Hering, F. M. Fisher, W. A. Neese and E. P. Shook, under the act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations" approved A. D. April 29th, 1874, and the supplements thereto, for the charter of an intended corporation to be called PENN HALL RURAL TELEPHONE COMPANY, the character and object of which is for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating a line of telephone within the county of Centre and State of Pennsylvania, the general route of which is as follows:—

Beginning at the farm house owned by J. W. Forster, in the township of Penn; thence to the village of Penn Hall, in Gregg township, connecting with the line of the Bell Telephone Company in said village and extending thence to the exchange of H. Bell Company, at Spring Mills, Pennsylvania, in the township of Gregg; thence extending through Gregg township to Potter township to the residence of C. P. Frank, together with the residences and places of business of such other persons, partnerships and corporations within the townships of Penn, Gregg and Potter, in said county of Centre, along the route of the said telephone line as may be determined and used the same, with the right to construct such poles and branches, maintain and operate the same, and for these purposes to have, possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges of the said act of Assembly and its supplements.

J. C. MEYER, Solicitor.

LOCALS.
Good shotgun for sale. See ad.

Mrs. Witmer Meyer gave birth to a baby Friday night. It is the second child in the family.

Mrs. John G. King, of Centre Hall, is in Pittsburg, where her brother, Dr. English, is seriously ill.

Mrs. Edward L. Bartholomew, of Altoona, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. A. Kennedy, west of Centre Hall.

Miss Annie Bible will move from the Bible farm, east of Centre Hall, to Centre Hall, and will occupy a part of the Mrs. William Horner dwelling.

William Ruhl, the Spring Mills liveryman, had the misfortune to lose another horse. That makes four horses he buried within the past year.

The installation of officers in the Ladies' Temple, K. G. E., at Centre Hall, took place Tuesday evening. A large number of visitors from Spring Mills and Bellefonte were present. A full report is pronounced the Reporter for the next issue.

Lawyer Samuel Gettig, of Bellefonte, was in Centre Hall on Tuesday, having come here to perform a tit of business. He is the senior of the well known law firm of Gettig, Bower & Zerby, and is originally from Potter township.

While adjusting a cistern pump, the handle of the crank struck George Breen in the eye, and for a while he could see Halley's comet or any old star in any of the constellations. For a day or two he feared serious results, but now he feels sure that time will bring about a cure.

Mrs. Thomas Curry, of O'rah, is here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Condo, having come to Centre Hall with her father some time ago. She is accompanied by her nine months' old baby, and is here to recuperate from an attack of rheumatism. Mr. Curry is an insurance agent, and is looking after business in the Pittsburg district.

A week or two ago an item from the Orangeville (Illinois) Courier stated that G. Bruce Goodhart was shipping poultry to the Polo poultry show, and now the same paper has this report: G. Bruce Goodhart won at the Polo poultry show, 1st cockerel, 1st, 2nd and 4th on Buff Wyandotte pullets, and his White Wyandottes scored from ninety-three points to ninety-four and one-half points.

The members of Branch Company No. 19 will meet in a social way at the home of Foster W. Frazier, at Tusseyville, Friday evening of this week. They will serve chicken and waffles. This company, which is a branch of the Patrons Rural Telephone Company, had its settlement for the year 1909, and on finding how they had prospered they concluded to celebrate the event, and decided that the best way to do so was to hold a feast. The Potters Mills orchestra will be present.

Tuesday morning Hon. Leonard Rhone went to Harrisburg to meet Hon. W. T. Cressy, master of Pennsylvania State Grange. Later a committee of Grangers will meet the State tax commission in the interests of farmers throughout the state. Mr. Rhone, and his associates in the Order of Patrons of Husbandry, have long been seeking to adjust the tax system in the state, so that the burden of taxation is more evenly and more justly divided between real estate, personal property and corporations.

Wanted: 50 Men and Women.
Murray and Bitner the enterprising druggists, are advertising today for fifty men and women to take advantage of the special half price offer they are making on Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia and get a fifty cent package at half price, 25 cents.

So positive are they of the remarkable power of this specific to cure these diseases, as well as sick headaches and liver troubles, that they agree to refund the money to any customer whom the medicine does not quickly relieve and cure.

With Dr. Howard's specific at hand you can eat what you want and have no fear of ill consequences. It strengthens the stomach, gives perfect digestion, regulates the bowels, creates an appetite, and makes life worth the living.

This is an unusual opportunity to obtain 60 doses of the best medicine ever made for its regular price with the personal guarantee of a well known business man to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

If you cannot call at Murray and Bitner's store today, send them 25 cents by mail and they will send you a package, promptly, charges paid.

Shook-Rachau.
John P. Shook and Miss Katie E. Rachau, both of Spring Mills, were married Thursday of last week at the Lutheran parsonage, at Aaronburg, by Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder.

Spring Mills.
Malcolm Beaton, who is employed at Washington, D. C., is spending a week at home with his family.

It looks as though the office of justice of the peace is going to be the contest at the spring election in Gregg township.

There are two dwelling houses reported vacant in town. This will be an opportunity for anyone wishing to locate in town. Application should be made to Merchant C. P. Long.

James McCool and family, of Fiedler, spent Sunday at the home of the former's father, D. M. McCool.

Spring Mills experienced quite a flood last Friday. Penns Creek overflowed its banks at several points, to such an extent that the roads over town were impassable. The railroad bridge across Sinking Creek was moved out of place so that the west bound passenger train had to lay over in town Saturday morning.

Charles McCool and Miss Amy Ruhl were quietly married at the home of the bride on Saturday evening by Rev. Snook, of the Evangelical church.

State Foresters A. E. Rupp, of Boalsburg; J. W. Seltzer, of Coburn; W. H. Kraft, of Greenwood, and G. E. Ross, of McAlevys Fort, spent Tuesday in town as the guests of Wm. Grove. They are a good and jovial bunch.

Quite a number from our town attended the horse sale at Millheim on Monday. Fred Zettle purchased a fine pair of blacks.

DEATHS.
HENRY ROUSH.

The death of Henry Roush occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John H. Detwiler, east of Old Fort Thursday evening of last week. Interment was made at Heckman's cemetery, Rev. H. A. Snook, of Spring Mills, officiating. Mr. Roush had been in delicate health since last spring, and a part of his illness was due to his advanced years, he having attained the age of seventy-one years, two months, fifteen days. For some years Mr. and Mrs. Roush have been making their home with their daughter where the death occurred. Mrs. Roush, whose maiden name was Haugh, survives. The family for many years lived in Gregg township, in the vicinity of Penn Hall. The surviving children are these: Mrs. Perry W. Breen, Potters Mills; Mrs. Ephraim Shook, Spring Mills; James Roush, Aaronburg; Mrs. John H. Detwiler, Centre Hall; Mrs. Irvin Weaver, Miss Dora Roush, Mrs. Dallas Duck, and John Roush, all of Salona.

Marlin
Big Game Repeating Rifles
The great thing in big game rifles is sureness to work under all conditions. Marlin rifles are built with this idea foremost. The mechanism is simple, strong, perfectly adjusted, quick and easy in operation. The Marlin solid top and side ejector keep a protecting wall of metal between your head and the cartridge, prevent powder and gases blowing back, throw the shells away from you and allow instant, accurate, effective repeat shots.
The Special Smokeless Steel barrels are hard and strong, specially made for high power cartridges and to resist the wear of jacketed bullets. They are rifled deep on the Bullard system for greatest accuracy and killing power.
Made in Models 92 and 95, calibres 25 to 45, and fully described and illustrated with all other Marlin repeaters in our 135-page catalog. Free for 3 stamp request.
