

Ruth Bryan Leavitt, nald Althan Owen, an English army officer.

A special grand jury of Chicago will investigate charges that $525,-000 of the funds of the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad went to bribe members of the Illinois legislature and the Chicago city council.

The bull clique operating in cotton on the New York Exchange accepted 200,000 bales of cotton, the sales being twice as large as any previous day in the history of the trade.

Joseph M. Huston, architect of the state capitol at Harrisburg, Pa., charged with falsely certifying to a padded bill for desks. was convicted. with a recommendation for mercy.

The captain and two mates of the cod fishing schooner Stanley were found frozen stiff in the rigging of the vessel, which was wrecked in Alaskan waters.

At the chapel exercises at the University of Kansas James Bryce, ambassador from Great Britain to the United States, made an address. Steel, Miller & Co., spot cotton brokers, of Corinth, Miss., went into bankruptcy.

Foreign

The International White Slave Conference, in Paris, adopted agreements for the furtherance of an organized campaign against photographic publications used in the illicit traffic.

An Austrian Army lieutenant has confessed that he sent capsules containing prussic acid to 10 members of the general staff, with the intention of poisoning them.

Ten persons were burned to death in a fire that destroyed the Rossmore, Hotel and a number of stores at Cornwall, Ontario, causing a total loss of $250,000.

Martin Moma Delgardo, a negro political leader and secretary of agriculture in the recently reconstructed Cuban Cabinet, died at the age of 54.

Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt arrived at The Hague and were received by Queen Wilhelmina. In the afternoon they proceeded to Amsterdam.

In the fighting between the Turks and Albaniang the former have not yet succeeded in dislodging the latter. The losess on both sides are. heavy.

Heards Island, in the South Indian Ocean, discovered by Captain Heard, an American, in 1853, has been annexed by Great Britain.

The British financial budget was reported by the King and Parlia-ment adjourned until May 26.

Comparisons of the respective cast construction of American and British battleeships made" by Rear Admiral Bowles, United States Navy, retired, and which showed that the former were less, were discussed in the British House of Commons.

Ill-luck and lack of experience caused Graham White to lose the aerial race with Louis Paulhan from London to Manchester.

Rev. Henry H. Jessup, a missionary and author, died at Beirut, Syria.

The trouble in the mills of the caped with a few bruises. International Paper Company, now several months old, still continues. Four hundred mill operatives are out at Greenville, R. I., and at Roxbury, Mass.

A Sympathy Demonstration.

demonstration of sympathy with the striking employes of the Columbus Government on May 24. Railway and Light Company. Ten cars were operated with police convoys.

FRANCE.

Paris (Special) .- May Day in Paris passed off quietly. The government had taken the strongest precautions and troops patrolled the Bois De Boulogne and boulevards, but their services were not required. The General Federation of Labor, in the face of Premier Briand's energetic attitude, did not attempt to carry out its threatened demonstra-The Premier refused to aution thorize the Federation to hold a procession, asserting that the manifestation had been arranged in de-fiance of law and order.

A bomb was thrown at the town hall at Arles and considerable damage done. Nobody was hurt. The notorious anarchist Yvetot was arrested at Marseilles for inciting the striking naval reservists to attack a military patrol.

ENGLAND.

London (Special) .--- May Day was celebrated here by a demonstration gram. of 20,000 workingmen in Hyde Park. One hundred trades unions and socialist societies were represented. Albert Grayson, former Socialistic member of parliament for Manchester, was one of the principal speakers. The preceedings were orderly.

ITALY.

Rome .- May Day disorders were feared here, where 60,000 masons are on strike, at Milan, where the strikers number 35,000, and at Bologna, where 10,000 men are on While the meetings were bestrike. ing held, at some of which fiery speeches were made, torrential rains came down, dispersing the crowds at Leavenworth, Kan. and driving them to shelter. The government had taken extraordinary measures to maintain order. All traffic was stopped and the streets in connection with the prosecution were strongly patroled. of the bucketshops.

Thaw Must Stay In Matteawan.

Prince Regent of China, was guest New York (Special) .--- Harry K. of honor at a state dinner given at Thaw, who killed Stanford White, the White House. must remain in Matteawan Insane Asylum, The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in Brooklyn hand-Philippines. ed down a decision setting aside the appointment by Justice Tompkins of er is said to condemn the Bethlehem Steel Company for overworking its a referee to take testimony bearing on Thaw's possible transfer. The court holds, in effect, that Matte-iwan is the proper place for Thaw inder the circumstances.

FATAL FALL IN THEATRE.

Revolt Leaders Indicted.

Ruth Bryan To Wed Again.

ment is announced of Lieutenant

Reginald Altham Owen, of the Royal

Engineers, stationed at Jamaica, to

Ruth Bryan, daughter of William

Determined To Die Natural Death.

He was bitten by a rattlesnake, but

BY TELEGRAPH

Prince Tsai Tao, brother of the

retary Knox and Representative Alex-

The government closed down the cement plant at the Roosevelt dam

because the big engineering project

Clarence Howlett, who stole jewels valued at $16,000 from Mrs.

Frederick Bugher, was sentenced to four years in the federal penitentiary

Prince Tsai Tao, brother of the

The House passed the resolution calling the information bearing on the sale of the Friar lands in the

The report of Labor Commission-

ander

men.

is nearly finished.

the doctors say he will get well.

Mrs. W. H. Leavitt.

Jennings Bryan, who was formerly

London (Special) .--- The engage-

Into The Orchestra. Havana (Special). --- Indictments were returned against General Evaristo Estenoz, the colored leader, slipped as she was descending the waist. and twenty-two other colored prisoners, charging them with the steep aisle in the gallery of the Linthousand five hundred unionists of Columbus joined in a parade as a demonstration of sympathy with the dured internally so seriously that for a general uprising against the death will result

> As the girl's body came hurling down the audience was thrown into Palace of the International an uproar and several women faint-Striking the edge of a woman's ed. hat near the centre aisle, the body sent the hat spinning, then crumpled up in the aisle she spied three vacant seats in the front row. She preceded her com-Natchez, Miss. (Special) .- Edward panions in a dash for them, when

BLAMES CRIME ON GIRL.

Bank Robber Says His Sweetheart

Lansing, Mich. (Special) .--- Robert Collister, a young automobile works mechanic, upon leaving in the custody of an officer to serve a twoyear sentence at the Ionia Reformatory for conspiracy to rob the bank at Laingsburg, Mich., blamed an unnamed sweetheart for his choosing a

"She was not satisfied with my 'and had vague ideas of getting a I tried, I I walked

The Train Was Rushing On.

York, Pa. (Special) .-- Miss Roher foot between the boards of a Attorney General Wickersham re- an approaching train just around the The whistle had blown when tained the services of Henry S. Rob- curbe, bins, of Chicago, as special counsel Sammy Stabley ran to the girl's assistance, tore open the shoe and lifted her from the track, Panama Canal Open In 1914.

Washington, D. C. (Special). --The Panama Canal will be open early in 1914." This is on unofficial declaration from the highest official for the passage of ships slightly before that time. The same authority. however, refuse to change the official bors, returned to his hotel and went to sleep, intending to start in the Girl Tumbles Over Gallery Railing morning. Meanwhile the spectators and Kappes returned to the coffers of at Hendon were surprised to see the company $76,000, stating that Paulhan, after trying his engine, this sum exhausted their individual New York (Special) .-- Louise take farewell of his wife, who tied Loefler, a high school girl of 14, a large map of the route around his by the award, and suit was brought

TEMPLE OF PEACE

Union Dedicated.

Washington, D. C. (Special) .-Peace fairly bristled from the close- ambassador from Great Britain, in two schoolgirl companions and stood cropped beard of Andrew Carnegie an address delivered here to the stpmen" glinted from his eyes when he the necessity of knowing history, saw his $1,000,000 "dovecot" be- ancient as well as modern, and said come an actuality.

> Mr. Carnegie had erected for them thing a young man could start with on the high ground overlooking Po- in his life juorney. tomac Park. It cost Carnegie alone more than three-quarters of a million, so it is little wonder that he bubbled over with the anti-war spirit till he caused some astonishment by implying the hope that Canada would seek a home in these marble halls. Nearly everybody who was anybody in Washington was there. President Taft was there, and with the donor planted a peace tree in the patio or courtyard as a memento of the auspicious event, and there was a distinguished crowd of diplomats and other notables. John Bar-

Cardinal Gibbons delivered the invocation, and addresses were delivered by President Taft, Secretary of State Knox, former Secretary Elihu Root, Andrew Carnegie and the Mexican Ambassador, Francesco de Barra, the latter on behalf of the Latin-American diplomatic corps. This evening the governing boards of the Bureau of American Republics this, 13 years old, committed suicide will give a reception to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie.

The new institution represents an outlay of $1,000,000, the greater portion of which was supplied by Mr. maine Diehl, 18 years old, caught Carnegie. It is a beautiful structure of white marble of a combined classiher foot between the boards of a of white marble of a combined that with a favorite doll and wedding railroad crossing, and the more she tried to release herself the tighter tractive features is the patio, filled the foot became wedged. There was with tropical plants and flowers from the foot became wedged. the various republics. Upon the walls of the building are the escutcheons in colors of the American republics with names of their heroes of war and peace.

Panama Canal Fortifications.

Washington, D. C. (Special) .---The Treasury Department sent to Margaret Musgrove, 23 years old, is Congress an estimate for the forti- dead, and Clarence E. Grimshawe, a fication of the Panama Canal, ag- railway conductor, is seriously source. There is a possibility even fication of the Panama Canal, ag- railway conductor, is seriously that it will be completed and ready gregating $14,104,203, and an ap- wounded, both being mysteriously propriation of $4,000,000 was asked shot on a lonely road. The couple fore that time. The same authority, however, refuse to change the official announcement that the work will be completed in 1915. The later date President Finley, of the Southern Railway, said crops did not suffer so severely after the cold snap. in accordance with estimates they heard five shots.

Recently, it leaked out, Thomas resources. Fetzer refused to abide against him. The suit, however, names Thomas and Kappes as well as Fetzer. 1.1

THE MISTAKES OF LIFE.

Do Not Know What We Think We Know, Says Ambassador Bryce.

Lawrence, Kan. (Special). ---"Three-fourths of the mistakes a man makes are made because he does not really know the thing he thinks he knows," said James Bryce, the habit of sound, careful and in-

Twenty-one American republics dependent thinking was the best in-took possession of the building which tellectual quality, and was the best

His Courting Expenses.

Hackensack, N. J. (Special) .--- The will of John Rowan, of Westwood. probated, provides that $100 be paid to his prospective father-in-law, John B. Curtis, for expenses incurred in entertaining Rowan while he was courting Miss May Curtis. But the will was made before Rowan was married, and it stipulates that the money shall not be paid in the event of Rowan's marriage to Miss Curtis. Mr. Curtis cannot collect this quest, because the testator finally married Miss Curtis. Rowan also bequeathed his high school pen and another trinket to Miss May Curtis, but in the event of "her not caring to accept the same, no one shall make comments,"

Suicide In School.

Alton, Ill. (Special) .--- Nina Anschool in the presence of her in teacher and 30 schoolmates by drinking carbolic acid.

She left a pathetic note, in which she said that her heart was broken because her foster mother scolded her. She asked that she be buried with a favorite doll and wedding during recess, but took her place is the line with the class for roll call. As her name was reach she stepped from the line and without a word drained a two ounce bottle of acid.

Couple Out Walking Shot.

Charleston, S. C. (Special) .--- Miss

rett, director, presided.

up at the back of the gallery until Tuesday, and "good will toward Mr. Bryce urged upon his hearers Keaton, 110 years old, who lives her high heels tripped her and she near this city, declares that he is determined to die a natural death.

Urged Him To Get Money.

salary of $25 per week," he said, millionaire. She kept urging me to earn, or get more money. failed. I became frantic. the streets of Detroit searching for a holdup or robbery, and finally decided to rob the Laingsburg Bank." Collister's bank robbery scheme was revealed to the police by a felin court.

ternational Law, who called on him at the White House, upon the rights of foreigners while on American soil. President Taft left for Buffalo and the Middle West, to be gone seven days. He was accompanied by Sec-low-workman, whom he invited to be his accomplice. He pleaded guilty

President Taft addressed the members of the American Society of Ina chance to make a lot of money

Prince Regent of China, looked tired career of crime. after putting in some strenuous days seeing the United States, but he did not let that interfere with his pro-