ANNOUNCEMENT.

To THE EDITOR—I hereby announce myself a candidate for Congress in the 21st Pennsylvania district, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the primaries to be held June 4, 1910. I make this announcement and enter the contest in compliance with the earnest request of many prominent members of the party in the district and also because I believe that in Congress, if elected, I would be in a position to effectively advocate those principles and measures of good Government, which now more than ever, should be embodied in Federal legislation. I believe in clean politics and progressive Roosevelt policies. And to the end that I may serve their best interests, I ask the support of the Republicans of this district.

LEWIS EMERY, JR. Bradford, Pa., March 15, 1910.

STATE SENATE.

We are authorized to announce the name of George Dimeling, of Clearfield, as a candidate for State Senate in this, the 34th Senatorial district, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters at the primaries to be held on Saturday, June 4th, 1910.

Miss Viola Segner is spending some time at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jared Mayes, at Milton. The chief attraction there is an infant son, the first in the family.

Potatoes planted before the heavy rains during the third week in April, are said to have rotted, and are being replanted. Those planted during the warm weather in March, and were almost ready to blossom, were frozen down to the ground by the recent heavy frost.

Mrs. Sarah Condo, of Aaronsburg, mother of Mrs. Amos Koch, and her sister Mrs. Rachel Condo, of Spring Mills, mother of Mrs. William Young, are visiting in Boalsburg this week.

Mrs. Sarah Rankin, who spent the winter at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. P. McIntire, at Altoona, returned to her home at Boalsburg on Monday. Mrs. McIntire accompanied her on the journey.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stamm and daughter Caroline visited at Altoona over Sunday. Their daughter Miss Katharine, who spent several weeks with her grandparents at their country home near the city, returned home with them.

Mrs. Alexander Everhart, of Altoona, is visiting friends in this place. There was a hard frost Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Koch attended the funeral of Mrs. Amos Lee at Tusseyville last Wednesday.

Miss Della Ishler is this week attending the Assembly of Rebekahs at Williamsport, as a delegate of the Tussey Rebecca Lodge, and Homer O. Barr is representing the Boalsburg Lodge of Odd Fellows at the meeting of the Grand Lodge in the same city.

A number of the members of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Lutheran church, attended the lecture given by the state secretary of the society, at Lemont, on Monday evening.

Will Fisher with his wife and son, and Mrs. Joseph Kieffer and daughter, were an automobile party from Sunbury who visited at the home of Mrs. E. A. Fisher the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Annie Lukens, of Altoona, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoover, at Shingletown.

Charles Fisher and family, of Danville, are visitors at the Fisher home. They expect to spend the summer in Boalsburg.

Mrs. Margaret Riley, of Lemont, spent the time from Saturday until Tuesday at Boalsburg, when she departed for Altoona to visit with friends in that place for an indefinite time.

The latest surprise in Boalsburg was a birthday post card shower at the Lutheran parsonage for the pastor, Rev. J. I. Stonecypher, who passed another milestone in his journey through life, on the 11th. The souvenirs numbered one hundred and ninety, for which he expressed his thanks from the pulpit on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Wagner announced the birth of a son, Harold Wilbur, on Friday, May 13th. Congratulations are extended.

West Susquehanna Classis.

The annual sessions of West Susquehanna Classis of the Eastern Synod of the Reformed church met in Middleburg on Wednesday evening of last week. The opening sermon was preached by the retiring president Rev. Daniel Gress, of Centre Hall. The Rev. E. S. Noll, of New Berlin, was elected president for the new year. The reports from the pastors of the various charges of Classis, both parochial and statistical, show a growth in the kingdom, and earnest work in the vineyard of the Lord. All the reports were characterized by a healthy and optimistic spirit. The state of religion and morals was generally reported good. The day sessions were largely business sessions. The evening sessions were of a distinctly religious character, and addresses were given on various subjects—home missions, foreign missions, Sunday school work, church literature, students for the ministry, constitution of the church, the consistency and its relations to the members, etc. The laymen's missionary movement was the subject on Friday evening, and splendid addresses were made by ministers and laymen, after which a reception was given by the Middleburg congregation to the visiting brethren, which was greatly enjoyed by all.

The business sessions of Classis adjourned on Saturday afternoon; preparatory services were held in the afternoon, and communion services Sunday morning.

Classis dissolved the pastoral relationship between the Rev. A. A. Black and the Boalsburg charge, and dismissed him to the Derry charge, a mission in Westmoreland Classis. Classis also dissolved the pastoral relationship between the Rev. Frank Wetzel and the Rebersburg charge, and dismissed the Rev. Wetzel to the Stoyestown charge of Somerset Classis. Rev. Daniel Gress and Elder Dr. H. F. Bitner, Dr. A. M. Schmidt and E. T. Rhodes were elected delegates to General Synod, which meets in Canton, Ohio, in May 1911. Classis will hold its annual session in the Centre Hall Reformed church during the first week in May, 1911.

West Susquehanna Classis now consists of 21 charges, 21 ministers, 65 congregations, 6200 members, 7183 Sunday-school scholars, $9,350 were contributed for benevolence during the year, and $32,754 for congregational purposes were contributed during the last year.

Base Ball.

Boalsburg and State College met on the diamond of the latter, Saturday afternoon, the result being a score of 7 to 5 in favor of the visitors. Manager Lonberger was obliged to patch his Boalsburg team, but they put up a good game, and carried with them their batting eyes. In six innings Kreamer was knocked out of the box, and was relieved by Alkinson, who did very well, but the game had already been lost. Ross for the Boalsburg team, was wild at times, but was not hit when hits meant runs.

SUMMER VACATIONS

The time is coming for summer outings. Have you thought about yours yet?

No country on the face of the globe contains so many delightful summer resorts as the United States, with its near neighbor, Canada.

The Pennsylvania Railroad will issue its popular Summer Excursion Book on June 1, and you will find it a wonderful help in plotting out your summer trip.

It contains descriptions of about eight hundred of the leading resorts of North America, lists of hotels and boarding houses at these various places, a map, routes and rates from the principal stations on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and other valuable information.

If you have grown tired of the resort you have visited for years, you may make a selection from this book for a stay of a day, a week, a month, or the whole summer.

You may plot out an extended tour covering mountain and seashore, or a fishing trip, or a hunting jaunt, by rail or boat or a combination of both.

Any Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad will be glad to furnish a copy of this valuable book for Ten Cents, or it will be mailed you postpaid, on receipt of Twenty five Cents, by Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia, Pa.
