DEATHS.

Ephraim Bartholomew died at his home in Millheim, Tuesday of last week, aged sixty-nine years, ten months and twenty-one days. He had been in ill health for a number of years but recently he had a stroke of paralysis from the effects of which he died. He was a veteran of the Civil war and served his country faithfully until the close of the strife. He leaves to survive a widow and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, of State College, and Katie at home. Funeral services were held Friday forenoon, conducted by Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder and interment was made in Millheim.

Joseph S. Lee, a very highly respected citizen of Irvoxia, Clearfield county, died Friday afternoon, 29th ult., from a complication of diseases.

Mr. Lee was a resident of Hubersburg for forty years. He was married in 1860 to Miss Martha E. Curran. At the outbreak of the Civil war Mr. Lee enlisted as a private in Company C, 148th regiment Penna. Volunteers and remained in the service until honorably discharged in 1865. Some years ago he moved to Irvoxia, where he lived a retired life. He was the father of four sons; two of whom with his wife, survive. His body was interred in the South Fork cemetery.

LOCALS.

Even the book worm will turn if you read on his tale.

The Tressler Memorial Lutheran church at Loyseville will be dedicated Sunday, May 22.

Judging from the prices paid for horses at the Millheim horse sale, last week, there is no lack of demand for the faithful animals. Three horses sold for $940, and none for less than $200.

The timber on the Wilson farm, below Old Fort, will be cut for the McNitt-Huyett Lumber Company by Frank Yearick, of Yearick's Church in Brush Valley, who now has part of the mill on the ground.

One night last week a horse belonging to W. R. Neff, of near Tusseyville, took sick and died shortly after its sickness was discovered, early in the morning. Mr. Neff will be obliged to purchase a horse to make up two teams.

All the children in and about Centre Hall are requested to meet in the Reformed church, Saturday afternoon, at two o'clock, to prepare suitable music for Memorial Day. Parents are urged to interest their children and induce them to be present at this rehearsal.

Never hesitate about giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to children. It contains no opium or other narcotics and can be given with implicit confidence. As a quick cure for coughs and colds to which children are susceptible, it is unsurpassed. Sold by Murray and Bitner.

That Canadian dollar is back to its place in the Reporter window. It was spent at an ice cream parlor. The violator has not yet turned up at this office, but would do well by doing so. All of the circumstances surrounding the theft are known, and it is for the benefit of the sneak thief that this opportunity is given to make amends.

Miss Bertha Bieber, of Milton, and Mrs. John Kerr, accompanied by her little son William, of Sunbury, Friday came to Centre Hall, and until Tuesday were entertained at the Lutheran parsonage. The ladies are sisters of Rev. B. F. Bieber. Monday morning Mr. Kerr arrived, and in the afternoon the Biebers and their guests drove to State College.

The members of the United Evangelical church in Millheim, gathered at the home of their pastor, Rev. W. J. Dice, one evening last week, and each one brought with him or her something to replenish the parson's larder. Rev. Dice was just appointed to the Millheim charge last Spring, and this kind act leads one to think that his parishioners are very pleased with him.

Fertilizer is to cost more and yet smell just as bad. The Germans are going to raise the price of potash, a principal ingredient of fertilizer, and as Uncle Sam's farmers are by far the largest consumers of this article, they will have to pay more for it. At present the value of importation is seven millions of dollars. If the higher price would only insure a little less odor the infliction would be borne with less grumbling.

Charles D. Bartholomew, of Centre Hall, reports that he has had a very large demand for hatching eggs and day-old chicks, and that he will be able by another year to care for more orders than ever before, as he expects to increase his breeding pens materially. At the present time he is stocked up with a complete line of Model and Buffalo incubators and brooders and all kinds of poultry feeds and supplies, and prospective purchasers of anything in his line will do well to consult him before placing orders elsewhere, as he can give prompt service at lowest prices for cash.

There ought to be no let-up on the part of those who are investigating the Ballinger matter until every last fact in the secretary's official history has been gleaned. Enough evidence has already been introduced, at some pains to Mr. Glavis' attorney, to show that the administration did everything in its power to shield the secretary from the white light of publicity. That was a sad mistake, and it is one that cannot be remedied now by further attempt at concealment.
