, spent New Year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Krumrine, who celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

Miss Anna Dale entertained a number of her friends on New Year's evening.

Prof. C. T. Houtz, of Selingsgrove, visited friends in this place during Christmas week.

Harvey Metzler, of Manhatta, Ill., who is traveling through this state in the interest of the Quaker Oats Company, spent Christmas at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Sarah Gingerich. It was his first visit to Boalsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Weber, of State College, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Boalsburg.

Miss Mabel Brown is visiting with her cousin, Mrs. Irwin Stover in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Edward Tyson was taken to the Bellefonte hospital on Tuesday for treatment.

Among the mourners from a distance at the funeral of Miss Jennie Hunter, on Tuesday, were the Stuart family, from Pittsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stairs, of Youngwood; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hunter, William Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, of Altoona, and Mrs. Katharine Dale, of Centre Hall.

From last week.

Dr. F. O. Glenn and family, of Bradford, are spending this week with relatives at Boalsburg and State College.

Miss Mary Woods, of Spring Mills, spent Christmas with Mrs. W. A. Woods.

Mrs. Alice Magoffin spent Christmas at the home of her brother, Dr. George Woods, at Pine Grove Mills.

William Kuhn and family, of Williamsport, were guests at the home of Mrs. Kuhn's parents over Christmas. Samuel H. Bailey attended the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. D. Ross Gregory at Neffs Mills, last week.

John Everhart, of Rock Springs, spent part of last week in this community.

Miss Mary Relsh is spending this week at State College.

The Christmas services in the churches were well attended and very interesting. The offering in the Reformed church was given to Bethany Orphan's Home at Womelsdorf.

The Lutheran congregation sent a donation to Loyoville Orphan's Home. The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs sent a donation to the Orphan's Home at Sunbury.

Santa Claus got ahead of the story this time as he left a dear little girl at the home of William Brouse a few days before Christmas.

W. B. Young spent Christmas with relatives at Spring Mills.

Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Black attended a silver wedding last week in Westmoreland county. Mr. Black had officiated at the wedding.

Miss Marion Whitehill spent her vacation at her home in Lemont.

Adam Felty had the misfortune of falling on a stone side walk on Tuesday afternoon, resulting in a fracture of the hip. He has the sympathy of the entire community. He was laid up for a whole winter, some years ago, with a broken limb, but he always endured the pain with patience.

Among the relatives who attended the funeral of Miss Priscilla Stuart, on Wednesday, were her aunt, Mrs. Hannah Burchfield, and daughter, Mrs. Mollie Beck, of Sinking Valley; her brothers, John W. Stuart, of State College, and Harry Stuart, and Mr. and Mrs. Heath and children, of Sandy Ridge; Mrs. Mattie Twigg and daughter Esther, of Curwensville; Mrs. Priscilla Williams, of Paxsonstown; Mrs. Edward Burchfield and Mrs. J. B. Felty, of Altoona; and nephews David and Reuben Stout, of Pittsburg.

Manor Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cummins spent Sunday at the home of his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Stump and Miss Elsie Cummings spent Christmas at Bellefonte, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barger.

Miss Blanche Moyer spent several days with her sister, Mrs. A. G. Cummings.

Prof. H. F. Bitner and Wm. Cummings attended Farmers Institute at State College, Wednesday.

Miss Clara Reiber, of Colyer, spent several days with her cousins, the Misses Kline, at this place.

Democratic Caucus.

The Democrats in every election district in Centre County are requested to meet at the usual places for holding caucuses on Saturday, January 22, 1910, for the purpose of nominating candidates for township, ward, borough and precinct offices, to be voted for at the February election. The result of the caucuses must be returned to the County Chairman so that the same may be filed with the County Commissioners not later than January 26, 1910.

W. D. ZEBBY,

County Chairman.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

[Continued from first page.]

S. G. Walker, on Saturday, made a business trip to Millheim.

Mrs. A. C. Dunlap, last Thursday returned from a visit to Renovo.

Edward Winters and family, spent Christmas at Millheim.

John Zerby and wife spent Christmas at Youngstown, Ohio.

Lester Condo spent Christmas with his uncle B. F. Kleckner, at Vicksburg.

C. E. Zeigler and Boyd Auman, last Wednesday made a business trip to Centre Hall.

Best Krape, of Howard, spent a few days last week at the home of G. C. King.

Rufus Finkle, who is a student at State, spent his holiday vacation at the parental home.

Prof. A. Merrill Allison, of Highland Park, Illinois, was a Spring Mills visitor over Christmas.

Elias Shugart, of Luthersburg, was a guest at the home of Andrew Corman one day last week.

Miss Mable Long, a student at the State Normal School, in Lock Haven, spent Christmas at her home.

G. S. Walker, J. Warren Wood and C. E. Finkle each purchased new sleighs with springs from S. L. Condo. The new year 1910 is here, and we can write it now to our hearts content.

Mrs. Levi Walker, of Centre Hall was a guest at the home of S. G. Walker a few days last week.

Prof. Charles H. Auman, assistant principal of the Bellefonte High School, spent his Christmas vacation at the home of his parents.

S. Ward Gramley and family, of Millheim, spent Christmas at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Gramley.

Messrs. A. N. and C. J. Finkle recently purchased a large tract of timber land from the heirs of Benjamin Ripka. Consideration $6050.

Mrs. W. M. Grove and daughter, Miss Besse, were to Milroy, on Saturday and Sunday, where Mrs. A. C. Alexander is lying critically ill. Mrs. Alexander is a sister of Mrs. Grove.

Young America was well represented in a mummer's parade in town on New Year's day. The parade was formed at the Hotel and then passed through town, then to Millheim and Coburn.

S. G. Solladee, of Middleburg, was in town several weeks ago and offered that if the citizens would secure forty girls to work in a shirt factory, and a suitable building for the factory could be obtained, he would start a shirt factory here.

Messrs. Wm. Pealer and C. A. Krape at once went to work and in a short time were able to meet the requirements of Mr. Solladee, and consequently the establishing of a shirt factory in Spring Mills is assured.

A sleighing party from town spent last Tuesday night at the hospitable home of Jerry Confer, three miles west of town. The following composed the party: Rev. J. Max Lantz and family, W. L. Campbell and wife, Edward Winters and family, William Smith and family, Charles Secrist, Mrs. Charles Cummings, Misses Rena Shires and Bess Grove. After doing justice to a sumptuous repast and enjoying a good social time, the party dispersed at twelve o'clock, and then greatly enjoyed the beautiful moonlight drive to their homes.

The Christmas service, entitled "The Message of the bells," rendered in the Methodist church, on Christmas evening was a decided success from start to finish. The evening was beautiful and the large auditorium was crowded to its utmost capacity. The decorations were elaborate and the children acquitted themselves nobly in the various recitations and drills. The music was rendered in an exceptionally fine and pleasing style. Mrs. J. Max Lantz, who had charge of the training of the children, deserves special credit for the success of the entertainment.

Rebersburg.

All the ice houses in this vicinity are filled with the frozen crystals.

R. D. Bierly has placed a gasoline engine in his work shop.

Clayton Weber and family, of Renovo, visited in this place the past week.

Mrs. Harriet Crowe is at present in Sugar Valley, at the home of Jona Van Ruhl, where she is receiving treatment for cancer.

Cleve Brungart and family, of Centre Hill, were visitors in this town last week.

Rev. Flick, who preached a trial sermon several weeks ago in the Lutheran church at this place, has been elected pastor of this charge.

Edwin Zeigler and wife, of Washington D. C., are at present visiting relatives in town.

Quite a number of people from this place went to Millheim on Saturday to see the fantase parade.

Mrs. Thomas Walker, who had been visiting her children in the western part of this state for a few weeks, has returned home.

J. C. Morris and two sons, Windom and Bruce, were in this place during the holidays.

Wm. sec 13 Ross Dist. Thirteen eggs, owned by I. A. Sweetwood, of Centre Hall, during the month of December laid three hundred and thirty-eight eggs, which were sold for $5.80. That is a fine record.

Pine Grove Mills.

From last week. Arthur Peters and wife, of Oak Hall, visited at the homes of Mrs. Peters and N. H. Everett.

The Methodists gave a delightful Christmas entertainment Sunday evening. The church was decorated with a Christmas tree and other ornaments which Santa brought for the girls and toys who did their parts so well.

Samuel Hess, a student of the Bellefonte Academy, spent his Christmas vacation at home.

Florence and Sarah Kepler visited with friends in Tyrone, last Sunday.

Fandal and John Dunlap spent Christmas at the home of their parents.

Miss Grace Dale is visiting with friends in Woodbridge, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Collins, and son, of Pittsburg, visited the former's parents, over Christmas.

Quite a number of people are getting their ice houses filled with ice which is being taken from the dam.

The Bubb property was sold to Washington Ward for $600.

Dr. H. S. Frye, of Milton, visited at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Fry, over Christmas.

Leslie Krebs, a student of State College, visited his aunt, last Sunday. Laurence Gates, of Latrobe, spent his Christmas at home.

The Christmas service in the Reformed church was largely attended. The singing by the little children was very good and appreciated.

SALE REGISTER.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 12 o'clock—J. B. White, one-half mile north east of Penns Cave. Farm stock, implements and household goods.

TUESDAY, MARCH 1, twelve o'clock, one and one-half miles south of Spring Mills, near Cross church, on the Gentzell farm, by Aaron O. Detweiler. Farm stock and full line of farm implements.

SATURDAY, MARCH 12, twelve o'clock—W. S. Lucas and Daniel Daup, one mile northeast of Pottery Mills. Farm stock and full line of farming implements.

MONDAY, MARCH 14, ten o'clock—Milton Kline, on the Spicher farm, two miles west of Old Fort. Horses, cows, young cattle, sheep and hogs and good farming implements. L. Frank Mayes, auctioneer.

TUESDAY, MARCH 15, ten o'clock—J. Miller Goodhart, on the Bras farm, near Farmers Mills. Horses, cows, young cattle, sheep and hogs, and a complete line of farming implements.

SATURDAY, MARCH 19, twelve o'clock, on the G. L. Goodhart farm, near Centre Hill, by James C. Goodhart; mitch cows, young cattle, sheep and hogs.

MONDAY, MARCH 21, at ten o'clock—Harry E. Fre, one and one-half miles east of Old Fort. Large number of horses, cattle, hogs, etc., and a full line of all good farming implements.

FRIDAY, MARCH 25, ten o'clock—Perry W. Breen, one and one-half miles east of Pottery Mills. Farm stock and full line of implements; also household goods.

GRAIN MARKET.

Wheat 1.18, Oats .45, Corn .74, Barley .60, Rye .70.

PRODUCE AT STORES.

Lard .25, Butter .25, Eggs .20, Potatoes .60.

SAW MILL WANTED—The undersigned wishes to hire a portable saw mill and a man to operate the same. Tract of timber land is located near Unionville. For further information address H. C. ROBINSON, Milesburg, Pa.

TWO COLTS FOR SALE—The undersigned offers for sale two mare colts, six and eighteen months old. Bell phone. J. C. GOODHART, Centre Hall, Pa.

STATE SAWYER WANTED—A good state sawyer wanted to run state mill by the thousand. H. C. ROBINSON, Milesburg, Pa.

PRACTICAL AUCTIONEER—The undersigned announces that he is a practical auctioneer, and is making a specialty of farm stock sales. Six years' experience. L. F. ROAN, Lemont, Pa. (to Sep. '10) Bell Phone.

W. D. ZEBBY, County Chairman.

W. D. ZEBBY, County Chairman.

W. D. ZEBBY, County Chairman.

W. D. ZEBBY, County Chairman.

W. D. ZEBBY, County Chairman.

W. D. ZEBBY, County Chairman.

W. D. ZEBBY, County Chairman.

W. D. ZEBBY, County Chairman.

W. D. ZEBBY, County Chairman.

W. D. ZEBBY, County Chairman.

W. D. ZEBBY, County Chairman.

W. D. ZEBBY, County Chairman.

W. D. ZEBBY, County Chairman.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3.35 & $4. SHOES BOYS SHOES $2.00 $2.50

THE LARGEST MAKER AND RETAILER OF MEN'S FINE SHOES IN THE WORLD.

"SUPERIOR TO OTHER MAKES." "I have worn W. L. Douglas shoes for the past six years, and always find they are far superior to all other high grade shoes in style, comfort and durability." W. G. JOHNSON, 119 Howard Ave., Utica, N. Y.

If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made, you would realize why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer, and are of greater value than any other make.

CAUTION—See that W. L. Douglas name and price is stamped on the bottom. Take No. 1 substitutes. If your dealer cannot fit you with W. L. Douglas shoes, write for Mail Order Catalogue. W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass.

J. F. SMITH, CENTRE HALL, - - PENN.

A Complete Library. In One Volume.

ON SALE AT ALL NEWS STANDS

Will tell you something about everything and everything about a great many things; the army and navy, population of countries, States and cities, the new tariff, the 1910 census, progress of Panama Canal work, party platforms of 1909, rise in prices of principal commodities, aerial navigation in 1909, Polar exploration in 1909—discovery of the North Pole, growth of the United States, Sixty-first Congress, about wars, sporting events, weights and measures, universities and colleges, religious orders in the United States, debts of nations, weather forecasts, fatality tables, commerce, taxes, moneys, banking, insurance, secret societies, prohibition movement in 1909, report of national commission on country life and conservation of natural resources and 10,000 Other Facts and Figures of everyday interest to everybody.

No merchant, farmer, laborer, business man, housewife school boy or girl should be without a copy of this greatest compendium of useful information ever set in type.

On sale everywhere, 25c (west of Buffalo and Pittsburg, 30c.) By mail, 35c. Address Press Publishing Co., Pulitzer Building, New York City.

Marlin Big Game Repeating Rifles

The great thing in big game rifles is accuracy to work under all conditions. Marlin rifles are built with this idea foremost.

The mechanism is simple, strong, perfectly adjusted, quick and easy in operation. The Marlin solid top and side ejector keep a perfect wall of metal between your head and the cartridge, prevent powder and gases blowing back, throw the shells away from you and allow instant, accurate, effective repeat shots.

The Special Smokeless Steel barrels are hard and strong, especially made for high power cartridges and to resist the wear of jacketed bullets. They are rifled deep on the Ballard system for greatest accuracy and killing power.

Made in Models 93 and 95, calibres 25 to 45, and fully described and illustrated (with all other Marlin repeaters) in our 136 page catalog. Free for 3 stamps postage.

The Marlin Firearms Co., 42 Willow Street, NEW HAVEN, CONN.

You May Need It

Ask your doctor about the wisdom of your keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, ready for colds, coughs, croup, bronchitis. If he says it's all right, then get a bottle of it at once. Why not show a little foresight in such matters? Early treatment, early cure.

A