THE CENTRE REPORTER. THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 1910

DEATHS.

MRS. D. F. FORTNEY.

A quite sudden death in Bellefonte was that shortly after two o'clock Thursday afternoon of last week of Mrs. David F. Fortney, at her home on East Bishop street.

Her maiden name was Miss Sarah Huey and she was born near the Slab Cabin church. Had she lived until next May she would have been sixty-seven years old.

The funeral took place from her late home on Monday morning. Dr. Platts was in charge of the service and interment was made in the Union cemetery.

BRUCE EARL RISHEL.

Bruce Earl Rishel, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Rishel of Maple Park, Illinois, died at the home of his parents February 20th, from an affection of the heart.

Miss Ida Keen, daughter of the late Henry Keen, died at the home of her sister, Miss Lizzie Keen, of pneumonia, aged forty-two years, four months.

Interment was made in Fairview cemetery, Millheim, Friday morning.

Notice as to Hall Arrangement.

There has been such a great demand for reserved seat tickets for the Dixie Singers, next Monday night, that the entire hall has been set aside for reserved seats.

Story and Song Service.

The last service for the conference year in the United Evangelical church, in Centre Hall, was held Sunday evening. The service was one of "Story and Song."

Questions for Candidates.

A committee representing the Pennsylvania State Grange is sending a letter to all aspirants for nominations for the Legislature, asking their views on equalization of taxation, local option, initiative and referendum in municipalities and other objects for which the grange contends.

Tusseyville.

Mrs. N. J. Dubbs and children, of Milesburg, spent a few days with Mrs. Dubbs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Floray.

Alusa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Stoner, who fell on the ice last Monday morning on her way to school, is getting along nicely.

On Friday morning, on his way to the barn, John Bubb, of near Red Mill, slipped and fell on the ice, breaking his hip.

Samuel Klinsfelter is nursing a sore hand. While using a butcher knife he accidentally cut a gash in it.

Change in Billing Methods.

With a view of reducing expenses, the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania has adopted a new system of collecting toll and exchange rentals.

The telephone subscribers under the Patrons Rural Telephone Company will not be governed by this ruling.

Wanted: 50 Men and Women.

Murray and Bitner the enterprising druggists, are advertising today for fifty men and women to take advantage of the special half price offer they are making on Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

So positive are they of the remarkable power of this specific to cure these diseases, as well as sick headaches and liver troubles, that they agree to refund the money to any customer whom the medicine does not quickly relieve and cure.

This is an unusual opportunity to obtain 60 doses of the best medicine ever made for its regular price with the personal guarantee of a well known business man to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

Address by Prof. Agee.

Professor Alva Agee, of State College, will be at Aaronsburg on Friday evening, March 4, to address the farmers of lower Pennsylvania on "Care of the Soil and the Use of Lime."

Aaronsburg.

Clarence Eisenhour who was employed at State College came home sick. He is under the doctor's care.

Mrs. Tullie O'Neil, of Williamsport, was here to see her aged mother, Mrs. Summers, whose health is failing.

E. McClosse and Miss Elizabeth Edmunds, of Hazelton, visited the latter's girlhood home here. She sees many changes since leaving here, but those of her old acquaintances that are left are always glad to have her visit them.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tyson, of Logan Mills, (who is perhaps better known as Lillian Ardrey) visited some of the latter's relatives and friends in this, her former home.

Mr. Luther Bower was called to her parents' home, one day last week, at Potters Mills, where her father, John Bubb was seriously hurt by a fall on the ice.

On account of Rev. W. D. Donst not being well there was no service in the Reformed church on Sunday.

Rev. B. F. Garrett preached his last sermon in the conference year on Sunday. As he was here four years he does not expect to come back again.

Robersburg.

Jacob Bower and daughter, Mr. John Weaver, of Coburn, spent several days this week among relatives in this place.

Allen Gilbert and William Corman left on Saturday for the state of Texas. Jerry Walker sold his home and lots adjoining town to Ammon Hazel for $1600.

Rev. Weizel and wife were called to Lamar on account of the severe illness of Mrs. Weizel's father, Adam Yearlich.

Harvey Corman is at present suffering with a very badly swollen face, caused by the pricking of a pimple on his cheek. It was feared blood poison might set in, but at this writing all such symptoms have disappeared.

On last Thursday night Thomas Brumgart, a highly respected citizen of this place, died of lung fever. He was buried in the Union cemetery on Monday forenoon.

Clark Burket, of Valley Falls, Kansas, is at present visiting relatives at this place. Mr. Burket was a former resident of this valley.

Pine Grove Mills.

William Glenn and wife visited friends at Fillmore last Sunday.

Samuel Homan was substituted as teacher of the Branch school, on account of Miss Musser being ill.

Reed Randolph, who was on the sick list last week, is able to be about again.

William Randolph is nursing a very painful cut on his hand which was made with a saw, while cutting ice on the dam.

A party was held at the home of Al Bowersox, near Rock Springs, Friday evening. All had a delightful time playing games of all kinds.

Luther Dale and son Ralph, of Pleasant Gap, were pleasant callers at the W. J. Dale home.

Mrs. Musser, of Altoona, visited at the home of Miss Mary Hees, a few days last week.

Howard Fetterolf, of Centre Hall, visited his sister, Miss Grace Fetterolf, on Saturday.

A party was given at the home of Homer Walker's last Tuesday night. Quite a number of guests were invited and were royally entertained by their good hostess.
