MRS. YEARICK CHARGED WITH MURDERING HUSBAND.

Placed Under Arrest by Clinton County Officials on Return from Internment of Her Husband's Body, at Farmers Mills, Saturday Evening.

Immediately after returning to the home of her brother-in-law, John Yearick at Hecla, from the funeral of her husband, Saturday, Mrs. Elizabeth Yearick, widow of Harry Yearick, who died Wednesday night of last week, and an account of whose death appears elsewhere in this issue, at Hecla, was placed under arrest by County Detective S. H. Meyers, of Clinton county, on the awful charge of murdering her husband by administering arsenic in food of which he and a companion partook at his home in Salona, where he was employed in the limestone quarries. After the service had been concluded at the home of the deceased's brother at Hecla Saturday forenoon the remains were taken to the Union cemetery, at Farmers Mills, for burial, being accompanied by Mrs. Yearick and other friends, who got back to Hecla at 7 o'clock that evening. Detective Meyers was at the Yearick home waiting the return of the mourners. As soon as they arrived he read the warrant to Mrs. Yearick, charging her with the murder of her husband. She did not swoon or faint when confronted with the grave charge, neither did she appear excited or even perturbed. She simply denied having placed poison in her husband's food, and said she knew not what caused him to become ill. She was taken to the office of Alderman John P. Anthony, in Lock Haven, where she was interrogated in reference to certain points connected with the case, by District Attorney Hall and Detective Meyers. She was in deep mourning and her features were hardly discernable through the heavy veil which she made no attempt to remove. She was cool and collected, and calmly reiterated her protestations of innocence. She was committed to jail for a hearing, which will be held some time this week, following the verdict of the coroner's jury, which met at Bellefonte Tuesday. The Lock Haven Democrat states that it is believed by the officials of both counties that Mrs. Yearick was in love with another man, who has been paying attention to her, and as she had not been living with her husband, it is pointed out that she desired to put him out of the way in order to marry the other man. This, however, is mere conjecture, and it is up to the officials to produce evidence to establish this contention. Much importance is being placed on the result of the analysis of the contents of the dead man's stomach which is now being made by the chemists at State College, to determine whether or not there are any traces of arsenic. Mrs. Yearick has four young children who are being taken care of by neighbors and friends. Her maiden name was Donahue, and she was reared near Rote, Nittany Valley.

DEATHS.—MRS. AMOS LEE.—After just one week's illness, Mrs. Amos Lee died early Wednesday morning at her home near Colyer. Interment will be made at Tusseyville, Friday morning, Rev. E. F. Bieber, pastor of the Lutheran church of which the deceased was a member, to officiate. Her death was due to paralysis. The deceased before marriage was Miss Susan Gondor, daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Gondor, and was born in Dauphin county, January 26, 1857 and was over 53 years of age. She is survived by her husband and one son. Two children died while quite young. Ever since her marriage to Mr. Lee she lived in the vicinity of the home where she died, and was held in high regard by her acquaintances.

R. was invited to the McFarlane home on Saturday, where they were royally entertained. Mr. and Mrs. McFarlane were assisted in the work by Mrs. Clyde Smith, Mrs. Israel Young and Misses Mary Johnston, Rose Woods, Margaret Mothersbaugh, and Margaretta Goheen. The lawn and porches were decorated with the national colors, and the interior of the home was also tastefully decorated with the red, white and blue and bouquets of flowers. The guests were thirty-five in number, and after partaking of refreshments they held their regular meeting. The stars and stripes were floated over the central square in Boalsburg to show the patriotism of the citizens and welcome the ladies to this community.

Booser, Thursday of last week, started on a trip through western Pennsylvania and Illinois. They will be gone four or five weeks. Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose. Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed.
