LOCALS

Mrs. B. H. Arney is afflicted with erysipelas on her face.

Luther Royer and John S. Auman both of Potter township, have been ill during the past week.

D. J. Meyer, who is in South Carolina, wired to J. Nevin Meyer, at Rebersburg, that he would not be able to come north at this time.

Mrs. C. F. Shaw, of State College, and Miss Carrie L. McClune, of Stamford, Connecticut, were in Centre Hall Monday, guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hosterman.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Baird, of near Centre Hall, have added a little girl, aged about nine years, to their family. She is a dear little tot and hails from Allegheny city, and is very fortunate to find such a good home and kind, loving foster-parents.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the United Evangelical church will hold a sale in the Grange Hall, on Saturday night, March 23. Sunbonnets, aprons, ice cream, cake, etc., will be for sale. A special feature will be a "Larkin booth" where Larkin products will be sold.

Harry Barrick who is head miller at the Centre Hall Flouring Mills, moved to Centre Hall last week from Alexandria. He will occupy the Bailey house until the first of April, after which he will move into the house in which Wesley Sharer now lives, the same being the property of the Weber Brothers.

Norman King, who is well known throughout Centre county, and especially about Pine Grove Mills and State College, attempted to take his life by swallowing chloroform, while at Traverton. He was manager of a picture show, and it is thought the light returns of the business were responsible for the rash deed.

By the judicious use of the split log drag sent to the Centre Hall railroad station, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company expects to have the additional fruit raised on account of the instruction imparted by Prof. Surface and his assistants, on their tour through Penns Valley last Saturday, hauled to the station with the least possible injury done in transportation. While the Pensa is doing business for the Penns, it would be foolish for the farmers not to take advantage of the opportunity afforded to get instruction and the use of a split log drag absolutely free.

DEATHS.

JOSEPH K. MOYER.

At six o'clock Tuesday evening Joseph K. Moyer passed to the beyond, after an illness extending over a brief period. For thirty-three years Mr. Moyer lived at Center Mills, where he farmed, operated the flouring mills and lumbered. He was a man full of determination, and whatever he undertook to do was accomplished. His wife, who survives him, is the daughter of Col. H. R. Kline, of Orangeville, Columbia county, this state. Mr. Moyer's successes in life, financial or otherwise, are in a large measure due to her faithfulness as a wife. The deceased was the son of John Moyer, and was born at Pine Creek Mills, in Penn township.

One of the beliefs of Mr. Moyer was that to educate his children would be an inheritance that could not be taken from them, and this he followed out. Those of his children who are not now at school have all taught in the public schools of this county, and have shown ability. He was a member of the Reformed church, and politically a Democrat of the Jacksonian type. As a citizen he was highly regarded.

Mr. Moyer was the father of ten children, one son, George Calvin, having died at the age of six years. The surviving children are—Eva, teaching school at Loganton; Mrs. Flora Limbert, at home; John Nevin Moyer, Rebersburg, a school teacher; Mrs. W. R. Bray, South Bethlehem; Mrs. (Rev.) H. R. Kreider, Baltimore; H. Bruce Moyer, Rebersburg; Mrs. E. A. Zeigler, Mont Alto; Jason Kline Moyer, student in Masonic Academy, Woodstock, Virginia; Miriam R., student at the Woman's College, Frederick, Maryland.

One brother, David J. Meyer, of Centre Hall, now in Columbia, South Carolina, and these sisters also survive: Mrs. Ellen Bower, of Bellefonte; Mrs. H. P. Shook, of Williamsport; Mrs. Mary Bugee of Stockton, California.

If Mr. Moyer would have lived until the twenty-eighth of this month he would attained his seventieth year.

Interment will be made at Rebersburg Saturday morning; services at the house at 9:30 o'clock, and at the church immediately after the interment.

JAMES W. LARIMER.

James W. Larimer died at the home of Capt. W. H. Fry, near Pine Grove Mills, of heart trouble and dropsy, Friday of last week. Burial was made Monday morning, in the Union cemetery, Rev. W. K. Harnish, officiating.

He went west forty-three years ago, and for a time taught school and later engaged in the mercantile business, in Mount Carroll, Illinois. About a year ago his health failed, and he then returned to his old home with the hope of recovering it. For a time he seemed to improve, but later he gradually began to grow weaker and continued to do so until the end came. He died where he was born almost sixty-seven years ago. He was the only son of the late Hugh Larimer, and is survived by Mrs. R. H. Swartz, of Chicago, Illinois; and Mrs. W. H. Fry, who are sisters. Mr. Larimer was a most genial, good fellow, and had many friends. Thus one of the old Pine Grove Academy students has answered the last roll call.

AARON SMULL.

Aaron Smull, a well known citizen of Miles township, died on Friday, at his home at Rockville, a short distance west of Rebersburg. He was aged seventy-three years. Mr. Smull was a farmer by occupation, but lived in semi-retirement for a number of years. The deceased is survived by a wife, nee Margaret Limbert, and these children—Charles H., Mrs. Jacob Hellem, Mrs. Edward Miller, all of Rebersburg.

One brother, Jefferson Smull, of Mackeyville, and one sister, Mrs. Levi Fulmer, of Rebersburg, also survive.

Interment was made at Rebersburg, Rev. B. B. M. Sheeder, of the Lutheran church, officiating.

Mrs. Catharine Shaffer, an aged resident of Sugar Valley, died Thursday of last week at the home of P. T. Schreckengast, at Tylersville, aged seventy-one years. Interment was made in the Tylersville cemetery, Rev. J. H. R. senberger officiating.

Operator Chaney a Fake.

William Chaney, an operator in the tower at Hannah Furnace, on the Bald Eagle Railroad, created quite a stir among the railroad officials and the people in his community. He planned to make it appear that he was robbed, but on being put into the sweat box, he admitted that the whole story was a fake.

About five o'clock on Monday morning a freight approached the tower, and finding the signal blocking the road, the crew went to the tower to find what the trouble was. Here young Chaney was found bound hand and foot, and waste in his mouth. He was taken to his home at Port Matilda, by the crew, and when he gained consciousness he said he had been robbed by two masked men. Previous to this Chaney telegraphed to Operator Lord, at Port Matilda, stating that he had been threatened by two men, and asked whether he should shoot. He also sent the same story to the superintendent at Tyrone. He was advised to shoot by both of them. He fired through the door panel, but of course there was no one to hit.

A special was run to the tower, and on it were policemen and detectives. They began to question the condition in which Chaney had been found, and, of course, got a story from Chaney himself. It was not long until the detectives grew suspicious, and the result was he was hard pressed to tell the truth, which he finally did, acknowledging the whole story a fake, with himself as the only actor.

The William Harper estate obtained a judgment for $561.67 against the Krumboltz heirs holding property in Centre Hall.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.
