DEATHS.

A. J. GARDNER.

Andrew Jackson Gardner, one of the oldest residents of Howard borough, died Thursday morning of last week, after a short illness incident to old age. Mr. Gardner was Howthe home and church. He was aged eighty-seven years, two months and six days, and is survived by the following children: Mrs. K. G. Shutt, of Kane; Mrs. R C. Leathers, at home; Wyckliff, of Pittsburg; Mitchell I., of Bellefonte, and W. R., of Howard township.

Among the young men who will begin farming next spring is George Sharer, son of Jacob Sharer, east of Centre Hall. Mr. Sharer has leased one of the Gordon farms, tenanted at present by a Mr. Sunday, and owned by William Smeltzer, located about one mile east of Pleasant Gap, on the Zion road. Mr. Sharer was brought up on the farm, and knows the outs and ins in farm life. The Reporter predicts for him a successful career as an agriculturalist. Of course, he does not yet have that necessary help-a wifeon the farm, but he has engagements between this and next spring that are calculated to remove that barrier.

Sara, wife of George Kuhn, died at the home of her son, Elton, on North Barnard street, State College, Wed-John I. Stonecypher, took place Sat Pleasant Gap.

" Second in the list of contestants from every section of the country, S. M. Goodhart, advertising writer for Rothert & Co., of this city, has been awarded a prize of $25 by the Century Oil and Stove Company, with offices in Pittsburg. Mr. Goodhart receives this prize for merit and originality displayed in an advertisement featuring the Century Company's stoves, which appeared in The Tribune on May 5, 1909. Copies of the other Johnstown newspapers containing the same ad. were forwarded to the company by Mr. Goodhart, but the typographical superiority of The Tribune was recognized and the award based on the ad. appearing in this paper. Mr. Goodhart has received a check for the amount of the second prize, $25."

Spring Mills.

From present indications there will be no vacant bouses in Spring Mills the coming spring, as practically all of them are already rented for the coming year. Demands from a few prospective tenants which cannot b' met, should be an incentive for some of our monied men to build dwelling houses the coming year. With more houses Branch, visited the sick in Boaleburg, and the anticipated shirt factory in operation, there would be an inducement for more people to come here and build up the town.
