

DEATHS.

JOHN BOWER.

John Bower, one of Aaronsburg's oldest and most highly respected citizens, passed from this life to his eternal rest on Friday, 29th ult., after an illness of about two weeks incident to age. Mr. Bower was born in Haines township, November 21, 1817, having spent his entire life in the township in which he was born. At the age of twenty-five years he was united in marriage to Sarah Homan, also of Haines township. He followed the occupation of farming, one mile south-east of Aaronsburg for a period of twenty-eight years. In the spring of 1871, he retired from the farm, moving to Aaronsburg, where he has since lived. In his early life he connected himself with the Lutheran church of Aaronsburg, and has been a consistent member ever since, always willing to aid in the building up of the church. His union in marriage was blessed with six children—two sons and four daughters. His wife and two daughters preceded him to the grave a number of years ago. He is survived by the following children: Charles, Miss Emma E., and Mrs. James Holloway, of Aaronsburg; and Aaron, of Renovo; eight grandchildren and twenty-four great-grandchildren. His age was ninety-two years, five months and eight days. The funeral was held Tuesday morning, interment being made in the Lutheran cemetery in Aaronsburg, Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder officiating.

CHRISTIAN EVEY.

Monday evening, Christian Evey, a contractor and builder of State College, died at his home in that town. Interment will be made this (Thursday) afternoon, at the Branch cemetery, Rev. Riley, of the Presbyterian church to officiate. His age was fifty-eight years, four months and six days. There survive his wife, nee Harriet Evey, and five children, namely, Henry Arthur, Howard H., of State College, and Fred, Alice and Wynn, at home.

Mr. Evey had been ill for a period of six or eight weeks. He was prominently connected with the order of Odd Fellows, and was a well-known citizen, in the southwestern section of the country, having lived in State College and surrounding country during the whole of his life.

MRS. WILLIAM H. CORL.

Mrs. William H. Corl died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Anna Millward, at Pleasant Gap, Friday of last week. She died from a complication of diseases. Her age was about fifty years. Interment was made at Pleasant Gap, Tuesday, Rev. David A. Sowers, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating.

The maiden name of the deceased was Sarah Elizabeth Shreffler. Her husband died just one year ago on the first of April, leaving Mrs. Willard as the only survivor.

DRUNK—NECK BROKEN.

Thornton C. Williams, of Blanchard, was found early Sunday morning by Liveryman E. P. Fechtel, of Blanchard, dangling by the side of a buggy with his neck broken. Williams, Harry Gunsallus and Christ Bechtel drove a horse and buggy Saturday night to ride to the home of Mrs. Joseph M. Closkey where they spent the evening with a party of friends. The last seen of Williams was when he left the McCloskey place at eleven o'clock.

When Williams was found by the liveryman his head was found fastened between the shafts and the wheel, the spokes of which had ground away the scalp to the skull. Williams was married and leaves a wife and one daughter. He was fifty years old.

Spring Mills.

Miss Mabel Long, of Lock Haven Normal school, who had been at home for a week on account of sickness, returned to Lock Haven on Monday.

LOCALS.

This is May 5th, and there is yet much oats to sow. Last year the greater part of the oats crop was sown after this date.

Dr. George P Bible passed through Centre Hall, Tuesday morning, on his way to his home in Philadelphia from a western lecture tour.

Some large trout are being taken from Penns Creek. Bruce Shiras captured one at Spring Mills that weighed two pounds and two ounces, and Ira Bartley hooked up one at Beaver Dam that measured within three-fourths of an inch of two feet. They were beauties, of course.

John D. Meyer, treasurer of the Blair County Title and Trust Company, in Altoona, was in Centre Hall Tuesday and Wednesday, having come here to spend a short time with his parents who just returned from the south. Mr. Meyer is very much pleased with his business, and Altoona, and his general appearance indicates that everything must be congenial.

The Duncan stand at Spring Mills passed into the hands of W. Calvin Meyer, of Penn Hall, who for years has been conducting carriage works at the latter place. Some time during the summer Mr. Meyer expects to move to Spring Mills, and in the stand purchased will open a business along new lines. He will keep 'or sale finished buggies, trimmings and carriage hardware, a full line of harness and saddlery hardware.

Georges Valley.

James Foust made a very narrow escape last Tuesday while working in the woods for D. D. Decker. He was caught by a falling tree which resulted in a broken ankle bone.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerick, of Rebersburg, spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. C. W. Lingle.

D. C. Lingle, of Laurelton, was a business visitor to this valley several days last week.

W. L. Stover, of Aaronsburg, spent Sunday with S. P. Heuneigh.

W. F. McClellan and children, Myrtle, Francis and Warren, of Spring Mills, spent Sunday at the home of James Faust.

Paul E. Crisman and lady friend Miss Anna Jackson, of Lewistown, were pleasant callers with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Faust, on Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Colfer and daughter Sara spent Sunday at the home of S. E. Gobble.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shock, of Brush Valley, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Haugb, on Sunday.

J. B. Ripks and family spent Sunday in Decker Valley with Mr. and Mrs. John Ripks.

Miss Mary Lingle, who is making her home with J. W. Gobble, visited her parents over Sunday.

John Bridge, of Jersey Shore, visited W. T. Lingle on Sunday.
