ANNOUNCEMENT.

To THE ENROLLED I hereby announce myself a candidate for congress in the 21st Pennsylvania district, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the primaries to be held June 4, 1910. I make this announcement and enter the contest in compliance with the earnest request of many prominent members of the party in the district, and also because I believe that in Congress, if elected, I would be in a position to effectively advocate those principles and measures of good government, which now more than ever, should be embodied in Federal legislation. I believe in clean politics and progressive Roosevelt policies. And to the end that I may serve their best interests, I ask the support of the Republicans of this district.

LEWIS EMERY, JR.
Bradford, Pa., March 15, 1910.

STATE SENATE.

We are authorized to announce the name of George Dimeling, of Clearfield, as a candidate for State Senate in the 33rd Senatorial district, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters at the primaries to be held on Saturday, June 4th, 1910.

LOCALS.

Mrs. W. B. Mingle is back from Philadelphia.

Superintendent of Public Schools D. O. Ethers has another year to serve before he can be reelected.

John W. Conley, of near Centre Hall, had been ailing for several weeks, but Sunday was obliged to take his bed; since he has improved somewhat. His complaint seems to be due to an affection of the kidneys.

Montgomery & Company come to you in this issue of the Reporter with a clothing advertisement. This firm is composed of young men who have grown up in the clothing business, and will be found worthy of your patronage.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Gramley, of Spring Mills, Mr. and Mrs. S. Ward Gramley, of Millheim, and Miss Stamm, of Iowa, autored to Bellefonte Monday, in the latter Mr. Gramley's machine. Miss Stamm is the granddaughter of Dr. Stamm.

Mr. Hamilton, the census supervisor for this district, met the enumerators for Centre county in the court house Monday afternoon. Instructions of a general character were given, and the appointees were permitted to question their superior with a view of gaining information.

Your tongue is coated. Your breath is foul. Headaches come and go. These symptoms show that your stomach is the trouble. To remove the cause is the first thing, and Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will do that. Easy to take and most effective. Sold by Murray and Bitner.

Mrs. B. F. Hoy and son and Miss Mary Hoy, of Snyderstown, Northumberland county, were guests this week at the home of Merchant C. F. and Mrs. Emery. They were neighbors when the Emerys lived in Snyderstown, and came here on account of this great friendship.

A few days ago a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bitner, in Philadelphia, and of course the event was a great one in the life of the parents. Mr. Bitner is employed by the Philadelphia traction company, and is a son of William Bitner, of Tusseyville, and the young mother is the daughter of Robert Smith, of Centre Hill.

Samuel Condo, of Birmingham, Iowa, writes the Reporter under the date of 11th instant, that the weather in Iowa is beautiful; the farmers have the oats crop sown, and are busily plowing for corn. He further states that he and Mrs. Condo expect to make a trip east to Centre county in the fall, and that it is thirty-six years since Mrs. Condo was among her friends here.

From North Rose, New York, comes this message to the Reporter, written by Charles Miner, who for several years was associated in business with D. A. Boozer in conducting the Centre Hall evaporating plant: "Find enclosed a dollar for the Reporter, which reaches me regularly. I greatly enjoy reading the news from Centre county. Having done business there for several seasons, I have a good many friends and acquaintances there, and the Reporter therefore seems like a home paper to me."

Wright Appointed Treasurer.

Charles Fred Wright, of Susquehanna, Susquehanna county, has been appointed state treasurer, and he expects to take charge of that office on the first Monday in May. Of course, this all depends upon what the supreme court will decide in the matter. Jeremiah A. Stover, of Lancaster, was elected state treasurer last fall, and since died. John O. Sheatz, the present state treasurer, contends there is no literal vacancy, and that he will hold the office until it is legally shown that his successor is "legally elected and qualified." It is a pretty question for the court to decide.

Stover Braucht.

Frank Stover, of Aaronsburg, and Miss Bertha Viola Braucht, of Coburn, on Sunday evening were united in marriage at the Lutheran parsonage, in Aaronsburg, by Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder. Both the young people are highly regarded in their home community.

Mr. Stover is one of a number of Aaronsburg residents who had gone to Illinois with a view of locating there permanently, but the young lady who is now his wife was too dear to him for this. The couple will remain in the east.

Reed-Fishburn.

Frank Reed, son of J. I. Reed, and Miss Bell Fishburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fishburn, of Pine Grove Mills, gave a complete surprise to their many friends by being married Saturday evening, at 8:30 o'clock, at the bride's home, by Rev. J. S. Shultz.

This incident brought out the call-thumpans in great numbers, and while on parade they obliged Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Weaver, who just returned from their honeymoon trip, to appear as well as Mr. and Mrs. Reed.

Birthday Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Lingle gave a surprise party on Friday evening, on the occasion of the sixteenth anniversary of the birth of their daughter, Miss Nettie. She received a number of handsome gifts. Those present were:

Daniel Bohn and family, Calvin Ziegler and family, Miles Dippery and family, Mrs. George Earhart and children, Mr. and Mrs. William Ripka, Mrs. J. W. Tressler, Anna Tressler, Ida Hettinger, Esie Kuhn, Rose Kritzer, Carrie Kritzer, Paul Bradford, Bruce Korman, Edward Kuhn, Thurman Tressler, Harry Wagner, Willard Garver, Andrew Garver, Perry Alters, William Ducas, Clyde Shutt, Edward Lingle, Albert Lingle, John Bitner.

Methodist Gathering.

At Spring Mills, Friday afternoon at one o'clock, Rev. B. C. Conner will hold the First Quarterly Conference. A full representation is desired. Business of great importance will be transacted.

The following was paid by the circuit during the year: Missions, $233; general benevolence, $70; pastoral support, $810; parsonage repairs, $95; church improvements, $125; total, $1333.

J. MAX LANTZ, Pastor.

Death from Scarlet Fever.

Monday evening, Emerson Wise, a little son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Breon, of Millheim, died of scarlet fever. His age was almost two years. Interment was made Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Breon, who is employed in the Auman flouring mill, is ill from the same disease that caused the death of the child, and has been confined to bed for a week or more.

Mrs. D. J. Meyer, now in Columbia, South Carolina, passed over an anniversary day Wednesday, and was remembered by a number of her friends in Centre county.

Mrs. William E. Kline, who recently moved from the Hamilton place at State College to a farm on the Branch, gave birth to twins, a boy and a girl. The little girl has since died.

William H. Baird purchased a hand sprayer and will endeavor to grow first class fruit during the coming season. He has one of the best and most productive orchards in this community.

Drayman William McClenahan is having his residence repainted. The colors are white and green, the latter being used for trimmings. The work is being done by Irvin Gettig, assisted by Clymer McClenahan.

The split log drag, the modern road machine, sent to the Centre Hall station by the Pennsylvania railroad company, has not been used enough to wear the rust from the share. The implement was sent here without expense to the local community, with the request that it be used on any of the township roads.

The carpenters began work on the extension of the Centre Hall railroad station. The foundation walls were completed by the masons, Messrs. John Horner and John Zerby, both of Colyer, the former having taken the contract for the construction. The carpenters are those regularly employed by the Pennsy.

George Harter, of Tusseyville, accompanied his sister, Miss Viola, to the Central State Normal School, at Lock Haven, where he will take the teacher's special course. John C. Bailey, of Centre Hall, also went to that institution on Monday and will take the same course with a view of better fitting himself for teaching.

Walter W. Gonder and family moved to Centre Hall, and are occupying the portion of the Colyer house vacated by William Colyer, when he moved to the farm, east of O'd Fort. Mr. Gonder is a railroad engineer, but has given up railroading, and will devote his time to other affairs, principally assisting to conduct the Colyer farm.

A letter received recently from Altoona by J. Wesley Whitman, of Centre Hall, states that Hiram Osman is in a rather serious condition from a physical standpoint, due to a recent stroke of paralysis. Mr. Osman is a native of Penns Valley, and is well known by many residents in and about Centre Hall, although he has lived at Altoona for many years.

Linden Hall.

Edward Carper returned to Pitscan after spending ten days with his parents.

Miss Msud Miller, of the Glades, who was a delegate to the Missionary Convention, in Bellefonte, came from there to this place on Thursday, where she spent a few days, and then went to Woodward to visit her aunt, Mrs. R. M. Wolfe.

Mrs. J. H. Ross left for Altoona on Monday evening where she will spend a few weeks with relatives.

Misses Irene Ross and Bertha Meyer started to Lemont on Monday where they will attend school during the summer.

Mrs. Walter Copnhaver and children returned to their home in Tyrone on Wednesday, after spending a few weeks at the home of William Fleisher.

Mrs. Laura Hess, who has been at Mt. Alto during the winter, returned home on Saturday very much improved by the treatment received at that institution.

Mrs. J. S. Miller and Miss Gertrude Miller, of the Glades, were visitors at the home of their sister over Sunday.
