

GEORGE W. SMITH KILLED.

Ran Down by Automobile in the Streets in Bellefonte Saturday Afternoon.

While walking on the streets of Bellefonte, at a point near Keichline's store, at the railroad station, Saturday afternoon, George W. Smith was struck by an automobile and so badly injured that he died during the following night. His injuries were numerous, the bones in his legs were broken, ribs were crushed in, and an ugly wound was made on his head. Mr. Smith was very frail, having been in delicate health for more than twenty years, but was able to walk about and spend much of his time in doing so. He was making his Saturday afternoon round when the accident happened.

A young man named Hagerly, of Coalport, was running the machine which struck Mr. Smith. The Hagerly machine carried baseball enthusiasts, who came down on that afternoon to witness the game in Bellefonte.

Mr. Smith was the son of Emanuel Smith, deceased, and was raised on the Mitchell farm, east of Centre Hall. He was past sixty-seven years old, having been born June 5th, 1843. He was a veteran of the Civil War, having served in Company E, Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry.

The deceased is survived by a wife, nee Elizabeth Beck, and one daughter, Miss Emma, at home, also a sister, Mrs. Sarah Homan, of Millheim; and three brothers: Isaac, Penna Cave; Andrew, Mackeyville; William H. Madisonburg; Howard, Snyderdortown; James, Pittsburg; Benjamin F., Philadelphia.

The funeral was held Tuesday morning, Rev. Barry, pastor of the Lutheran church officiating. Interment was made in Bellefonte.

Birthday Party.

The home of Howard I. Foust, of near Spring Mills, was the scene of a birthday party Wednesday evening of last week, and all the participants enjoyed the occasion greatly. Mr. Foust did not realize that it was his birthday until his friends put him high up in the air. The evening was spent playing games, etc., and the refreshments played an important part. Mr. Foust returns thanks for the numerous presents presented him. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Foust, Adia, Chester and Charles Foust, Mr. and Mrs. James Reeder and daughter Laura, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cummings and daughter Edna, Margaret Auckerman, Mr. and Mrs. William Sweeney, Mrs. Mary Edleman, Mr. and Mrs. James McCool, Mattie McCool, Mrs. S. C. Brungart and daughter Emelyn, Sara Barger, Mary Lingle, Susan Davis, Mrs. Henry Lingle, Edward Lingle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zettle, Roy, Tenechie and Bonie Zettle, Martha Long and daughter Ailene, Loyd Ripka, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Neese, Paul Neese, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foreman, Mary, Esther, Guy and Jay Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slack, Fred and John Slack, Mrs. Sarah Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Bungalow, Helen Engard, Jessie A. Springer, Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner, Mrs. Arthur Grove, Paul Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Witmer Grove, Thomas and Harrison Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Goodhart, and two daughters, Herbert and John Goodhart, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jamison, Guy and Miller Jamison, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Lingle, Miriam, Gladys and Grace Lingle, J. L. Foust, Susan Davis, Bessie Davis and son Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoy, Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, Fred Stiffler, Boyd and Clark Stover, Herbert Swartz Thomas Taylor, Frank Yearick.

Grangers at Centre Hall.

For the Patrons of Husbandry Exhibition at Centre Hall, September 10 to 16, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell special excursion tickets to Centre Hall from stations in Pennsylvania, and from Baltimore and Elmira at reduced fares (minimum fare 25 cents.) Tickets will be sold September 9 to 16; good to return to reach original starting point not later than September 19.

Delic-Wagner.

The marriage of William O. Dale and Miss Mary M. Wagner, both of Houserville, was consummated Wednesday, August 18th, at the home of the bride in the presence of the immediate families of the principals, by Rev. S. A. Snyder, of Centre Hall.

A dozen or more young chickens were swiped from the pens of J. W. Mitterling in Centre Hall.

LOCALS.

A regular meeting of Progress Grange will be held Saturday afternoon.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. S. A. Snyder, Friday evening.

Miss Verna Rowe, is at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Stump, near Millheim.

The Hagen force of carpenters began the frame work of the Mitterling dwelling house, on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nearhood and daughter Verna, drove to Lemont on Sunday where they visited Mrs. Nearhood's brother, Grant Meyer.

John W. Conley lost one of his gray horses on Tuesday. He was hauling manure, when the animal pitched and fell, and shortly afterwards died.

Miss Anna M. Piper, of Alexandria, is the guest of Miss Rebecca Barrick, the two having formed a friendship when the Barrick family lived in Alexandria.

Mrs. Thomas L. Moore and children are at Elysburg where they are visiting Mrs. Moore's mother and sisters. Her brother, Fred Christine and wife are also east at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Goodhart and children are in Centre Hall visiting among their friends. Mr. Goodhart's stay will be very short, but his wife and children will remain for a longer time.

Hon. Leonard Rhone attended the Williams Grove picnic on Tuesday and Wednesday, and hurried home to arrange for the opening of the Grange Encampment and Fair, on Saturday a week.

Friday of last week the thermometer registered thirty-nine degrees, seven above freezing. In some localities a light frost was visible, but no damage was done.

Bring your exhibits to Grange Park as early as possible. The committee will be ready to receive them on Friday and Saturday, 9 a. m. and 10 a. m. This will give the committee an opportunity to better arrange the exhibits, and avoid to some extent the great rush on Monday and Tuesday.

John A. Heckman has leased the Dr. Lieb farm, east of Centre Hall, and after April 1st, or thereabouts, he will succeed John A. Corman as tenant. Mr. Heckman is a good farmer, pays close attention to business, and is altogether reliable in every way. The Lieb farm is quite a large one, but not too large for one of Mr. Heckman's make up to successfully handle.

Messrs. Frank O. Moyer and Raymond Bates, the former of Cleveland, and the latter of Kipton, Ohio, are guests at the home of Mrs. Mary Rearker, where Mr. Moyer's mother and sisters are also staying at present. He is a stenographer in the office of an oil company. Mr. Bates is a machinist, and accompanied Mr. Moyer to the home of the latter's grandmother with, so it is said, a double purpose, one being to see the rugged hills of old Pennsylvania.

Aaron P. Zrby, of Bellefonte, and David K. Keller, of near Centre Hall, were callers at this office Monday morning. Mr. Zrby just returned from a visit to Millin county, and he was pleased to report the crops in that section very good, yet dry at this time. Mr. Keller recently made a trip through Clearfield county on business pertaining to the fire insurance company of which he is secretary, and does not give such a glowing report of agricultural conditions there. The drought is much more severe in Clearfield than it is in Centre county.

During the absence of Mrs. Kate Dale and her sister, Miss Mollie Hofer, on Monday night, some one entered their home through the back door and searched the house throughout. So far nothing has been missed. The work was evidently that of local talent. Chickens and roasting ears have also been disappearing in various sections in town of late. The only remedy for these "gentlemen" is to land a load of shot in their bodies midway between the neck and heel. This kind of work by a local thief should not be tolerated, and a shot gun will be the cheapest and most effective remedy.

Henry Zeigler, of Abdera, accompanied by his nephew, Emanuel H. Zeigler, of Madisonburg, were guests of J. D. Murray, at the Bitner home in Centre Hall, on Monday. Mr. Zeigler and Mr. Murray are cousins, and are both nearing their eighty-fifth milestones. They were boys together in the vicinity of the Murray school house, in upper Brush Valley. From here the Zeiglers drove to Houserville, where they visited Mrs. Jacob Houser, who is past ninety years old. She is a sister of Mr. Murray, and, of course, is also a cousin of Mr. Zeigler. On their return they stopped, with Prof. C. B. Neff, west of Centre Hall.

Rev. C. F. Stover Elected.

Rev. S. C. Stover, of Myersdale, was elected pastor of the Bolsburg Reformed church, consisting of Bolsburg, Pine Grove, Pine Hill and Houserville congregations. Based on the action of the several congregations, the joint consistory will meet at Bolsburg and declare Rev. Stover duly elected, and at the same time prepared a call, which call it is thought will be accepted.

DEATHS.

Cholera Infantum, that dreaded disease, took from this world Esther Challinor, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Swabb, of near Tusseyville, aged six months and two days. Interment was made at Zion Hill, on Tuesday forenoon, Rev. S. A. Snyder, pastor of the United Evangelical church officiating.

William H. Moke, a veteran of the Civil War, and at one time postmaster at Lemont, died at the home of his daughter at State College, Sunday evening. He was aged seventy-five years, eight months and twenty-three days. Interment was made at Houserville on Wednesday, Rev. S. A. Snyder officiating. Mrs. D. F. Smith, a daughter, of State College, and John Mokie, a son, of Howard, survive.

To Nominate State Senator.

The Centre and Clearfield Democratic county committees will meet today [Thursday] to place in nomination a candidate for State Senator, to fill the vacancy caused by the withdrawal of Senator Dimeling. Fred G. Bates, of Clearfield, is spoken of for the place.

Potters Mills.

Alda Wilkinson and daughter Annie, of Harrisburg, are spending a few weeks with the former's brother, John Wilkins.

Messrs. Frank McCoy and Loyd Smith returned from a trip to Atlantic City and Philadelphia on Saturday and report having had a grand time.

Mrs. Kessler and daughters Grace and Verna are spending some time with the former's daughter, Mrs. Clayton McKinney.

Mrs. William Bower royally entertained a number of her friends on Monday. They were: Mr. and Mrs. George Landis, Mrs. H. S. Alexander, Mrs. Clayton McKinney and children, Mrs. Kessler and daughters.

Dr. H. S. Alexander, F. A. Carson, Thomas Palmer, Michael Smith and wife, Ashbridge Thomas and wife, and Clifford Thomas and wife attended the picnic at Bolsburg.

John McNitt, of Milroy was in town Sunday.

Windom Gramley, wife and son John called on friends at this place Sunday evening.

Ashbridge Thomas and wife spent a day in Lewisport.

Milton Stiffler, of Freeport, Illinois, returned home after spending a month with his sister, Mrs. William Bower and other friends.

Joseph Carson is on the sick list, suffering with a severe attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. H. S. Alexander and son Hugh, spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Geiss Wagner.

A picnic was held at the Kohler place, on Friday, composed of the following families: William and Clayton McKinney, Dr. Alexander, George Landis, wife and son and sister Sallie, William Bower and family, George McCormick, wife and mother, William Kessler and daughter, of Richmond, Virginia, Arch Moyer and sister Ellis, Frank McCoy, John Bitner, J. O. Stover.

There is No Plow Superior TO THE "Syracuse" Riding Plow

It plows the same depth all day long; sticks to the ground in stormy soil; can be well handled on rocky hill-sides. It leaves no dead furrows to wash; will throw the soil up hill better than any other plow made; it is strong enough to do its work, yet not clumsy. It is made for two or three horses.

The "New Idea" Manure Spreader Does its Work To Perfection

There are many of them in use, and every machine is giving satisfaction. The draft is light, yet no other spreader will do the work as well. The wear and tear has been reduced to the minimum in the New Idea.

THE OLDS GASOLINE ENGINES

have many superior qualities. The cut here represents the 4-A Hopper Jacket Engine. From the material that enters into it to the smallest detail, the engine is superior in quality. The Olds Engines are built in all sizes. Ask for a descriptive catalogue.

There is no farm machine or implement that we do not handle.
