

THE IMPORTANCE OF HEALTHY KIDNEYS.

Weak kidneys fail to remove poisons from the blood, and they are the cause of backache, headache, urinary troubles and dizzy spells. To insure good health keep the kidneys well. Doan's Kidney Pills remove all kidney ills.

Mrs. Sophia Hultquist, 10 W. 16th St., Jamestown, N. Y., says: "Doctor said I could not live six months. I was bloated to twice normal size and friends could not recognize me. I was perfectly helpless and wished for death. Rapid improvement took place after I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, and in six weeks I was cured."

Sign of Recovery.
"If when the devil is sick a monk he will be," said Rose Stahl sagely, "then the devil gets well in double quick time. Witness that young 'devil' with the ladies," my kid cousin. Last winter he was ill, so ill he didn't have any sense of humor left nor any sense either. I was staying at the same hotel, and when I went in to look after him he virtuously remarked that his room was no place for a 'Chorus Lady' and promptly shooed me out. (A few years ago I spanked that kid.) Then he got scared and sent for a doctor and the doctor sent for a trained nurse. For several days I got bulletins of his progress from the chambermaid. The fourth morning she set my mind completely at rest.
"Sure, ma'am," said Maggie, "an' I think he do be gettin' along very well. The nurse was sittin' on his lap this mornin'!"

KEEP BABY'S SKIN CLEAR

Few parents realize how many estimable lives have been embittered and social and business success prevented by serious skin affections which so often result from the neglect of minor eruptions in infancy and childhood. With but a little care and the use of the proper emollients, baby's skin and hair may be preserved, purified and beautified, minor eruptions prevented from becoming chronic and torturing, disfiguring rashes, itchings, irritations and chafings dispelled.
To this end, nothing is so pure, so sweet, so speedily effective as the constant use of Cuticura Soap, assisted, when necessary, by Cuticura Ointment. Send to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., sole proprietors, Boston, for their free 32-page Cuticura Book, telling all about the care and treatment of the skin.

"Bjornstjerne Bjornson, in his hotel fronting the Tuorieris gardens, received a few friends up to the last in Paris," said the continental agent of a typewriter firm.

"I had the honor to be among those friends and I never wearied of the great Norseman's wit and wisdom."
"The last thing he said to me, in cautioning me not to give an important provincial agency to an easy-going man of the world, was this:

"Beware the easy-going man. An easy-going man, you know, is one who makes the path of life very rough and difficult for somebody else."

Better Than a Drug.
"The late Senator Platt," said an Albany legislator, "had a cynical wit. Talking about a politician who had changed his party, he once said to me:

"Circumstances alter everything—political views, religion, even health."
"Why, I've got a friend who is afflicted with insomnia in its worst form, and yet every morning that man sleeps as sweet and sound as a new-born babe when his wife crawls over him to start the fire."

Bores Barred.
A reporter asked Mr. Roosevelt at the Outlook office how he got through so much work and at the same time saw so many people. "I shun bores," was the reply. "I don't waste a minute of my time on bores. Do you perceive that I have only just one chair in this room? You see, my hunting experiences have shown me that great bores are always of small caliber."

TO DRIVE OUT MALARIA AND BUILD UP THE SYSTEM
Take the Old Standard QUININE TABLETS (GILLESPIE'S TONIC). You know what you are taking. The formula is plainly printed on every bottle, showing it is simply Quinine and Iron in a tasteless form. The Quinine drives out the malarial and the Iron builds up the system. Sold by all dealers for 30 years. Price 50 cents.

IMPROVED HORSE FEED BAG

Is Attached to Collar and Gives Animal Perfect Freedom of Its Head.

An improved type of feed bag for horses has been designed by an Illinois man. Instead of being hung over the head, as the old style bag, it is attached to the collar and held in place under the horse's nose. A bar, hinged in two parts, has one part adaptable to fastening to the collar and the other part with an attachment for the canvas bag. When this is adjusted the horse has perfect freedom to move his head and does not have to go through contortions to get the feed which remains in the bottom of the bag after that within easy reach has been eaten. In the old style bag, after the horse had eaten the top feed, he was obliged to press the bottom of the receptacle against something to get his nose down to the remainder. Or, as was more often the case, he would toss his head to fling up the oats and the result would be that a large portion of his lunch would be spilled. On the saving of wasted feed alone the invention here shown is entitled to respect.

GOOD CURRYCOMB AND BRUSH

Combination That Makes an Excellent Device for Caring for Faithful Horse.

The automobile threatens to put the horse out of business, but improvements in the methods of caring for the faithful animal are still being made, says Popular Mechanics. The illustration shows a device recently brought to the attention of the United States army. It consists of a combined currycomb and horse brush. The upper view shows it opened so that the brush may follow the comb over the horse. The lower sketch shows the brush folded back to allow the use of either currycomb or brush separately.

GOOD HORSE BUYING POINT

Animal Should Not Have Too Much Daylight Between Hind Legs—Its Main Pulling Strength.

BY C. MILLER.
Father taught me one rule about buying a horse which I have always observed and I find it works out right every time. He said never buy a horse that shows too much daylight between his hind legs—that is if he seems to be split up too high you may be sure that he lacks power. A horse's main pulling strength comes from his hind legs and back and he should be low on the ground. He also taught me never to buy a horse which had the tendency to stand on the toes of his hind feet because such horses will invariably go stiff and lame in time. A good draft horse must stand flat on the ground. His feet must be large and his legs flat and his muscles supple.

Give Animals Shade.

All animals should be protected by shade during the hot weather. Temporary rough shelters may be made of poles and brush or straw and placed on poor spots in the field, and the extra droppings from the animals will make these poor places rich. Manure left under shade trees is nearly all wasted.

Sheep Suffer in Sun.

Sheep suffer much in hot weather when compelled to pasture in the hot sun all day. If there are no shade trees in the pasture, make temporary shades at different points in the pasture, covering them with straw, weeds, brush, or any rough material that will protect from the hot sun.

Feeding Hogs.

Fattening hogs should not be made to wait for their feed. Regularity in feeding is essential.

SECURES WATER FROM DRAIN

Farmer Didn't Want to Bear Expense of Drilling Well, So Constructed Cement Trough.

I have a large pasture in which there is no natural water, writes Scott Adams in Farm and Home. I did not want to go to the expense of drilling a well, so I dug a hole over the drain that runs through the field. I constructed a little trough with a cement bottom and sides of wood. The water of the drain runs through this. I built a fence around it to keep stock from falling in, and once a day I dip water out of this into the tank nearby.

WEAN PIGS AT PROPER TIME

Much Depends Upon Their Thrift, Season of Year, Accommodation and Their Feed.

BY W. H. UNDERWOOD.
The age at which pigs can be weaned is indefinite. The time depends largely upon their thrift, the season of the year, the accommodation and the feed on which they are raised. I do not consider it advisable to wean pigs before they are two months old. I prefer more, to less age.

I generally wean my early pigs in May, as I like to raise fall litters from a portion of the sows. Sows can ordinarily be bred within a week after the pigs are taken away.

Sows that farrow in June will be too late to breed for fall farrow. It has been my custom to let these run with the sows until they wean themselves.

I prefer to have my sows with litters in as small bunches as possible plenty of grass for each sow. If they are thus divided, and any of the pigs get out of order, you at once know what litter it is, and feed accordingly.

Watch the little pigs closely and if they look thin and hungry see that their mother is better fed and swilled. As it is next to impossible to raise a litter of pigs without some of them getting the scours at one time or another, I will give my treatment for this ailment, which has proven successful to me.

I watch them closely, and if any of them are too loose at the next feeding I dissolve a teaspoonful of copperas in a little warm water and feed it to the sow in her swill. If the first dose does not prove effective, I give another the following day.

When the pigs get from two to four weeks old I fence off a corner in the yard, where the dam cannot go, and give the pigs all the shelled corn they will eat.

As soon as they are accustomed to coming for the corn I begin by feeding a little fresh milk diluted one-half with water. I begin with one cupful and increase the amount as they learn to drink.

As the stomach of a little pig is as sensitive and delicate as that of a child it is very important that no milk is left in the trough from the previous feed as it tends to sour the trough and the new milk.

After I have the pigs eating and drinking, so they will come when called and their stomach thoroughly accustomed to the feed they are ready to wean.

LIVE STOCK NOTES

Armed with alfalfa and corn, the stockman can simply do anything. A sheep must produce a variety of products if it is to be most profitable. The essential requisites for a working horse are good size, quick action and strength.

Keep a pair of nippers handy to snip off the sharp points of a sucking pig's teeth.

In proportion to its size, the horse has a smaller stomach than any other quadruped.

Grub flies worry the sheep in hot weather. Provide a dark, cool shed or let them run in thick underbrush.

It weakens the horses to keep them shut up in a close stable during the hot nights. Turn them out.

Every effort should be made to have the stock enter the winter in good flesh and heat.

It does not pay to give water in dirty vessels to any farm animal. Hogs are no exception.

Pasture is the cheapest pork producer and the longer the season of pasturage may be provided, the better. A poor appetite in any farm animal is greatly against its doing its best, no matter where it is working.

COMMERCIAL

Weekly Review of Trade and Market Reports.

Readstreet's says: Increased arrivals of fall buyers and a measurable increase in house trade resulting from favorable weather are features reported at leading Western and Eastern markets. Heaviest buying is, however, by converters and manufacturers, and jobbing sales are mainly of small quantities, for which buyers see ready sale. Retail trade shows relatively less expansion, awaiting, apparently, a freer movement of crops to market, though retail business has been greatly stimulated at Chicago by a largely attended convention of a leading fraternal order at that city.

Among the industries, iron and steel are quiet; the quietest of the year, in fact, according to leading trade authorities. Estimates of iron ore shipments on the lakes tend to decrease. Finished lines of iron and steel are not greatly changed. Demand for material from automobile manufacturers is quieter. In cotton goods there is an increased firmness noted, widespread curtailment and high raw material price making holders less inclined to consider any but top prices.

In the building industry the pause indicated in early preliminary reports is confirmed by later advices. The lumber trade is quiet and some price concessions are noted.

Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is in for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a fault finder.

Selfish Youth.
"Youth is apt to be selfish," said Mrs. Mary E. Wilkins-Freeman, the distinguished novelist, at a Matuchen picnic.

"Woman in her youth," she went on, "is especially apt to be selfish. I'll never forget the story of the young man from Boston who stood in the center of Boston common in a down-pour of torrential rain.

"As he stood there, soaked to the skin, a little boy in a mackintosh accosted him.

"Excuse me, sir," said the boy, "but are you the gentleman who is waiting for Miss Endicott?"

"Yes," the young man answered.

"Well," said the boy, "she asked me to tell you she'd be here just as soon as it clears up."

Rockefeller's Hard Shot.
John D. Rockefeller tried a game of golf on the links near Augusta. On a rather difficult shot Mr. Rockefeller struck too low with his iron, and as the dust flew up he asked his caddy: "What have I hit?"

Tuberculosis in the Prisons.
The fact that 100,000 prisoners are discharged from the jails and prisons of the country annually, and that from 10 to 15 per cent. of them have tuberculosis, makes the problem of providing special places for their treatment while they are confined a serious one. So important is the problem that the Prison Association of New York in co-operation with the State Charities Aid Association, is preparing to inaugurate a special campaign for the prevention of tuberculosis in the penal institutions of the state, and will seek to enlist the co-operation of all prison physicians and antituberculosis societies in this work.
