LOCALS

The third annual convention of the Pennsylvania Association of Postmasters was held Monday and Tuesday at McKeesport.

The Pink Label will appear next week. This notice is given so that any who wish to secure credit before the pink label is used may do so.

Messrs. C. A. Ripka and William Bower, both Potter township school directors, were in Centre Hall, Thursday of last week, to attend the teachers' examination.

The tuition due the Centre Hall school board from Potter township and individuals sums up almost three hundred dollars for the 1909-1910 term. The tuition for the High School will be refunded to the township by the state.

Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Snyder, accompanied by Miss Nina Snyder as delegate from the Centre Hall Mission Band, left Tuesday afternoon for Lewisburg, where they will attend the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary convention of the Central Pennsylvania Conference, United Evangelical church, in its sixteenth annual session.

A sucker weighing three and one-half pounds was captured by Albert Bradford, at the Red Mill, and this fine catch so elated him that he began advertising the products of the Red Mill. "Veri Best" flour is a brand of flour manufactured by Mr. Bradford, and he is making an effort to extend the trade of the mill in a general way. See his adv.

The Bellefonte Republican was so elated over the nomination of Charles E. Patton, of Clearfield county, for Congress, that it issued an extra edition on Monday. Everything is over now but the election, and since the Patton supporters openly declared they would not vote for Emery, the Emery supporters many fall in line for our William Heinle and in that case William goes to Washington.

A well is being drilled on the Alexander farm, west of Centre Hall, now under the management of Christ Alexander, executor of Mrs. Brown. The work is being done by Al. P. Krape, assisted by Arber Cummings. The water supply on this farm has been rather scant for a number of years, but it is proposed now to continue drilling until an unlimited supply is found.

Rebersburg.

Levi Wance is just recovering from a spell of sickness.

O. F. Stover has just returned from the Lock Haven hospital, where he had a finger amputated. Several weeks ago Mr. Stover received a severe kick from a colt on his finger, which became very painful, necessitating amputation.

Clarence Weber is at present spending his vacation in town under the parental roof.

Mrs. L. B. Frank and Mrs. Sarah Wolf are visiting at Selingsgrove.

Mrs. Thomas Brungart has been on the sick list during the past week.

On last Saturday Noah Brungart moved his sawmill to near Madisonburg.

Thomas Ocker is having a coat of paint applied to his dwelling house. A. E. Strayer, of Loganton, is doing the work.

Miss Jessie Gilmore is spending this week at Realsburg visiting relatives.

Miss Pat Faxton, who had the misfortune to fall off a lawn swing and sprain her ankle, is now hopping about on crutches.

Mrs. Lester Minich and son Stover, of Aaronsburg, spent the past week at this place with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Stover.

On Saturday evening the Odd Fellows of this place will decorate the graves of their deceased members.

One day last week the members of the Reformed church of this place greatly added to the appearance of the surroundings of their church by grading the same and placing fertile soil on the top. The ladies further beautified the spot by planting flowers, which when in full bloom will be greatly admired.

One day this week Rev. C. H. Wolf and family were called to Sugar valley to attend the funeral of Mrs. Wolf's mother, Mrs. James Bartges.

DEATHS.

WESLEY MYERS.

One of Boalsburg's prominent and well known citizens, Wesley Myers, died Monday. Interment was made Wednesday, Rev. A. A. Black pastor of the Reformed church officiating. Mr. Myers had been in poor health for a year or more, his affliction being diabetes, but his death was very unexpected.

Mr. Myers was born in Harris township, October 30, 1851, and was therefore aged fifty-nine years, less five months. He was the son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Weaver) Myers. Early in life he served an apprenticeship, with Daniel Moser, a tanner, in Boalsburg, and later engaged in booting business, but for some years he lived retired.

November 20th, 1872, Elizabeth Heintzleman, who survives him, became his wife, and to this union two children were born, namely, John Phillip, who died in 1896, while a student in Franklin and Marshall College; and Edward Heintzleman, who is engaged as a teacher in the McKeesport High School.

There also survives a sister, Mrs. A. V. Kline, of State College; and these brothers: William and Henry, of Alexandria; Daniel, of Boalsburg; and Frederick, of Fairbrook.

The deceased brothers and sisters are these: John, died in Boalsburg in 1884; Amos, fell on the battle field at Gettysburg; Mrs. Sarah Hummel, died in Millin county; Miss Mary died at Pine Grove Mills.

MRS. COOK C. CONDO.

Mrs. Cook C. Condo died Friday night at her home in Lock Haven, after an illness of a couple years duration. She was aged fifty-three years, six months, and seven days. The deceased had submitted to an operation a few months ago and it was hoped that the operation would be the means of restoration to health, but the fates willed it otherwise, and despite all that the best medical aid could do, the end came as above stated.

The deceased was a native of Miles township, and with her husband lived at Rebersburg prior to moving to Lock Haven. She was a member for years of the Lutheran church, and was at all times, when in health, found at her post of duty and willing to do all that she could for the Master's cause.

She was a faithful wife and loving mother and a friend who was always ready to assist the needy and relieve the wants of the suffering. She will be sadly missed in the home over which she, for years, presided, and her gentle manner and kind disposition will be a kind remembrance in the minds of her sorrowing family and friends.

She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. N. E. Weaver, of Lock Haven; by three brothers, W. J. Strayer, Buffalo, N. Y.; Samuel Strayer and Charles Strayer, Lock Haven; and by four sisters, Mrs. R. F. Brown, Lock Haven; Mrs. E. P. Mosser, Ashland, Ky.; Mrs. J. M. Adams, Wilson, and Miss Sallie Strayer, Philadelphia; also by her aged mother, Mrs. Levina Strayer, of Lock Haven.

Mrs. Mary M. Baker, widow of the late John B. Baker, of Howard, died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Robert Malone, in Snow Shoe, from infirmities due to her advanced age, which was seventy-six years.

Taylor Askey, who left Nittany Valley where he was born many years ago, died at Cold Stream, aged sixty three years. He lived in Phillipsburg for many years.

John T. Ammerman, who served in Company G, Fifty-first Regiment, and born at Eagleville, seventy-one years ago, died in Altoona. Nine children survive.

Note from Mill Hill.

Like in all other sections, there has been much rain fall at Mill Hill, but we think it is making hay for us. The cut worms are doing the corn considerable harm, and there is some complaint that a worm is working on the oats.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rossman, of Penns Cave, and Miss Helen Rishel, of Farmer's Mills, visited us, and also visited Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wohlfort, at Salona.

JUNE ON THE GREAT LAKES

Restful, delightful, interesting, and instructive, there is no trip like that on the Great Lakes, those inland seas which form the border line between the United States and Canada. And June is one of the most charming months in the year in which to take the trip.

For comfort the fine passenger steamships of the Anchor line have no superiors. As well-appointed as the palatial ocean greyhounds which plow the Atlantic, their schedule allows sufficient time at all stopping places to enable the traveler to see something of the great lake cities and to view in daylight the most distinctive sights of the lakes, and the scenery which frames them.

The trip through the Detroit River, and through Lake St. Clair, with its great ship canal in the middle of the lake, thence through Lake Huron, the locking of the steamer through the great locks at the Soo, and the passage of the Portage Entry, lake and canal, across the upper end of Michigan are novel and interesting features.

The voyage from Buffalo to Duluth covers over eleven hundred miles in the five days' journey. Leaving Buffalo, the steamships Juniata, Tionesta and Octorara, make stops at Erie, Cleveland, Detroit, Mackinac Island, the Soo, Marquette, Houghton and Hancock, and Duluth.

The 1910 season opened on May 31, when the Steamer Tionesta made her first sailing from Buffalo.

The Anchor line is the Great Lake Annex of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and the service measures up to the high standard set by the "Standard Railroad of America."

An illustrated folder, giving sailing dates of steamers, rates of fare, and other information is in course of preparation, and may be obtained when ready from any Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent, who is also prepared to book passengers who may desire to take this trip through the Great Lakes and back.
