

DEATHS.

HON. ROBERT A. SANKEY.

A telegram received Thursday afternoon by Hon. Leonard Rhone, announced the death of his brother-in-law, former Judge Robert A. Sankey, at his home in Wichita, Kansas, which occurred at noon of that day. Interment was made in that city Tuesday of this week.

Judge Sankey was a native of Potter township, having been raised on the Sankey homestead, near Pottery Mills, and was a son of James Sankey. After the Civil War, in which he participated, Mr. Sankey took up the study of law with the then well known law firm of McAllister & Beaver, and was later admitted to the Centre county bar. The west had attractions for him, and he finally located at Newton, Iowa, where he was married to Miss Rodgers, who survives him. As an attorney Mr. Sankey was very successful, and enjoyed a large practice that proved highly profitable in a financial way. In time he was obliged to seek a climate more congenial, and this brought him to Wichita, Kansas, at a time when the now prosperous city was having reverses. Mr. Sankey saw what he thought a good investment in real estate, and bought city property to a large extent. The tide soon turned, and Wichita advanced with rapid strides, and the real estate multiplied in value. Later Mr. Sankey was elected judge of the Wichita courts, and also held other positions of trust, being one of the most influential men in the city.

Mr. Sankey was east about three years ago, having come here on account of the delicate health of his sister, Mrs. Rhone, in Centre Hall, who died before his return to the west. Mr. Sankey is the last survivor of the James Sankey family and was aged about seventy-four years.

MRS. MARY ANN JOHNSTON.

The death of Mrs. Mary Ann Johnston occurred in Beaver Falls, at the home of her son George B., Tuesday of last week. The remains were brought to Bellefonte for interment.

Mrs. Johnston, whose maiden name was McKinney, was born in the vicinity of Boalsburg, but went to Bellefonte many years ago. She was the widow of John T. Johnston, at one time postmaster in Bellefonte.

Two years ago she fell and broke her hip, and since she has been an invalid. The direct cause of her death was due to paralysis, she having had two strokes during the last few days of her life.

Surviving her are four children, namely: Finley, in Michigan; Harry, of Pittsburg; George B. and Mrs. Roland Kelley, of Beaver Falls. B. D. Brislin, of Centre Hall, is a distant relative.

HARRY YEARICK.

Harry Yearick died under rather peculiar circumstances Wednesday evening of last week, aged thirty-three years. He is survived by a wife and three or four small children. Death occurred at the home of his brother, John Yearick, from which place the funeral was held. He was a son of Benjamin Yearick.

It appears Yearick was employed at Salona in a stone quarry, and with a man named Walker lived in a small house. Friday previous to his death he became violently ill shortly after partaking of a meal. Dr. Fisher, of Zion, diagnosed the sickness as due to arsenical poisoning, but he is unable to say how the poison was taken.

Carpenter Miller, Sr., died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Shuman Holter, in Howard. He was ninety years old last October, and was quite strong physically. He had walked in to the garden, and there became unconscious, death following some hours thereafter.

Spring Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Windom Gramley left on Monday morning for Philadelphia.

Mrs. Jerry Condo had a stroke of paralysis on Sunday and is very ill. This is the third stroke she has had.

An infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Decker was buried at Farmers Mills on Monday.

Quite a few young people will attend the circus at Bellefonte on Thursday.

Miss Ferns Rossman and friend Mr. Munch, of Millheim, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Rossman's sister Mrs. Bright Bitner.

Mrs. James Kennelly is not improving any.

Miss Blanche Barges spent Sunday with Miss Esther Hennigh, at Penn Hall.

Miss Margaret Bailey was a Sunday visitor in town.

Miss Bess Grove, who is employed in Philadelphia, is home for a vacation.

John Meyer and wife were to Boalsburg for a short visit.

Wm. Grove, who is surveying in Huntingdon, paid his family a flying visit last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stover, of Madisonburg, were visitors at Wm. Haney's over Sunday. Mrs. Stover being a sister of Mrs. Haney's.

BARCLAY QUITS RACE.

Present Congressman for Twenty-first District, According to a New Dispatch, Withdraws.

The following dispatch was sent out from Bradford, the home of Congressman Barclay, under date of 8th inst:

Word went forth today that another of the Pennsylvania Cannon congressmen had decided that the state of his health would not allow him to continue as a candidate for re-election. This one, the latest of a number to "get sick," is Congressman Charles F. Barclay, of Cameron county, representing the Twenty-first District, composed of McKean, Cameron, Clearfield and Centre counties.

Cannonite Barclay's withdrawal leaves the contest for the Republican nomination in the district one between ex-Senator Lewis Emery, Jr., of McKean county and Charles E. Patton, of Clearfield county. Patton will be backed by the Republican organization, while Emery, who is running on a Roosevelt platform, similar to the one on which he was elected a Republican national delegate two years ago, will rely on the support of the anti-machine element and his personal strength. At present Emery is on a business trip to Peru.

Trapped.

The sneak-thief has been busy 'round the Reporter office for some weeks past, which naturally aroused a desire to discover what such an offender looked like, and also to see just how the thefts were committed. It only took a little effort to make the discovery.

The last trick that was performed, under an eye witness, was the removal of a Canadian dollar bill from the Reporter window, placed there because it was a rather rare piece of money seen in this section.

A limited length of time will be given the sneak-thief to come forward and make amends. The offender must come to this office in person; no friend will be recognized.

The Whole Truth.

The Clearfield Republican, Democratic in politics, tells the whole truth of the opposition to Mr. Berry in one paragraph, which is here reprinted:

The Clearfield Democrats who are so hard at work trying to defeat the election of Berry delegates from this (Clearfield) county are only carrying out orders from Boss Gufley who in turn is obeying orders from Boss Penrose, of the Republican machine, to prevent the nomination of Berry at all hazards and at any cost. No honest Democrat will for one minute doubt the preponderance of sentiment all over this state demands the nomination of William H. Berry for governor.

Tusseyville.

W. F. Rockey returned home from Chicago, on Saturday, to which place he had gone in Company with Rev. C. C. Shuey for the purpose of attending the Laymen's Missionary Convention.

W. O. Heckman and friend, Miss Ruth Rossman, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wert.

Miss Edna Ishler left on Thursday for Bellefonte where she will spend several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira From.

Margaretta Rockey spent Sunday afternoon very pleasantly with her friend, Grace Neff.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan, of York, will spend the summer with Mrs. Sullivan's mother, Mrs. Cathrine Runkle.

John H. Ishler spent part of the Sabbath at the home of Mrs. Mary Ishler.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wert are the proud parents of a sweet little daughter, who came to their home several days ago. The little one is very fortunate as she will be loved and carefully reared by the thoughtful parents.

Colyer.

Mrs. C. S. Bodorf and Mrs. Stewart Jordan spent Thursday at Potters Mills.

Rev. and Mrs. Daniel Gress and family spent Thursday with friends in this community.

Among the sick is Mrs. Amos Lee, who had a paralytic stroke, and is in a very critical condition. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. James Swabb and daughters Mildred and Esther returned home after spending a few days at Coburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boal and children, of Centre Hill, spent Sunday at the home of P. S. Boal and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lee, of near Zion, spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Wallace Geary.

Mrs. Mary Grenoble, of Spring Mills, visited her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Moyer for a day.

Misses Mae Cooney and Blanche Reiber visited at the home of the family of Milton Kline, over Sunday.

Tubercular trouble and dropsy was the cause of the death of Edward Derstine, of Bellefonte, aged thirty-two years. He is survived by a wife and one son, also his father, John Derstine, of Bellefonte, and several brothers and sisters.

Mr. Rhone Appears Before Tax Commission

A very few have Irish and Italians on their farms, but Germans invariably—Pennsylvania is made up of German stock. It becomes us as a state to see that these people are protected in their rights. If there is any slavery more detestable than the Southern slavery, that is to say, the negroes of the south, it is the slavery of the Pennsylvania farmer. Consequently, we ask you to stop this condition of things.

I thank you for the opportunity of appearing before you. There are others in the committee who wish to be heard.

A Novel Introduction.

Dr. Howard Company has entered into an arrangement with Murray and Bitner's store, by which a special introductory offer will be made of 25 cents on the 50 cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

So remarkably successful has Dr. Howard's specific been in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all forms of liver trouble, that Murray and Bitner will return the price paid in every case where it does not give relief.

Murray and Bitner have been able to secure only a limited supply, so everyone who wishes to be cured of dyspepsia or constipation should call upon them or send them 25 cents, by mail, and get 60 doses of the best medicine ever made, on this special half price introductory offer, with their personal guarantee to refund the money if the specific does not cure.

The Westinghouse Lamp Company, at Bloomfield, New Jersey, whose product is sold by the Westinghouse Electric Company, which employs Dr. J. Frank Meyer, formerly the head of the Department of Physics at Pennsylvania State College, is putting up a new factory and increased its output thirty thousand lamps per week. Mr. Meyer devotes most of his time to experimenting on the material that enters into the product of the concern.

PRACTICALLY everything in and about the home can be made to look bright and new and clean with the right paint, varnish stain or enamel. The housewife and the householder can do much of this work with very little expense and a great deal of pleasure. There is, however, one important thing to remember: use a finish that is made expressly for the work you want to do. Do not buy a product that is made for a variety of uses or surfaces.

Sherwin-Williams Brighten Up Finishes are made for finishing tables, chairs, walls, floors, pipes, picture frames, shelving and hundreds of other articles and surfaces in and about the house. Each is a specialty—made for a particular purpose. Each contains the essential qualities that insure good results.
