Estella Mae Brungart, Rebersburg
Robert Davison, Philipsburg
Isabel Edgar, Philipsburg

LOCALS.

Leslie Miller, one of John T. Noll's employes, beginning of this week, painted the large porch recently erected by Mrs. Mary Ross.

A familiar figure seen on the streets of Bellefonte, is Col. E. B. Chambers, who has recovered from a serious illness, and is again beginning the practice of law.

Mrs. S. W. Barr, of Tyrone, stopped with her brother, William H. Stiver, in Centre Hall, for a few days this week. She just returned from the home of her sister, who recently underwent an operation.

Miss Edith Sankey returned from Missouri, where she spent several months with her sister, Mrs. Frank Worrell. She is now at Coburn, with her brother Marcellus A. Sankey. It is her intention to spend the winter in Philadelphia at the Drexel Institute.

Dr. Calvin F. Smith, of Indianapolis, Indiana, was an arrival at Centre Hall on Tuesday, and from here went to Centre Hill where he will remain for a short time with his father, Peter Smith. Mrs. Smith and her daughter, Mrs. Thomas, are also at the Smith home.

George B. Baker, of Trevorton, and Miss Viola R. Baker, of Millersburg, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Whitman, in Centre Hall. Mr. Baker followed the baking business for many years, and for a period of seventeen years missed scarcely any time from his business. He is now living retired.

The Spring Mills Grange held an adjourned session in Grange Arcadia, Centre Hall, on Saturday afternoon, at which time nine new members were admitted to the order, the conferring of degrees having been done by members of Progress Grange. A number of members of the Spring Mills Grange accompanied the candidates to this place, where they were heartily received by the members of the local order.

J. M. Stiffler, of Freeport, Illinois, is in the East, and with Daniel Daup was a caller at this office on Tuesday. Mr. Stiffler has been wonderfully successful in agricultural pursuits, although not actively engaged in it at this time, and he attributes his success to thoroughness in everything he undertakes. The summer has been dry in his section of Illinois, yet crop conditions were very good when he left home.

A few weeks ago mention was made of a call at this office by John A. Hosterman, of Centre Hill, on his way to South Dakota. His stay in that state was brief, but yet long enough to become impressed sufficiently to come to the conclusion to make that state his future home. Mr. Hosterman is tenant on the large farm belonging to W. H. Meyer, of Centre Hall, and is one of a class of farmers who do things thoroughly. There is little doubt but that South Dakota is presenting fine opportunities for farmers of the type of Mr. Hosterman. He will be accompanied by his son-in-law, Frank Confer, who lives with him on the Meyer farm.

An illustration of the benefits of patronizing home trade was forcibly illustrated to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Bellefonte hospital when they undertook to furnish what is known as the Centre Hall room. A particular chair was wanted, and a price was secured from a mail order house. It then dawned on the good ladies that it would at least be fair to first consult the local furniture dealer, Mr. Rearick, and secure his price on the same chair. This was done, and it was somewhat of a surprise when he stated that the piece of furniture would be delivered at Centre Hall for several dollars less than was asked for it in Chicago, and in addition the dealer donated several dollars to the hospital. This was not all, for he delivered the goods at the hospital, and because he received spot cash a further discount was made. In almost every instance the experience with mail order houses would be the same as that had by the ladies mentioned. Of course, this advice is to the profit of all local dealers wherever the Reporter circulates, but, and here is the peculiar condition, these dealers are not always as considerate as they would wish their customers to be, for many of them do not have an account with the Reporter for advertising. Mr. Rearick has, however,

LOCALS.

Miss Mary Horner, of Pleasant Gap, is employed in the Milroy knitting factory.

Hon. W. H. Berry will be at a picnic in McFarlane's grove, near Boalsburg, Friday of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Meyer and daughter Miriam, of Reedsville, were the guests of relatives in Centre Hall over Sunday.

After a short stay at Atlantic City, Miss Taey Kreamer, of Johnstown, is at the home of her father, Merchant H. W. Kreamer, in Centre Hall.

Mrs. Lucina E. Lingle, of Sunbury, and Mrs. Puella K. Clemens, of Lewisburg, spent several days with friends at Centre Hall, and relatives at Millheim.

Miss Bessie Royer, the little daughter of William Royer, an employe of the Bellefonte Republican, is the guest of her little friend, Miss Rebecca Kreamer, in Centre Hall.

Mrs. Mary Peters, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Sarah Williams, of State College; Mrs. Samuel Weaver, Mrs. John Glenn and Mrs. Tabitha Bribbin, of Lemont; and Mrs. Chaney Hicklen, of Bellefonte, were entertained last week by Mrs. George O. Benner, in Centre Hall.

Mrs. J. B. Thomas, of Indianapolis, Indiana, and her cousin, Miss Nora B. Smith, of Lamar, were callers Wednesday morning. The ladies are stopping at the home of the former's grandfather, Peter Smith, at Centre Hill. Miss Smith is one of Clinton county's public school teachers, and has been engaged to teach at Clintondale during the coming term.

Sunday evening there was a bit of a flurry in Centre Hall caused by a telephone message from Bellefonte to the effect that two suspicious characters were on their way to this place. The pair were a negro and a white, and were discovered lurking on top of Nittany Mountain. They passed off without molesting any one.

When the digestion is all right, the action of the bowels regular, there is a natural craving and relish for food. When this is lacking you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They strengthen the digestive organs, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Sold by Murray and Bitner.

Progress Grange will meet in regular session, Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. Prof. C. R. Neff, principal of the Centre Hall High School, will speak on the subject "Changes in the school laws that will benefit rural communities." Every member of the order should make an effort to be present, as Mr. Neff's talk will be highly instructive.

The Lock Haven State Normal School has had gratifying success, both as a training school for teachers and as a preparatory school for such students as desire to go to college. Its home life is particularly attractive to its students and patrons. Probably no other feature has contributed so much to its success. Parents realize that their children are well taken care of, both morally and educationally. Reference is made to this fact because the burning question with most parents is chiefly the one bearing upon the advantages any school offers in the way of safe guarding and developing the characters of its pupils. The splendid patronage that this ideally located school now has is the best assurance of its worth as an institution of learning. It issues a beautiful catalog which will be sent free to any one writing for it. Rooms are now being reserved for the fall term beginning September 6th.

At that Harrisburg meeting of Democratic leaders, where harmony was arranged for in the campaign now on, Mr. Berry is said to have been the only distributor of the peace. He asked that the primary ballots be prepared so that the people could vote instructions. That was an awful sin, for in New York City, some months before, Mr. Hall, Mr. Guffey and others had slated Mr. Munson as the harmony (?) candidate, and to permit the voters to select their own candidate might interfere with this harmony (?) program.

There was objection on the part of the bosses to permit instructions to be voted at the primaries, but finally they agreed to the proposition. When the delegates assembled, the instructed delegates were greatly in minority, and then the bosses pointed to Mr. Berry and said he could not secure instructed delegates. That was true, for in most counties, Centre county included, the ballots were printed to prevent instructions. Not a single voter in many of the counties in the state could have voted instructions no matter how much they would have desired to do so.

The harmony meeting gave Mr. Berry his way, but they were careful to see that their agreement was not carried out.

Be sure to take a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with you when starting on your trip this summer. It cannot be obtained on board the trains or steamers. Changes of water and climate often cause sudden attacks of diarrhoea, and it best to be prepared. Sold by Murray and Bitner.

Witmer-Brungart.

William Calvin Witmer, of near Bellefonte, and Miss Estella Mae Brungart, of Rebersburg, were married at the Lutheran parsonage, at Aaronsburg, by Rev. B. R. M. Staeger, Wednesday of last week.

Spring Mills.

Jacob Lee, the new station agent, moved his goods to town on Tuesday. Philip Carls, of Madisonburg, was a guest at the home of his son, Rev. D. C. Carls, on Monday.

Miss Blanche Dunlap is spending a few days visiting friends at Sober.

B. F. Kennelly, on Monday, while working around a planer, accidentally got his hand in the machine and as a result had a few fingers badly lacerated.

Butcher Meyer and J. A. Wagner as yet hold the championship as quill pitchers. As soon as "Bill's" nerves become normal again a challenge will be extended to the west end of town.

The uncertainty of the automobile was experienced by Ambrose Genzler, who on Saturday autoed from Shamokin to town, and on Monday, when he wanted to start home, his machine balked and he worked at it all that day and on Tuesday all day, and yet it balked. A machine in its balking stage is enough to try any man's religion.

Georgos Valley.

Miss Ella Decker spent Saturday with friends in Centre Hall.

William Lingle and family, of Tusseyville, visited at the home of W. P. Lingle on Sunday.

Mrs. S. L. Shilling and Mrs. S. E. Norris, of Milroy, visited at the home of the former's aunt, Mrs. James Foush, over Sunday.

Miss Abbie Barger, of State College, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barger, for several days last week. Rev. H. A. Snook dined at the home of F. M. Ackerman.

F. M. Acker, the artistic painter, is adding more beauty to the already beautiful home of A. N. Finkle by painting the same.

Mrs. Oliver Zettle and children returned home last Saturday after a week's visit in Union county.

Leroy and James Searson, accompanied by Mrs. Peter Isbler and three sons, Fred, Russell and George, went to Philadelphia about a week ago, and from there to Atlantic City. The Searson boys visited their aunt, Mrs. Irvin Stover, in Philadelphia, and returned Wednesday.

There is No Plow Superior TO THE "Syracuse" Riding Plow

It plows the same depth all day long; sticks to the ground in stormy soil; can be well handled on rocky hillsides. It leaves no dead furrows to wash; will throw the soil up hill better than any other plow made; it is strong enough to do its work, yet not clumsy. It is made for two or three horses.

The "New Idea" Manure Spreader Does its Work To Perfection

There are many of them in use, and every machine is giving satisfaction. The draft is light, yet no other spreader will do the work as well. The wear and tear has been reduced to the minimum in the New Idea.
