Injury Done By No-License. A Lewistown citizen tells of the injury done by no license in that thriving town under the sub-headings which are printed below: 1st-The Lock-up has been almost put out of business.

have had an unusually dull year. 3d-It has encouraged the illicit sale of liquor, which has brought the venders thereof into serious trouble. 4th-It has made it difficult to secure intoxicants.

5th-It has kept away from our town a class of people who came solely for drink.

lars away from the till of the Saloon into other channels of trade.

7th-It has destroyed the most profitable business in the county. 8th-It has encouraged sobriety.
