County Grange at Milesburg.

The Centre County Pomona Grange will meet in the hall of the Bald Eagle Grange, at Milesburg, Thursday, ten o'clock, August 18th.

Spring Mills.

The medicine show in Corman's lot has been the latest attraction in town for the last week. It especially attracts a class of people that claim they are too tired to go to church or Sunday-school.

The stork visited the home of H. I. Brian, on Friday, and left a bouncing baby boy.

Prof. Chas. H. Auman, of Bellefonte, who just returned from his honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls, was a guest at the parental home in town over Sunday.

A. S. Dornblawer, of Hagerstown, Md., spent a few days in town tuning pianos. He is an expert piano tuner.

C. E. Zsigler and family spent last Tuesday at Rebersburg.

Boyd S. Auman, representative of the Underwood Travel System, on Friday returned home from a week's business trip to Altoona.

S. L. Condo delivered two new bugles to Nittany Valley last week.

Messrs. Kline and Edwin Royer, of Rebersburg, were guests at the home of Charles Sechrist, over Sunday.

Mrs. Reese Herr and daughter, Miss Reese, and Mrs. Margaret Brown, of Indianapolis, Ind., and Clark M. Gramley and wife, of Rebersburg, were guests at the home of C. E. Zsigler, on Sunday.

S. G. Burrell and wife, of Millheim, were guests at the home of John Hornor, on Sunday.

Miss Ethel Harter, of Rebersburg, was a guest at the home of D. M. McCool, last Saturday.

Mrs. George Rachau and children, of Sunbury, were Spring Mills visitors a few days last week.

M. H. Fyke, of Johnstown, was a visitor at the home of S. L. Condo, on Saturday.

Master Richard Lantz has been on the sick list for the last week but is now on the mend.

J. H. Meyer and wife spent Sunday at Rebersburg.

Miss Refna Shires and brother Drew spent last week visiting friends at Lewistown.

Mrs. James Parkenson, of Jackson, Michigan, and Arthur Yeager, and sister Miss Elizabeth, of Shamokin, were guests at the home of W. L. Campbell, over Sunday.

Harvey Brian is putting in the foundation for his new house on the lot he recently purchased near the railroad station.

M. Shires and wife spent Sunday visiting friends at Potters Mills.

Master Clyde Coldren, of Huntingdon, was a visitor at the home of Mrs. Margaret Ruhl, a few days last week.

Station Agent William Rossman, of Oak Hall, spent Sunday with his parents in town.

The parties who of late are making a practice of dynamiting the fish in Penns Creek, between town and Farmers Mills, had better go slow as they are known.

Mrs. Florence Rearick, last week, spent a few days at the home of her brother, Charles A. Krape, in town. Mrs. Rearick was enroute from South Carolina to a point in the state of Washington, where she purchased a home and contemplates making her future home.

Spring Mills.

Walter Yeager and sister, Elizabeth, of Shamokin, are visiting at the home of their uncle, W. L. Campbell, and also at the home of C. P. Long.

Word was received by C. E. Royer of the serious illness of his daughter-in-law, wife of Rev. Victor Royer, of Mercersburg. Mr. Royer left for that place Friday, and on his return brought the two eldest children along with him.

The Pennsylvania railroad officials have decided to remove station agent W. L. Campbell to Coburn. The community loses one of its best citizens and we are sorry to see Mr. Campbell and his family leave town.

Misses Mabel Allison and Orpha Gramley are camping with a party of friends in the Allegheny mountains.

Rev. Caris and family visited his parents in Madisonburg.

C. P. Long and wife spent a week in Nittany Valley.

The Taylor farm, purchased some time ago by George W. Bradford, from Col. John Taylor, of Reedsville, has again become the property of the latter. The deal was made by Mr. Bradford, retaining four and one-half acres lying next to the Grove property and railroad, the line intersecting the turnpike, between the thorough line and the farm barn. The Taylor farm has been tenanted by the Bradford family since 1883, when William Bradford moved there from Harris township. He was followed as tenant by his son, W. Frank Bradford, and later by an elder brother, George W. Bradford, and he was succeeded by a son, William Bradford, Jr., the present tenant. The farm is one of the most productive in the valley, the soil being of a natural high quality.

DEATHS.

progress and help was scarce. "On January 8, 1867, in Millburg, Mr. Keller was united in marriage with Miss Charlotte Kieckner, who was born in Union county, in November, 1844, a daughter of David and Esther (Wingard) Kieckner. She is the youngest in a family of nine girls, all of whom were school teachers with the exception of herself and eldest sister.

"For eight years after his marriage, Mr. Keller rented the home farm, and then purchased 112 acres of the same for $100 per acre. In 1877 he erected his present substantial brick residence; has made many other valuable improvements upon the place, and now has a highly cultivated tract of 116 acres. He is a man of more than ordinary business capacity, is shrewd and energetic, and of the strictest integrity. In connection with his farming operations he is also secretary of the Centre County Mutual Insurance Co., which office he has now held for three years, while he was president of the company eight years and vice president three years. He is also a member of the Penna Valley Banking Co. at Centre Hall, and in business circles stands deservedly high.

"Politically, Mr Keller has always been a firm supporter of the Democratic party, and his fellow citizens recognizing his worth and ability have elected him to various official positions of honor and trust, including those of school director, overseer of the poor, tax collector, assessor and registration assessor. For eighteen years he has been a member of the registration board, and was elected justice of the peace, but refused to qualify. Both himself and wife are earnest and active members of the Reformed church, and during the erection of their new church, which was completed in 1896, he was a member of the building committee; and at one time he took a very active part in Sabbath-school work. Socially, he affiliates with the Grange and the Masonic fraternity. Understanding the advantages to be derived from a good education, he has provided his children with excellent opportunities along that line, so that they might be fitted for any position in life. He is one of the most progressive and wide-awake business men of Potter township, but is unassuming and in no way seeks notoriety. He is a worthy representative of one of the most illustrious and popular families of Centre county, and is universally held in high esteem."

Mr. Keller is survived by one sister, Mrs. John W. Conley, a younger sister, Maggie, who married Levi Murray, is deceased.

The children of Mr. Keller are these: Esther E., who died in infancy; Annie M., wife of Frank M. Fisher, at Penn Hall; David K., of near Centre Hall; Rev. John H., of Hickory, North Carolina; Christian D., on the homestead, and William F., of Centre Hall.

Several years ago Mr. Keller made disposition of his real estate, selling all of it to his sons, Christian D., and William F., thus insuring the Keller homestead to remain in the hands of his descendants.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS

Will be held at Egg Hill by Rev. B. F. Campbell from August 16 to August 28.

Special summer evangelistic meetings will be held in the United Evangelical church, at Egg Hill, on the Centre Hall charge, beginning Tuesday evening, August 16th, and continuing each evening to and including August 28th, conducted by Evangelist B. F. Campbell and the pastor.

B. F. CAMPBELL

Come and invite your friends to come and lend a helping hand.

Rev. Campbell is an interdenominational evangelist, endowed with superior tact and talent. His sermons are logical presentations of the doctrines of the Bible, accompanied with the demonstration of the spirit and with power. You are cordially invited to come and hear him.

S. A. SNYDER, Pastor.

Gibbony Accepts.

D. Clarence Gibbony has accepted the nomination and will run for Lieutenant Governor on the third party or Keystone ticket. He is out in a strong letter of acceptance.

His statement, defining his position regarding the issues of the campaign and his reasons for remaining on the ticket, is a ringing call to the citizens of Pennsylvania to rally to the banner of the Keystone party and to take this opportunity at defeating the corrupt political machine.

When the digestion is all right, the action of the bowels regular, there is a natural craving and relish for food. When this is lacking you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They strengthen the digestive organs, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Sold by Murray and Bitner.

You May Need It

Ask your doctor about the wisdom of your keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, ready for colds, coughs, croup, bronchitis. If he says it's all right, then get a bottle of it at once. Why not show a little foresight in such matters? Early treatment, early cure.

Many a boy is called dull and stupid, when the whole trouble is due to a lazy liver. We firmly believe your own doctor will tell you that an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills will do such boys a great deal of good. They keep the liver active.
