LOCALS

Mrs. D. W. Bradford was in Rebersburg, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carlin.

Miss Ruth Thomas, one of the Reporter composers, spent her vacation at Avis and Nittany. At the latter place she was the guest of Miss Mary Allison.

Following his course of the past few years, Prof. John S. Hosterman, principal of the Montrose schools, is taking a special course in the Columbia University, New York City, to further fit himself for the profession of teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kreamer, of State College, were guests over Sunday of Miss Elsie Moore. Mrs. Kreamer will be better known as Miss Blanche Tressler. They expect to go to housekeeping shortly at State College.

Religious service will be held in Moyer's Grove, near Colyer, by Miss Minnie Kline, at the following hours: Saturday evening, 7:30 o'clock; Sunday morning, 10 o'clock; Sunday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, and Sunday evening, 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Kline were guests of Prof. and Mrs. P. H. Meyer, in Centre Hall, last week. The Klines and Meyers, while residents of Bellefonte were neighbors. The Klines are now residents of Dewart, where they are engaged in the poultry business.

Mrs. William Poorman, of Williamsport, while visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Dorman, of Nittany, was taken ill. Beginning of this week her condition improved to such an extent that her family is hopeful of her recovery. Mrs. Poorman is a sister of Mrs. L. G. Rearick, of Centre Hall.

S. V. Hosterman, Esq., and Mrs. Hosterman, accompanied by their son and daughter, are at the home of the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Hosterman, in Centre Hall. They are taking their summer vacation, and make frequent trips to the mountain for the benefit of the children as well as themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rice and son George Clifford Rice, of Reedsville, drove from that place to Centre Hall on Tuesday and for a few days remained at the Old Fort hotel, mainly for the benefit of the son. Mr. Rice is the senior member of the mercantile firm of Rice Brothers, who are doing an extensive business. He is an enthusiastic ball player, and holds a place in the Reedsville team that is doing fine work this season.

Dr. C. Stuart Runkle, accompanied by his sons John and Stuart, are at the home of the former's brother, John H. Runkle, east of Centre Hall, and will remain for the week. Dr. Runkle, who owns the D. C. Keller farm, is gradually improving the same, and in time will have it in the best of health and will also make it a delightful place to summer. Mrs. Runkle was at the Runkle place for about three weeks, and just returned a short time before her husband and the children came.

DEATHS:

Sydney Rossman Grove passed away at his home at Scotia, Thursday morning, July 7th, after an illness of six months. The young man had been working at the Scotia ore banks. On January 14th he fell from a trestle to the railroad, a distance of twenty feet. As first it was thought his back was broken, but later it was found that such was not the case. The injuries he received were of such a nature that he would never again be able to walk. All that medical aid could do was done, and the people of the community helped to care for him while he bore his sufferings patiently. He was born at Boalsburg June 5th, 1876, making his age thirty-four years, one month and two days. His parents were Samuel and Margaret Grove.
July 6, 1896, he was married to Miss Mary Brouse, of near Pine Grove Mills. They resided in Ferguson township until about five years ago, when they moved to Scotia. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church at Scotia Saturday morning, conducted by the Methodist minister, Rev. Frank, interment being made at Pine Grove Mills. Rev. David V. Brouse, of Warriors Mark, and the Methodist minister at Pine Grove, assisted at the burial service. He is survived by his wife and son Edgar; his parents, who reside at Pine Grove Mills; his sister, Mrs. Edith Lucas, of Boalsburg, and a brother, William Grove, of Altoona.

Died on Friday, 8th inst., at Portland Mills, Elk county, James P., infant son of Dr. P. W. and Minnie Leit zell, aged two years, two months and twenty-seven days. The remains were brought to Spring Mills, the following Monday, and interred in Heckman cemetery in the afternoon. The funeral was held from the residence of William Pealer.

Again are we called upon to mourn the loss of a dearly loved one, who has crossed the "dark waters" with less than three summers upon his fair brow. Never more shall we behold his smiling face nor hear his winning voice. All is hushed; all is still. Bitter tears will dew the earth that covers his mortal remains from human sight. Many times will his little grave be visited by his dearly loved ones, and there weep bitter tears that come not from the eyes. To the sad parents whose hearts are filled with grief and pain, let us point to that beautiful home beyond the stars, and persuade them to exclaim with us in the language of Him who died on Calvary, "Not thy will, O Father, but Thine be done."

Rev. Sylvanus Lane died at his home in Verma, near Ithaca, New York, Thursday night of last week, after a brief illness. About three weeks ago he was stricken with apoplexy while in the pulpit, and gradually grew worse until death came. Interment was made at Centre Hall, Tuesday afternoon from the home of his brother-in-law, William H. Stiver. His age was seventy years, eight months and twenty-two days.

Rev. Lane was a member of the Central New York Conference of the Methodist church, and he has two sons—William W. and Edward—in the ministry, both of whom accompanied the body to its last resting place. Mrs. Lane, whose maiden name was Martha Stiver, just returned from a hospital two days before her husband was taken sick. While she was unable to attend the burial, her condition is quite favorable.

Rev. Lane is a native of Westmoreland county.

Meeting of Cemetery Association.
A special meeting of the Reformed and Lutheran Cemetery Association will be held in the Lutheran church, Monday evening, for the purpose of adopting a plan whereby there may be secured a fund for the maintenance of the cemetery.

The Association requests lot owners to mow their lots as soon as possible. This is necessary owing to the great growth of grass during the past few months.

Pear Preserves How to Can Peaches
Handsome fresh fruits make handsome preserved fruits, only when they're canned whole—without either cutting or crushing.
The jar that has a mouth wide enough to admit all our best domestic fruits—peaches, pears, etc.—whole is the "Atlas E-Z Seal."
Therefore, the best results in preserving are possible only when you use the Atlas E-Z Seal Jar.
Buy these jars of your dealer before the fruit season comes on and be ready to preserve appearance as well as quality.
The Atlas E-Z Seal Jar is extra quality glass; smooth on top and an instant sealer.
