LOCALS.

Ralph Musser, of near State College, who is attending school at Lemont, was in Centre Hall Saturday evening.

If you want to buy a cream separator, buy a Reed, it is the best; the easiest running machine in the world, and can be fastened on the wall with brackets—for sale by George E. Broom, Centre Hall.

Ammon Burkholder returned to Phillipsburg, New Jersey, after a week's vacation. He is a brakeman on a freight at present, but is looking forward to becoming a conductor on a passenger train, and is now on the regulation way of attaining that position.

Some farmers are cutting their stubble fields and are making hay of rank growth of clover. There are many fields in which the clover is more than a foot high. It is a question with the farmers whether it is advisable to cut it or leave it on the fields to rot down during the winter.

To show the immensity of the Allentown fair a few figures are quoted: Receipts at the gate, $69,000; sauerkraut consumed, twenty tons; frankfurters and other meats eaten, 60,000 pounds; attendance on Thursday, 40,000; enough beer consumed to make a river.

General James A. Beaver is back from Asia Minor and North Africa where he made a trip inspecting mission fields. He left the states about three months ago, his objective point being Edinburgh, to attend a missionary conference. The General returned home in fine physical condition.

"Can't be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by Murray and Bitner.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Henney, of Latrobe, are in Centre Hall with friends, and are also spending some time at the old home at Potters Mills. Mr. Henney is employed in the rolling department of the Railway Steel Spring Company's work, and is engaged in rolling locomotive tires. They expect to remain in the valley for a week or two.

A swarm of bees took possession of the store of I. Boyer & Son, Lock Haven, Monday afternoon last, and remained in possession until Tuesday morning, when they were smoked out. During Monday night they camped in one of the display windows in which there were a number of watermelons, and they remained.

Dr. and Mrs. Christ Sharer, of Reading, motored to Centre Hall by the way of Sunbury and Lewisburg, arriving at the home of Dr. H. F. Bitner Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Sharer will be recalled as Mrs. Christ Murray, who after Mr. Murray's death remained at the home of J. D. Murray, in this place. They returned to Reading via Lewisburg on Monday.

The proposition to change the rural free delivery mail system from a salaried to a contract job is naturally meeting with opposition from the carriers, who were in state session at Williamsport recently where the topic was the principal subject of discussion. The change is desired, it is said, because of the deficit of $8,000,000 charged off to the rural free delivery account.

On his way from Reading to Pittsburgh, Robert Keller, son of P. F. Keller, stopped off at Centre Hall for a few days the beginning of this week. He is engaged with a firm that manufactures and places in position store fixtures, and was in Reading helping to fit out a store. In a few weeks he will be in New York, where his firm has shipped several car loads of fixtures to be installed in a drugstore in the great subway railway station.

Peter O. Strickler, of near Mifflinburg, will not be punished for having caused the death of George Riesel, last June, by striking him in the face with his fist when in the Commercial Hotel, in Mifflinburg, owing in part to the charge against Strickler having been made for murder and voluntary manslaughter. Riesel, at the time he was struck, was drunk. The jury deliberated but one hour and then reported not guilty, having been unable to lower the degree of the crime to that of involuntary manslaughter.

PLEASE NOTE

After October 1st The Centre Reporter will be mailed to no one as a subscriber whose subscription is not paid up to within twelve months. Bills will hereafter be mailed monthly to all who are in arrears ten months.

This change is due to a post-office ruling forbidding newspapers to be mailed to subscribers who are in arrears more than twelve months.

Not a drop of Alcohol

Doctors prescribe very little, if any, alcohol these days. They prefer strong tonics and alteratives. This is all in keeping with modern medical science. It explains why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is now made entirely free from alcohol. Ask your doctor. Follow his advice.

Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing headache, biliousness, nausea, dyspepsia. We wish you would ask your doctor about correcting your constipation by taking laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
