DEATHS.

George L. Ebbs, a former Centre countian, died at his home in Oklahoma. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it evidently was quite sudden as so far as can be learned his friends did not even know of his serious illness.

He was about fifty-two years of age and was born near Loveville, this county, his parents being James and Elizabeth Ebbs. Most of his life was spent in Halfmoon township though some years ago he spent a brief time in Oklahoma. After returning east he lived on the Ebbs homestead near Loveville until April first, this year, when he went west again. He was a prominent Granger and well known through Centre and Huntingdon counties. He is survived by a wife and several children, one brother and two sisters.

Mr. Ebbs was one of the most prominent and active men in his community. He was a graduate of Pennsylvania State College, and those about him profited from his intelligence. He was an active member of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry, and his good counsel was a valuable asset to its various branches of business.

The following is from an Illinois newspaper:

Rachel Susan Roop was born in Millin county, Pa., July 20, 1838. She was married to Isaac Spicher, September 14, 1864, and came to Elwood, April 13, 1883. She died June 29 of heart trouble.

There survive her besides her aged husband, the following children: Thomas R., of Joliet; Maggie C., wife of George Redden, of Jackson; A. Leekie, of Mobile, Ala.; Winifred E., wife of Charles M. Sweetwood, of Elwood, and William F., of Joliet.

The surviving husband is the brother of the late John Spicher, of Centre Hall, and also of Miss Kate Spicher and Michael Spicher, of Pleasant Gap.

Mrs. Lillian C. Radel, wife of G. W. Radel, station agent at Coburn, died at her home at Coburn. She was born in Northumberland county, February 2, 1863, and is survived by her husband and these children: Francis M., of Newberry; Eugene E., of Millersburg; George W., of Dalmatia; Mrs. W. J. Daniel, of Elizabethtown; Mrs. T. F. Corman, of Scalp Level; Meta, Rebecca, Tryphena and Ada, at home. Interment was made at Elizabethtown, Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder and Rev. Heilman officiating.

Mrs. Iva Susanna Morrison, wife of Elmer S. Morrison, died at her home in Altoona after an illness of seven weeks. She was a daughter of Irvin and Clara Treaster and was born in Centre county on May 22nd, 1890. Several years ago she was married to Mr. Morrison and shortly thereafter they went to make their home in Altoona. In addition to her husband she is survived by one little daughter, Margaret; her mother, one brother and four sisters.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Delaney, of Hubersburg, sincerely sympathize with them in the death of their only son, Ralph, a bright little boy two years of age. His death was the result of being badly scalded by falling into a bucket of hot water, which was followed by a severe attack of cholera infantum. The funeral was held on Wednesday of last week. Rev. H. I. Crow officiated and burial was made in the Hubersburg cemetery.

Oak Hall.

From last week.

Misses Claudia and Verna Snyder, Gertrude Homan and Lavon Ferree attended a picnic given by the Misses Gierlich, east of town on Saturday. Miss Ella Dale spent last Thursday at Bellefonte.

Mrs. Arthur Peters accompanied by her children and sister, Miss Everts, visited friends at Lemont on Thursday.

Mrs. Ada Benner was a guest of Mrs. Ira Korman on Wednesday.

Miss Margaret Ferree went to Pennsylvania Furnace Friday to have her eyes treated by Dr. Houser.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Dale and granddaughter, Ruth Miller, visited Mrs. Newton Miller at the Bellefonte hospital on Wednesday, and report her condition favorable.

W. H. Close transacted business in Bellefonte on Thursday. Miss Gertrude Ketchline, of Pine Grove Mills, was a welcome visitor at Sunny Hillside Sunday and Monday.

Dysentery is a dangerous disease but can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been successfully used in nine epidemics of dysentery. It has never been known to fail. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and when reduced with water and sweetened, it is pleasant to take. Sold by Murray and Bitner.

LOCALS.

Monday afternoon Mrs. C. F. Shaw went to Lewistown to remain with her husband for a short time.

Russell Dietz, a student in Girard College, Philadelphia, is spending a part of his vacation with his aunt, Mrs. B. Gardner Grove, east of Centre Hall. He entered the institution from Howard.

While hauling in grain, Frank A. Ewing, a farmer of near Beaver Springs, found a package of matches tied up in paper and packed in a sheaf. They were placed there with malicious intent is the opinion of Mr. Ewing.

Dr. George P. and Mrs. Bible were in Centre Hall for a day or two last week, guests of Miss Anna Bible. They came here from Bellefonte, where they are temporarily staying with their daughter, Mrs. Blair. In a short time Dr. Bible will again go on a lecturing tour.

Before leaving for South Dakota, John A. Hosterman sold a fat bull and three fat steers to Butcher Gettig. The bull weighed 1680 pounds, which at six cents per pound, netted $100.80. That is a pretty snug sum of money, and some years ago would have looked like the proceeds of a drove of fat bulls.

From the Watchman: Mr. I. Gardner has begun work on tearing down the building on Howard street for several years past used as the Midway school building, for the purpose of erecting a comfortable residence thereon. An entire new brick front will be built but the rear portion of the old building will be utilized as a part of the house.

The stable of Rev. H. S. Deltzel, at Pleasant Unity, was struck by lightning and burned, together with a buggy, harness and feed, valued at $125.00, the property of the minister. His driving horse was in a pasture lot that night nearby the stable, but was not injured. The members of the congregation made up a purse, which was large enough to reimburse the pastor, and presented it to him.

Messrs. F. A. Heckman and A. J. Weaver, of Tusseyville, were two prominent south side farmers who found business in Centre Hall last week. Mr. Weaver was pleased to mention that his brother, Newton S. Weaver, of Philadelphia, was with him, and that since being here his general health has improved very much. He is restaurateur, and is located on sixth street.

The pink label appears this week. If you have paid subscription between July 11th and August 2nd, you will find your label changed for the first time on this issue. If an error has been made, please report at once; do not wait a day, but report immediately. Errors are easily traced when attention is promptly called to them; a week, a month or more later, it will require considerable effort to do the same thing.

Among the Reporter's callers, last week, was S. M. Litzell, who with his wife and daughter are spending their vacation in Centre Hall and Potter township, at the homes of James B. Spangler and William W. Spangler, and among other friends. Mr. Litzell is in the civil service department at the National Capital, and he is sure that conditions are much improved under this service as compared with the method of "to the victor belongs the spoils." When he first went to Washington, Mr. Litzell entered the Weather bureau division of the Agricultural Department. His position now is of very much more importance, and his advancements were accomplished by complying with the regulations of the system he upholds.

Station agent W. L. Campbell was transferred to Coburn, and took charge of the Coburn office Tuesday. He will move his family to that place in a week or ten days. We very much regret to lose Mr. Campbell, as he was an obliging agent and a good citizen. Jacob Lee, of Linden Hall, took his place here as station agent.

Henry Royer and Mrs. Max Foutz, of Altoona, were guests at the home of John Meyer a few days last week.

Prof. Charles H. Auman, assistant principal of the Bellefonte high school, and Miss Margaret Helen Srecker, of Bellefonte, were married last Wednesday. Prof. Auman is one of the Spring Mills boys, and we beg to wish him smooth sailing over life's ocean.

You May Need It

Ask your doctor about the wisdom of your keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, ready for colds, coughs, croup, bronchitis. If he says it's all right, then get a bottle of it at once. Why not show a little foresight in such matters? Early treatment, early cure.

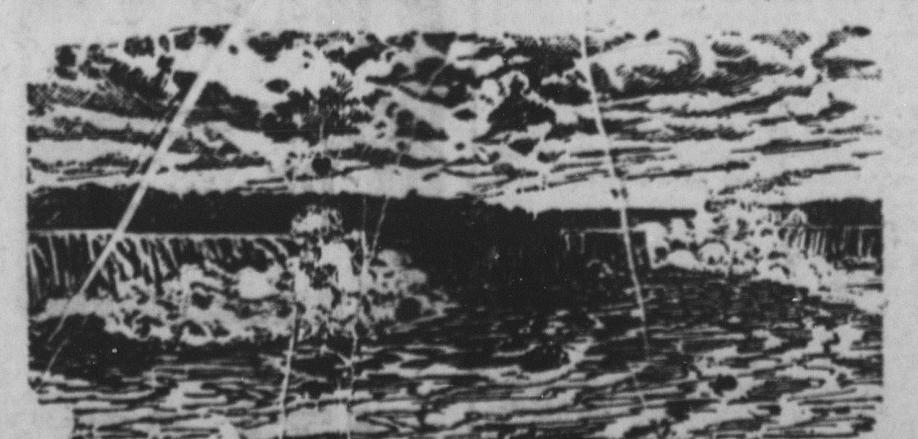

We publish our formulae. We have a stock of our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor.

Many a boy is called dull and stupid, when the whole trouble is due to a lazy liver. We firmly believe your own doctor will tell you that an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills will do such boys a great deal of good. They keep the liver active.
