

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Black Duck, Minn.—"About a year ago I wrote you that I was sick and could not do any of my housework. My sickness was called Retroflexion. When I would sit down I felt as if I could not get up. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and did just as you told me and now I am perfectly cured, and have a big baby boy."—Mrs. ANNA ANDERSON, Box 19, Black Duck, Minn.

Consider This Advice.
No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial.
This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills, and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial.
Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

A Prize Cow.
Census takers of Long Island have ideas which help them to give a good account of our property. An enumerator called at the fine home of William M. Baldwin, a manufacturer, in Garden City, and finding none of the family there, proceeded to gather information from a visiting relative.
"Have they a cow?" asked the census man.
"They do have a cow," was the reply, "but all I know about it is that it gives good milk."
"What would you say such a cow was worth?"
"Really, I haven't an idea."
"Don't you suppose it is worth about $200?"
"I shouldn't wonder."
So the Garden City cow has been set down at $200, which is as good a showing as Long Islanders could ask, considering the fact that the prize-winning cow at the last Minnesota fair sold for only $90, and cows are now selling for $65.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Three Million Dope Fiends.
It is hard to believe that the government officials are correct when they announce there are 3,000,000 of so-called dope fiends in this country—that is to say, victims of some of the deadly drugs which most people know only by name. Cocaine, morphine and other such devastating drugs are being used in enlarged quantities, and recent venets in this city show how widespread their use is becoming. Here is a chance to do some reform work in a vigorous way. There seems to be enough law on the subject if it is vigorously enforced, but it is not true that punishment is now severe enough.
The use of these drugs can be suppressed only by maintaining a strict control over the sale of them. The worst feature of them all is that they are so insidious. It is a long time before the victim is known, and then it is apt to be too late. It does seem as if the federal government and the states could work together so as to make it impossible for unlawful dispensers to get a supply. When a man has acquired a desire for these drugs he will make almost any sacrifice to secure them. Alcohol at its worst is a simple matter compared with cocaine and other "dopes."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Forearmed.
"With all your wealth are you afraid of the proletariat?" asked the deliver in sociological problems.
"No I ain't!" snapped Mrs. Newrich. "We boll all our drinkin' water."—Philadelphia Record.

Better Health
A Pleasing Sense of Health and Strength Renewed and of Ease and Comfort follows the use of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, as it acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, when constipated, or bilious, and dispels colds and headaches.
To get its beneficial effects, always buy the genuine, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

COMMERCIAL Weekly Review of Trade and Market Reports.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:
The unsettled and apprehensive feeling prevailing for sometime past in the financial markets, resulting in declining prices, has been allayed to some extent, although there has been a disappointing check to the buoyant movement existing in mercantile lines at the beginning of the year.
The causes of the financial recession were partly economic, partly political. It is to be noted, however, that the effect upon the industrial and mercantile situation has been slow, and in some parts of the country it was hardly noticeable.
Efforts to remove the obstacle of over-production from the pig-iron situation are proving successful, as evidenced by returns covering the output during April, which show the smallest total, with one exception, since September, 1909. Buyers still pursue a waiting attitude and hesitation is also apparent in the markets for finished materials, consumers delaying in the hope of securing price concessions. In some divisions a larger inquiry is noted, especially for structural steel, on which more business is in sight, and bids have been opened on 25,000 tons of plates required for the Panama Canal locks.

Coleridge's Stick.
Of walking sticks there is no end. We have heard of Mr. Haldane's cordite one, and now we read of a stick in the Guest collection at Christie's which belonged to the very last Bond Street watchman. For interesting sticks, however, the one which Coleridge was in the habit of losing, during his tramp days must take first place. The philosopher was never happy till he had got it back. He sent the crier round. Here is the cry, as noted by Mr. Lucas in one of his essays: "Missing a curious walking stick. On one side it displays the head of an eagle, the eyes of which were sent rising sun, and the ears Turkish descendants; on the other side is the portrait of the owner in woodwork. Around the neck is a Queen Elizabeth's ruff in tin. All down it waves the line of beauty in very ugly carving."
And then came the appeal and warning note: "If any gentleman (or lady) has fallen in love with the above described stick and secretly carried off the same he (or she) is hereby earnestly admonished to conquer a passion the continuance of which must prove fatal to his (or her) honesty. And if the said stick has slipped into such a gentleman's (or lady's) hand through inadvertence he (or she) is requested to rectify the mistake with all convenient speed. God save the King!" The stick came back!—London Chronicle.

Great Field of Charity.
We have reached a point now where hundreds of millions are being put into every form of gift which can be thought of for the public advantage, and it is fortunate that there should be such a variety of objects available to meet every one's taste or conviction as to what is most desirable and useful. One puts up an art building or a library, another a hospital or a college dormitory or a chapel, another lays out a park or endows a professorship or an old people's home. Trips in the country are provided for children in the summer and sanitariums for all sorts of diseases. Vast sums are to be given to learn the origin and nature of scourges like tuberculosis, cancer and the hookworm. The latest form of endowment is for purposes of original investigation in many directions, which, up to a very recent date, have been carried on by busy professional men. Now experts are able to give all their time and ability to hunting down the secret of life, prying into all the arcana of nature and studying history and civilization at their sources. Within a short time $4,000,000 has been set apart by a rich New Yorker to provide a home for convalescents and to assist persons out of employment on account of illness, an excellent provision, for which there is need in every large place. To stimulate research tempting prizes are offered. One hundred and fifty thousand dollars awaits the person who discovers a remedy for tuberculosis.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

"Why, the game is full of excitement."
"Yep. But one man gets more than his share. After the first day's scrap everybody wanted to be umpire."—Washington Star.

"What's 'at'?" inquired three-year-old Marian, with her finger on an ugly beast in her new picturebook.

Baby Wasted to a Skeleton.
"My little son, when about a year and a half old, began to have sores come out on his face. I had a physician treat him, but the sores grew worse. Then they began to come out on his arms, then on other parts of his body, and then one came on his chest, worse than the others. Then I called another physician. Still he grew worse. At the end of about a year and a half of suffering he grew so bad that I had to tie his hands in cloths at night to keep him from scratching the sores and tearing the flesh. He got to be a mere skeleton, and was hardly able to walk."
"My aunt advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I sent to a drug store and got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of the Ointment and followed directions. At the end of two months the sores were all well. He has never had any sores of any kind since. I can sincerely say that only for Cuticura my child would have died. I used only one cake of Cuticura Soap and about three boxes of Ointment."
"I am a nurse and my profession brings me into many different families and it is always a pleasure for me to tell my story and recommend Cuticura Remedies. Mrs. Egbert Sheldon, R. F. D. 1, Litchfield, Conn., Oct. 23, 1909."
A Woman's Way.
A prominent banker in this city was talking the other day of the foibles of some of his feminine depositors.
"Women are queer creatures when it comes to business," he said. "For one thing, no woman can understand why we won't send her unlimited amounts of money if she asks for it over the telephone."
"But the funniest incident I've known happened the other day. We sent word to one of our women depositors that her account was overdrawn. We expected her to be angry. They usually are. But she wasn't."
"No indeed. She sat down and wrote us a gracious and lovely letter on crested paper, thanking us for letting her know that her account was overdrawn."
"I am so glad to oblige you by remedying the defect at once," she wrote.
"And she inclosed a check for $750 drawn on our own bank."—Philadelphia Times.
