

The Court.

Court is in session this week. The attendance of witnesses and others directly interested has been quite large. While there is much business to be transacted at this session, little has been finished up to this writing. The grand jury has been busily engaged in passing on indictments. A true bill was found in the case of Mrs. Bert Allen against her husband for assault and battery. A jury trial in an f. and b. case brought in a verdict of conviction, but asked the court to be merciful to the extreme.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. James B. Reish has not been before the grand jury.

The court will be in session next week, and the jurors who will hear the cases brought to jury trial are appended:

LOCALS.

R. U. Bitner, of Spring Mills, who was injured at Jersey Shore a few weeks ago, was in town Wednesday.

A sled load of young people of Bellefonte were entertained on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Levi Walker, in Centre Hall.

Miss Kate Foreman is seriously ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Foreman, in Centre Hall. She is a sufferer from pneumonia.

Monday's issue of the North American contained a half tone cut of a new Methodist church dedicated at Dudley, and the pastor, Rev. G. W. McClain.

Tuesday evening Miss Florence Rhone gave a party to a large number of ladies. There was real entertainment, and it was of an educational order. The refreshments were also elegant.

W. B. Mingle, cashier of the Penna Valley Banking Company, returned to the bank Wednesday morning, after having been confined to the house since last Thursday on account of an injury received by a fall on the side walk.

Miss Roxanna Bribbin and Mrs. W. Frank Bradford drove to Reedsville Saturday and returned Sunday. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Reynolds, but went to Millin county more particularly to visit Mrs. Hollis, of Boston.

The Pennsylvania woods are getting filled with gubernatorial candidates. Two of the recent Republican aspirants are Congressman John M. Reynolds, of Bedford, who represents the Nineteenth Pennsylvania district in the lower house of Congress, and Cyrus E. Woods, the former well-known State Senator from Westmoreland.

Pennsylvania will elect twenty-six Senators this year instead of twenty-five, as is usual in the even-numbered years. The increase is brought about by the elevation of Senator Sisson to the Auditor Generalship, which makes it incumbent on the voters of the Erie district to select a successor to fill the gap caused by the promotion.

Mrs. Mary Boyer, widow of Jonas B. Boyer, who for some time has been housekeeper for Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Bowl, in Centre Hall, was taken ill a week or more ago. Beginning of this week she was removed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Goodhart, who for many years were neighbors when both families lived near Centre Hill. She is gradually recovering, and when able to do so, she will go to the home of her sister, Mrs. Rishel, at Millheim.

The faculty of the Lock Haven State Normal School is made up of graduates of the best Training Schools, Colleges and Universities. Its course of study is therefore thoroughly taught. Its students come from every section in Pennsylvania which in itself is an advantage to its patrons. It has the handsomest Normal School buildings in the state. Owing to its fine location and excellent sanitation, epidemics are unknown. The spring term beginning April 4th, is an excellent time to enter. Write for its handsome catalog.

CENTRE COUNTY'S LEAD.
ING EDUCATOR DEAD.

After the death of mother Evans (Mrs. James G. Evans,) in 1904, Dr. Wolfe made his home with J. Wells Evans, near Spring Mills, and where he lived until his departure by death, which occurred Monday morning, February 28th, 1910.

During the past few years Dr. Wolfe was afflicted with rheumatism, which gradually enfeebled him. On Sunday, February 24th, symptoms of pneumonia became manifest and under which he finally succumbed.

Dr. Wolf kept up his studies in the classics, especially in the New Testament, Greek as well as in general literature. His correspondence was extensive, and his many old students and friends ever found ready access to him, and their inquiries always received prompt and kindly attention. His greatest benefactions are recorded only in Heaven. Yet many will rise up today to bless the hand and heart now pulseless in death of him who, "being dead yet speaketh."

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS.

A short service will be held at the house at 9:30 A. M., this (Thursday) morning. From the house the funeral procession will proceed to the Salem Reformed church, below Penn Hall, where services will be conducted by Rev. W. D. Donat, and addresses Rev. by Frank Wetzel, of Rebersburg, and Rev. Daniel Gress, of Centre Hall.

DEATHS.

THOMAS FRANKLIN BRUNGART.

After an illness of about one week from pneumonia, Thomas Franklin Brungart died at his home in Rebersburg, Thursday evening of last week. Interment was made in the Union cemetery in that town Monday morning, Rev. J. M. Bearick, of Salona, a former pastor of the Lutheran church of Rebersburg, officiating, assisted by Rev. Wetzel, of the Reformed church. The age of the deceased was sixty-one years.

Mr. Brungart was the only son of Samuel Brungart, deceased, and lived during the whole of his life in Miles township, following the occupation of a farmer until a few years ago at which time he retired and moved to Rebersburg. He was prominently connected with the affairs in his community, and was a great believer in education, and made it a point to educate all his children, five of whom survive him, together with his wife, who before marriage was Miss Emma Cornman. The surviving children are Cleveland, Tusseyville; Mable, teaching at State College; Celis, teaching at Madisonburg; Tacy, a student at Selinsgrove; Elda, at home.

JACOB DETWILER.

Tuesday evening Jacob Detwiler, of near Penns Cave, died at the age of almost seventy years. He had been ill but about two weeks from pneumonia, which followed a severe cold. Interment will be made at Aaronsburg, Friday morning, Rev. H. A. Snook, pastor of the Evangelical church to officiate.

Mr. Detwiler was a farmer by occupation, and was a native of Penn township, and was born March 17, 1841, but lived in various parts of the south side of Centre county. He was a man who had special regard for the fulfillment of every obligation he assumed, whether great or small, and consequently had many friends who had great regard for him. He is survived by a wife, whose maiden name was Stover, and these children: Aaron O., of Spring Mills; W. Edward, Harrisburg; Clayton S., Philadelphia; Emma, wife of Elmer McClellan, of near Centre Hall; Perry and Miss Mazie, at home.

JOSEPH HOLLWAY.

The sad news of the death of Joseph Hollway reached this place, writes the Aaronsburg correspondent. He was a son of Jacob Hollway, deceased, and lived the greater part of his life in Aaronsburg, and from here he moved to Akron, Ohio. He was a great sufferer, having had tuberculosis. He leaves to mourn his loss a widow, and two children—Mrs. Fred Burd and William Hollway. Also three brothers and two sisters—William and Frank, living in Illinois, Mrs. Sara Wyle, Akron, Ohio; James and Mrs. Margaret Crouse, of Aaronsburg. His age was sixty-one years.

Cyrus W. Rote, a well known resident of Salona, died Tuesday forenoon at 11:30 o'clock of heart trouble and dropsy, aged seventy-two years. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Ella Sigmund at home, and three sons, George G. Rote, of Harrisburg; William A. Rote, of Salona; and Max Rote, of Pittsburg.

Mr. Rote is well known as a singing master. He also was an auctioneer and saddler.

Pianos and Organs.

The Lester pianos are used and endorsed by all the leading musical conservatories and colleges in the U. S.

The Stevens piano organs are the latest achievement in modern organ construction.

Pianos and organs sold on easy payment plan. Write for catalog. C. E. ZIEGLER, Spring Mills, Pa.

LOCALS

Miss Bell Emerick, of Snydertown, died last week.

A daughter was born to Merchant and Mrs. C. F. Emery on Tuesday.

Tuesday over two hundred and seventy reserved seat tickets were sold for the Dixie Concert Company.

The wheat plants have the appearance of not having been injured by the ice which covered them for many weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smeltzer, of Zion, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sharer, on Sunday. Frank Relsh, of Pleasant Gap, has also been at the Sharer home during the past week.

Jacob Meyer, of Linden Hall, was in Centre Hall on Wednesday. He is one of the leading farmers and stock raisers in his community. While in town he was entertained by his brother, Prof. P. H. Meyer.

Aaron Lutz, who lives on the Hoffer farm, on Nittany Mountain, advertises three cows and a horse for sale in this issue. He will move from that place to the Showers farm, south of Earlstown, and has more stock than he wishes to keep on that place.

Roy M. Clements, who lives near Curtin, was in Centre Hall Monday and Tuesday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Strunk and Wilbur Henney. About the first of April Mr. Clements will go to farming on the Struble farm, near Zion Station.

Mrs. Susan Bitner, of Centerville, Missouri, has been granted a pension of $12.00 per month, through the agency of Prof. W. A. Krise, of Centre Hall. She was the widow of Benjamin Bitner, formerly of Potter township, who was a member of 53 Regiment, Company H. P. V.

Rev. D. C. Carris was returned to the Spring Mills pastorate by the Evangelical Conference, which closed its sessions at Reading. One of the items of business transacted by the conference was to assess the ministers one-half of one per cent. of their salaries and use the same to pay the expenses of entertainment at future conferences.

The Lock Haven Normal School continues to offer the best educational advantages for the training of teachers. The opening of the spring term, April 4th, is a good time to enter. The teachers of this important Normal school have no difficulty in securing professional training. Address for illustrated catalog, the Principal.

When you hear a man sneering at the local paper because it is not as big, and cheap as the city papers, you can safely bet he does not spend his wealth in assisting to make it better, and that generally the paper has done more for him than he has for it. The man who cannot see the benefits arising from a local newspaper is just about as much value to a town as a delinquent tax list.
