Transfers of Real Estate.

Thomas Allen to Theodore D. Boal, September 5, 1910, tract of land in Harris twp. $2500.

Jane R. Irvin et al to W. A. Ferree, August 22, 1910, tract of land in College twp. $1500.

Peter Martin to A. D. Cox, September 6, 1910, tract of land in Liberty twp. $160.

C. F. Williams et ux to J. W. Cartwright et ux, August 20, 1910, tract of land in Mifflensburg. $490.

G. P. Geuzel et ux to Jacob Auman, September 23, 1899, tract of land in Penn twp. $150.

William L. Foster et al to J. W. Stuart, August 17, 1910, tract of land in State College. $200.

Last week the Grangers held their largest picnic in a number of years, yet it was the quietest of any ever held. There was not a particle of disturbance in any part of the town. There was almost total absence of drunkenness, and the behavior on the streets was a marked contrast to that of former years. There were no indecent exposures on the streets, no drunken women to attract attention, no boys in their teens staggering drunk. There is a reason for all this good behavior on the part of thousands who came to Centre Hall, and the citizens of this town should not again be a party to aid in debauching of the young, nor place temptation in the way of the more mature. If other localities think they must continue to tolerate places to dispense intoxicants, let them do so to their shame, but as for dear old Centre Hall, let its good citizens see that its skirts are clear.

DEATHS.

Samuel Iigon, one of Sugar Valley's best known citizens, died of tetanus, caused by an injury from a rusty nail. Anti-toxine was used, but no good results followed. His age was seventy-six years. A wife, two sons and two daughters survive. Interment was made at Boonville, Rev. J. M. Rearick, of Salona, and Rev. Rose, of Loganton, officiating.

M. R. Moyer, a former resident of Loganton, where he was reared, died at a sanitarium at Chicago, aged sixty-nine years. He was an invalid for a number of years. Deceased was a brother of Squire W. F. Moyer, of Loganton, and was a son of the late Dr. Jonathan F. Moyer.

Joseph Foster McKibben, born in Centre county in 1824, died in Freeport, Illinois, aged over eighty-six years. He and Mrs. McKibben, who died several years ago, moved from this county to Illinois about 1845. Eight children survive, all located in the west.

Mrs. Joseph B. Mingle, of State College, died at the Bellefonte hospital, aged forty-two years. She was the daughter of Henry Norris, of Fillmore. The husband and six children survive. Interment was made at Pine Hall.
