ANNOUNCEMENT.

To THE EDITOR—I hereby announce myself a candidate for Congress in the 21st Pennsylvania district, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the primaries to be held June 4, 1910. I make this announcement and enter the contest in compliance with the earnest request of many prominent members of the party in the district and also because I believe that in Congress, if elected, I would be in a position to effectively advocate those principles and measures of good government, which now more than ever, should be embodied in Federal legislation. I believe in clean politics and progressive Roosevelt policies. And to the end that I may serve their best interests, I ask the support of the Republicans of this district.

LEWIS EMERY, JR.
Bradford, Pa., March 15, 1910.

STATE SENATE.

We are authorized to announce the name of George Dimeling, of Clearfield, as a candidate for State Senate in this, the 24th Senatorial district, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters at the primaries to be held on Saturday, June 4th, 1910.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Representative in the General Assembly of Pennsylvania subject to the decision of the Democratic voters of Centre county at the primaries to be held Saturday, June 4th, 1910. In the last session it was my ambition to serve the best interests of the county, and if in doing so I have merited the commendation of my fellow-citizens, I shall appreciate their renewed expression of confidence.

Sincerely and gratefully,
J. C. MEYER.

LOCALS.

County Superintendent D. O. Eters is holding teachers' examination at Centre Hall today (Thursday).

S. J. Rowe will leave for Syracuse, New York, Friday morning to look after a large stone crusher plant being erected there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Rearick, of Milroy, were in Centre Hall Memorial Day, having made the trip in their new automobile, which Mr. Rearick is learning to handle quite skillfully.

Mrs. Kent, wife of E. A. Kent, of Foster, Susquehanna county, came to Centre Hall Wednesday evening, and for a while will visit her brother, J. T. Potter and sister Miss Mary Potter, the latter being critically ill at her home west of Centre Hall.

Deputy Sheriff James B. Strohm, who was laid up the greater part of last week at his home in Centre Hall, went to Bellefonte Friday, returning Saturday. He remained on the South side over Memorial Day, attending the services at Spruce-town, as well as at Centre Hall.

George Sweeney, whose illness has been noted a number of times in these columns, continues in a critical condition. Mrs. Sweeney is also in delicate health. Both the aged people are being cared for by their daughter, Mrs. Newton Yarnell, at her home, near Linden Hall.

Huntingdon county is making claims for Superior Court Judge Or-lady as a candidate for Governor on the Republican ticket, but then former Governor Pennypacker made such a bad record that the Republican party will be suspicious of the bench when seeking a candidate in the future. The type of man to head the Republican ticket will be decided by the action of the Democratic convention at Allentown.

A new school code is being formulated by the commission that reported a code to the last legislature. The commission is now working without pay, and it hopes to work out some code that will meet favor with the legislature. The commission is made up of Nathan C. Schaeffer, Dr. G. M. Phillips, West Chester; David B. Oliver, Allegheny; William Lauder, Riddiesburg; John S. Billing, Erie; James M. Coughlin, Wilkes-barre.

Messrs. C. F. Hettinger, of Greensburg, and Elmer C. Hettinger, of near Centre Hall, were callers Friday of last week. The former Mr. Hettinger just recovered from a severe attack of grip, and is here to receive the benefits of pure air and sunshine. He is head clerk in the Rappe hotel, one of the finest hotels in that section. He expects to remain for about ten days, and then return to business which keeps him confined very closely.

Many corn fields show the effects of the continuous cold weather since the crop has been planted. Of course, there is plenty time for the plants to recover from their present unpromising condition, but the average farmer dislikes to look along the corn rows and observe a crust on the soil, yellow sprouts, and the measly out worm wriggling up to a plant, even if the "set" will permit an occasional pruning close to or under the ground.

Harris Township.

The Boalsburg Lodge, Knights of Malta, contributed $50 toward the construction of the concrete walk to be built by the public.

Oscar Rishel, who is a clerk in the Ross store at Lemont, when starting from his home at Boalsburg on Sunday evening on a bicycle, collided with a horse and buggy. Dr. Kidder was called at once. No bones were broken but he has since been unable to walk except by the aid of crutches.

Among the relatives from a distance who were present at the burial of Samuel Weber were J. E. Davis, of Bedford, the father of Mrs. Weber; and a sister, Mrs. Miller, of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. Miller, of Pittsburg; Mr. and Mrs. George Heberling, of Pine Grove Mills, and William Tibbens, of near Roopsburg.

Quite a number of people from Boalsburg attended the funeral of George Dale, at Shiloh. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Dale, of Rushville, Nebraska, who came east on account of Mr. Dale's death, will remain for several weeks with relatives in different portions of the eastern states.

The base ball game played by the Boalsburg and State College teams, on the afternoon of Memorial day, was won by the home team, by a score of 12 to 5.

The order of Knights of Malta purchased a dwelling house, which had formerly been a store room, from Mrs. J. N. Dinges. Work will be commenced at once to transform it into a hall.

Alexander Kuhn celebrated his seventy-fourth birthday, last Friday. He was remembered by his friends in the form of a birthday post card shower, the cards numbering 110.

P. M. Weber, with his family of Huntingdon, attended the funeral of his nephew, Samuel Edward Weber, an account of whose sad death appeared in last week's issue, tarried for a short time with relatives in this place.

Anthony Knoeph, of Pittsburg, and David Miller, of Pine Grove Mills, were in line with the veterans at the Memorial services.

John Hook, Joseph Hettinger, Geo. Kaup and James Poorman were veterans who attended the Memorial services in the Methodist church at Lemont on Sunday.

The sum realized at the festival on the evening of Memorial day was $281. In the contests for the gold watch and the silver cake dish, Misses Helen Riley and Maude Houtz were the respective successful winners.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Millward and son Gerald, of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday in Boalsburg.

Mrs. Annie Rupp, Edward and Will Hunter, of Altoona, and Reuben Stuart, of Bellevue Station, Pittsburg, were visitors in this place over Memorial Day.

Misses Margaret Moore, Katharine and Margaret Weber, of State College, spent the time from Saturday till Tuesday with friends in Boalsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pressler, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday in Boalsburg. Mrs. Pressler, who before her marriage was Miss Samantha Shutt, brought flowers and placed them on her mother's grave.

Hon. Cyrus Woods and wife, of Greensburg, spent from Friday until Tuesday in this his boyhood home. They expect to summer in European countries.

George Feerrar, of Williamsport, whose youthful days were spent in Boalsburg, visited here last week.

Many of the graves of private citizens were handsomely decorated over Memorial Day, among these were the graves of John Leech, whose death was caused by an accident in the yards of the P. R. R. Co., at Altoona, May 1st of last year, and Samuel Weber, who was laid to rest Wednesday of last week.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

As is usually the case, the memorial services at Boalsburg were largely attended. This is due to some extent to the fact that during the war there were so many enlistments from and near this place. The speaker for the occasion was D. Paul Fortney, Esq., one of the young and rising attorneys from Bellefonte. The Lemont band furnished the music.

The veterans and children led by the band marched to the cemetery where the thirty-three graves of soldiers were decorated. Since last Memorial Day the mound under which rests J. N. Dinges, was added.

Among the veterans in line was John Hook, the only survivor about Boalsburg of the "Penna Valley Cadets," an organization effected during the 40's. The flag of the Cadets floated to the front of Boal Hall. Jonathan Shaffer was the Captain of this organization, and on his removal to the west, George Kepner, of Ferguson township, became captain. One year before the Civil War the company was reorganized and assumed the name of "Cameron Infantry," with Robert McFarlane as captain. When the war broke out John Hook was the only one of the "Penna Valley Cadets" to enlist, joining Company G, 148th Regiment. Mr. Hook has possession of the flag.

When the Cadets flourished the Jonathan Shaffer property, now owned by Mrs. E. E. Brown, was used as an arsenal.

Spring Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. William Musser, of Columbia, are spending a few days with relatives and friends.

Quite a number of town people attended the Sunday-school Convention held at Penn Hall on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gramley, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Rossmann, Mr. and Mrs. John Rishel and daughter Lodie spent Sunday and Monday at Mifflinburg.

Miss Eleanor Long attended the Bergeon-Hopkins wedding at Howard on Wednesday.

Hon. W. M. Allison and Harry Allison spent Decoration Day at Pottery Mills.

R. G. Kennelly has gone to Snow Shoe to work at the carpenter trade.

Frank Hettinger is visiting A. J. Shook.

Two accidents occurred on Decoration evening. As the parade was forming to march from the Lutheran church to the Presbyterian cemetery, Edwin Graden, son of William Graden, stepped out into the road and was run over by James Finkle, who did not notice the lad. He was taken to Dr. Brauch's office in an unconscious condition. He revived in a short time, and as no bones are broken it is to be hoped no serious result will follow.

Mrs. W. M. Grove, daughter Besse and grand children, Margaret and William Zittle were driving to the cemetery, their horse took fright at an auto, opposite Joseph Sult's house, and backed the occupants over the bank, throwing them on the roof of the house, fortunately no one was hurt, the only bad result was a broken shaft of the buggy.

Potters Mills.

Clayton McKinney, of Altoona, spent Memorial Day with his wife and family.

Mrs. Ellen Burkholder is at present with her son Maurics on the Stiver farm.

Michael Smith and Emanuel Smith are paying their brother Luther, of Johnstown, a visit.

Caroline McCloskey plied the needle at the home of George Meiss last week.

George McCormick and wife spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Perry Broom at Centre Hall.

One more little stranger came to stay with Ed Sweetwood, making five. Dr. H. S. Brauch was the physician.

Miss Nellie Wilkinson, who is learning the millinery trade with her aunt, Mrs. Henry Wilkinson, in Mifflinburg, has come home to remain until the fall season opens.

Misses Ruth and Grace Bower spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Clayton McKinney. Miss Lohr, of Spring Mills, was also a guest of that lady.

Mrs. Kate Carson who was on the sick list is somewhat improved.

The ball game between Potters Mills and Spring Mills resulted in a score of 16 to 8 in favor of the latter. Wake up, boys; get busy.

Harry Harshbarger, of Spring Mills, spent Sunday at his home in Spruce-town.

Mrs. Jonas Boal and nephew William Foust, Mrs. Binnie Palmer and baby Mildred spent last Thursday at Colyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcellus Sankey took dinner at the home of Samuel Bitner one day last week.

THE ATLAS E-Z Seal Jar

(Lightning Trimmings)

is Ideal for Large Fruits

The day of the paring knife for halving and quartering large fruit is gone. Unless they're unusually large, peaches and pears go into the Atlas E-Z Seal Jar whole. That means beauty preserved as well as the quality; and later on you have the pleasure of serving fine, natural looking fruit to the family.

Your dealer keeps these perfect jars in stock and will be more than pleased to show you their advantages. Ask him to do so.

Remember—the Atlas E-Z Seal Wide Mouth Jar is stronger and smoother at the top than any other. It can't cut your hand—and it won't break when sealing.
