ANNOUNCEMENT.
To THE EDITOR—I hereby announce myself a candidate for Congress in the 21st Pennsylvania district, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the primaries to be held June 4, 1910. I make this announcement and enter the contest in compliance with the earnest request of many prominent members of the party in the district and also because I believe that in Congress, if elected, I would be in a position to effectively advocate those principles and measures of good government, which now more than ever, should be embodied in Federal legislation. I believe in clean politics and progressive Roosevelt policies. And to the end that I may serve their best interests, I ask the support of the Republicans of this district.
LEWIS EMERY, JR.
Bradford, Pa., March 15, 1910.

James K. Hackett's New York success "Call of the Wild," will show at the Bellefonte Opera House, Saturday afternoon and evening, April 9th. This play is a stirring drama and scored a success on its initial opening in New York and since then has met with approval everywhere.
The readers will find in this issue a large advertisement of the C. P. Long Company, of Spring Mills. Mr. Long has been conducting a general merchandise business in Spring Mills for many years, but the company referred to is branching out in new lines and on a new scale that is unusual in a small village. There is no reason why success should not attend these efforts. The goods this company will carry are being bought every day, and it is simply a matter of changing the place of purchase, and one should be willing, all else equal, to give home merchants the first patronage. One of the reasons for the tendency to buy away from home is the elaborate advertising engaged in by the merchants of the larger cities, and the failure of many merchants in the smaller towns to advertise in any way. The C. P. Long Company is beginning right, and like other progressive merchants who are doing the greater part of the business in their several communities, seeks to reach his trade through the columns of the newspaper, the cheapest, the most effective advertising medium offered the business man.

At a recent meeting of the borough council, the following persons were appointed a board of health: W. A. Krise, Dr. W. H. Schuyler, Dr. G. W. Hosterman, G. L. Goodhart, Dr. J. R. G. Allison.

A board of health is a very necessary organization in every borough and township, but they should be properly organized and lawfully governed. Up to this time not a single act done by boards of health in Centre Hall was lawfully done. The boards, as they acted heretofore, had standing only as individuals, and were personally liable for their act. This may be denied, but it is the truth.
