

COMMENCEMENT AT BOALSBURG.

Eight Students Graduated and Participated in the Exercises.

The Boalsburg High School held its commencement exercises in Boal's Hall Tuesday evening. The hall was over crowded, but this was not the only evidence that the people of that town and Harris township are in sympathy with the High School and its principal, Prof. H. C. Rothrock, and the corps of public school teachers, namely, Edward H. Williams and Margaret Mothesbaugh. Every one you met had a kind word for the teachers, the schools, the young people who composed the graduating class—it was a day that education came first in the minds of all, the young and the old. That is a very happy condition in a community, and a condition that pleases the Reporter to give to the public. Such a sentiment is invaluable, and it is only when such a sentiment exists that schools become truly educational.

The exercises were highly interesting from beginning to end. While the Christie Smith orchestra rendered a march, six promising young men and two young ladies filed in on the stage. The principal of the school, the directors of Harris township and several others followed. After the invocation by Rev. W. K. Harnish and music, the salutatorian spoke.

Each one in the class rendered his or her part in an altogether commendable way, but no attempt will here be made to give individual praise. The general appearance of the class was strikingly good, and this could be said without referring especially to the ladies. There was something about the young people that impressed you, and convinced you that in years to come they would reach the goal each one now had in mind. There was not a parent who could not justly feel proud of the son's or the daughter's acquittal, and who should not encourage their further seeking of knowledge.

Weaver-Fetter-If.

In Altoona, Tuesday evening at six o'clock, Clarence Weaver, of Pine Grove Mills, and Miss Grace M. Fetter-If, of Centre Hall, were united in marriage by a minister who is the personal friend of the groom.

Mr. Weaver is the son of Charles W. Weaver, of near Centre Hall, but the greater part of his life has been spent in the home of his grandfather, Franklin Bowersox, a prominent resident of Ferguson township. He is a school teacher, and as such has met with success. He is a young man of high character, and one who will not betray the confidence placed in him by his young bride.

Miss Fetter-If was formerly employed in this office, but for some time has been with the family of William Dale, at Pine Grove Mills. She is worthy of the love of a gentleman of honor, and the Reporter believes she has wedded such a one.

The young couple will go to house-keeping at Baileyville.

DEATHS.

MATILDA STOVER.

Matilda Stover died at the home of Thomas Fleisher, near Colyer, after an illness extending over a period of several years. She suffered from a paralytic stroke. She had been an active member of the Reformed church as long as she could attend service. She is survived by one son, Elmer Smith, formerly of near Coburn, also several brothers and sisters. Her age was sixty-seven years. Interment was made at Zion Hill, Rev. Daniel Gress officiating.

John Carson Dead.

Monday morning John Carson, aged almost eighty years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Houser, at Pleasant Gap. Interment was made Wednesday morning, at Sprucetown, Rev. Sowers, Rev. Shuey and Rev. Lantz, attending.

Mr. Carson is survived by six children, and also Mrs. Kate Armstrong, of Potters Mills, a sister, and James Carson, of Bellefonte, and William Carson, of Clearfield county, brothers.

Ministers Meet.

A number of ministers from various sections of Centre county, formed a county ministerium, at Bellefonte, Monday of this week. One of the principal items of business transacted was that to every candidate for the legislature from Centre county, or this district, shall be requested to give a direct answer "yes" or "no" to the following questions:

1st—If you receive the nomination of your party, will you, as a candidate, declare yourself in favor of the enactment of a Local Option law by the next Legislature?

2nd—If elected to the Legislature, will you as a representative of this district, work and vote for such a Local Option law as shall be presented to the State Legislature, by the Pennsylvania Anti Saloon League.

LOCALS.

Miss Mabel Arney is attending the Bloomsburg Normal School.

Henry Lingle, of near Colyer, moved to the Brockerhoff farm, east of Old Fort.

J. P. Heckman was a caller Wednesday morning, and had a good word to say for Spring Mills.

Miss Pearl Arney accompanied Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Widder to their home in Harrisburg, where she will remain for a short time.

W. Harrison Walker, Esq., in a letter to the Reporter, states he will not be a candidate for congress. The letter came too late for publication.

Dr. W. O. McEntire, of Howard accompanied Mrs. Sarah Heverly and Miss Sarah Wistar to Philadelphia, where the ladies will enter a hospital.

Mrs. Dunlap, wife of commissioner J. L. Dunlap, of Bellefonte, was called to Potters Mills last week on account of the serious illness of her sister, Miss Jared Brown.

Additional trunk lines are being strung by the Bell Telephone Company from its Bellefonte exchange to the exchanges at Centre Hall, Millheim and State College.

Kreamer & Son are having their store room brightened up. The ceiling and side walls are being papered, and the work is being done by Clayton Homan. The improvement is marked.

The work as district agent for the city of Scranton is found very agreeable to M. Shires, of Spring Mills, who has been connected with the Mutual Benefit in other fields for the past fifteen years.

The new landlord at the Boalsburg tavern had a card for that house inserted in the Reporter. Mr. Koch is very much pleased with the trade he has had, and is endeavoring to serve his guests in such a way that they will make an effort to stop with him regularly.

Like Finding Money.

Murray and Bitner the popular druggists are making an offer that is just like finding money for they are selling a regular 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price. In addition to this large discount they agree to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is only recently through the solicitation of Druggists Murray and Bitner that this medicine could be bought for less than fifty cents, they urged the proprietors to allow them to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount. The result has justified their good judgement for the sale has become something remarkable.

At one, who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eyes, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all these troubles. But if by any chance it should not, Murray and Bitner will return your money.

Prompt relief in all cases of throat and lung trouble if you use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Pleasant to take, soothing and healing in effect. Sold by Murray and Bitner.

Aaronsburg.

Rev. Daniel Gress and family, of Centre Hall, visited at the home of Rev. W. D. Donat and family one day last week.

Mrs. Augusta Edmunds returned to Coburn after having spent a few weeks with her grandson at this place.

Miss Sara Guisewite who is employed at Philadelphia has come home for a few weeks rest.

Mrs. Hannah Reid, of Montandon, is visiting her sister Mrs. Edleman at the home of Gilleard Eisenbrur.

Miss Nellie Mingle returned home after having taught another term of school at Potters Mills. Her many friends are glad to have her home again.

G. A. Weaver, of Coburn was seen at the home of Mr. Effie Weaver on Saturday.

The personal and real estate of Mrs. Lydia Frank will be offered at public sale on Saturday.

Mrs. Raymond Fried and son, of Rendov, are the welcome guests of the former's uncle, A. S. Stover.

Miss Ruth Swabb is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Burd, at Coburn.

Weaver Edmund and family left this place on Saturday for their new home at Freeport, Illinois, the home of Mrs. Edmund.

Some sixty persons left this town this spring and now there are nine vacant houses.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work. Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for much sickness and suffering, therefore, if kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your other organs may need attention, but your kidneys most, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because its remarkable health restoring properties have been proven in thousands of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best.

Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.
