LOCALS

Prof. John Adam Young Hall six or seven years ago.

the crop will also begin to suffer soon.

The lot on which the Howard canning factory was located was purchased at public sale by W. H. Thompson. The brick, scrap iron, etc., remains of the burned building, the boiler and engine were also sold. The sale netted $575, and the funds will be applied to liquidating the debt of the company.

Col. and Mrs. John W. Stuart drove from State College to Centre Hall on Monday, and for the day were the guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs. They are interested in the poultry business, and while here visited the Kerlin and Bartholomew farms with a view of gaining information of the business.

The plastering is being removed from the exterior of the court house, so that it may be replastered to better conform to the new portion of the building. The plastering will also be removed from the large columns to the front of the court house, and these will be given new coats of mud and be made to appear as new.

The August Everybody's Magazine is a fortunate combination of delightful summer fiction with articles of wide interest and true importance. As pertinent to the coming campaign, Frederick C. Howe contributes, under the title, "Ask Your Congressman,' a suggestion of real practicality looking toward the betterment of national conditions.

Members of regiments who participated in the battle of Gettysburg will be entitled to free transportation to the battlefields at the time of the dedication of the state monument. September 27th. Each soldier who is entitled to this benefit, should send Mrs. McKinney. his name and address to the Gettysburg Battlefield Memorial Commission, at Philadelphia, box 533.

Daniel Callahan, who for a number of years has been a tenant on one the she expects to visit for a month. Gregg farms west of Centre Hall, which was recently sold and next Station, are spending their vacation Spring will be occupied by the owner, is looking about for a farm, and has some notion of going to Nittany Valley. Mr. Callahan is an industrious young farmer, and has been doing vicinity. very well on the farm on which he is now located.

The Reporter don't want to make any one vain, nor is it bidding for bouquets, but Centre Hall has just a bit the prettiest girls in Central Pennsylvania. Please don't make the mistake and believe that the Reporter is admiring flippancy and not real beauty as found in the youthful. If any parents feel like showering gold pieces at the editor for these remarks. he begs them to refrain from it-send them to the Bellefonte hospital.

The second Thursday of August is the time set for the annual picnic of the people of Millheim. At the gathering last year the following officers were elected : President, J. H. Hoffman ; secretary, H. N. Meyer treasurer, S. Ward Gramley; and the following advisory committee: Dr. G. S. Frank, A. Walter, J. H. Maize, E. H. Auman, J. H. B. Hartman and W. F. Smith. All citizens of town and vicinity are requested to join in mak. ing this pienic a success.

No one ought to be shocked too much at the action of friends of the liquor interests in Ohio. The death of one man added to the hundreds of thousands who have already yielded their lives that a few men might accumulate wealth in a business, although lawful, that no self-respecting man/can engage in. No one need go to Qaio, either, to see to what measures the liquor people and their supporters will resort to to accomplish their ends. From leading children close by paths of prostitution with the hope of ultimately gaining nickles and dimes for the grog till, it is not far to become a murderer, and the latter is the least

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reiber and children and Charles McCrorey, of Johnstown, are in the valley for a week's stay. Mr. Reiber and Mr. Crorey are toth employed with the city electric light and power company. They are traveling in the latter's automobile, and while they are making headquarters at the home of William Reiber, near Colyer, and D. L Bartges, south of Centre Hall, much of the time is spent in traveling to local points of interest to Mr. Crorey, wto is making his first trip to this section. This is a most delightful season of the year to travel through the country, and th's little party is erjoying it to its fullest extent.

A forcible illustration of the result of the reckless bandling of fire arms was enacted when, on Monday afternoon, Russell Smith, who is spending was the summer with his grandparents, again re-elected principal of the Lock Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith, in Centre Haven High School. Prof. Young Hall, came down from the mountain held a similar position in Centre with a bullet hole through his left hand. The lad, with another boy, A cow belonging to R. C. Palmer, of Musser Coldren, were on the mountain near Linden Hall, was killed by light- together and give out the story that ning striking it. The animal was in a strange young man, on crossing the a field when struck. D. M. Cole, of mountain, had shot young Smith, State College, also lost six cows in the who is thirteen years old. This story is not believed, however, as the facts The Freeport (Illinois) Bulletin states surrounding the incident and the the cry among farmers, in that sec- actions of the boys on reaching home tion, is for rain. Hay is about three- do not bear it out. Coldren, just fourths of a crop; oats condition is before going to the mountain, pureighty-five per cent. The corn is yet chased a number of cartridges, and in good condition but there are fears since it is known that one of the boys owned a revolver in which these cartridges could be used, it is presumed the boys were handling the weapon and that it was accidentally discharged, the result being as noted Edward Bubb, for on that day they,

> On reaching town, the injured lad went to a doctor's office and had the wound dressed before going home.

> > The Grain in Shock,

The wheat has all been cut and shocked, and much has already been housed in the barns. The crop was very much better than was anticipated, although there were parts of almost every field, mostly in low places, where the wheat had entirely disappeared, and a rank growth of timothy was cut in its stead. The grain stood up well during the heading season, and developed large heads, well filled with plump berries.

Since the grain has been cut, the fields show a very heavy and uniform set of clover to be growing on them.

With a splendid hay crop in the barns, a very fair wheat crop in shock, the best oats and barley crops growing in a number of years, and corn making a showy and promising appearance, the farmer is beginning to feel that his hard, continuous toil has not been in vain.

It never pays to be narrow-minded, uncharitable or vindictive. It is well enough to have a few vigilant foes, but friends are far more useful.

I Am So Happy Because Cook

without scorching or burning food in my new "1892" Pure Aluminum Sauce Pan. It's so light in weight and looks like silver-but it doesn't tarnish-no enamel to chip off into food;-and, say, it cooks in one-fourth of the time ordinarily required (but don't tell the Gas Company.)

"See that Maltese Cross?" Well, "See that Maltese Cross?" Well, that is "1892" Pure Aluminum, and if it doesn't give perfect service for 15 years I can have my money back. Your only protection to get absolutely pure Aluminum cooking utensils is to insist on the Maltese Cross. It is the mark of purity.

Tuesday of last week will be a day long remembered by the children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Just the thing for your "Best" together with a few neighbors, gathered at the Bubb home to celebrate the forty-ninth birthday of the mother. An elegant dinner was served, and Mrs. Bubb was presented with a number of handsome gifts. The family was arranged in a group, and Elmer Miller brought into play his camera, and made a picture of the whole family. The children present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. William Searson and family, of near State College; Mr. and Mrs. John E Bubb and family, of this place; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Horner and family, of Peru; Mr. and Mrs. Rush Dippery and family, of Yeagertown; Harris, William and Walter Bubb, of this Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly stop falling of the hair. Indeed, we believe it will always do this unless there is some disturbance of the general health. Then, a constitutional medicine may be necessary. Consult your physician about this. Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle Show it to your doctor

The reason why Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair is because it first destroys the germs which cause this trouble. After this is done, nature soon brings about a full recovery, restoring the hair and scalp to a perfectly healthy condition. -Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass,---
