Contrasts.

With a generation, the nation remembers three great welcomes before this of today-to General Grant in San Francisco, after his triumphal tour of the world, following the expiration of his two terms as President; to Admiral Dewey on his return from his capture of the Philippines and to William Jennings Bryan, also after a tour of the world. The welcome to Grant was the most tumultuous, that to Dewey the most elaborate and stately, but the welcome to Roosevelt was shot through with a dramatic expectancy, which long ago found popular expression in the typical phrase-"the return from Elba."
