

SECOND WEEK OF COURT

Opens Monday to Hear Civil Cases—Bit of Work Done Last Week.

Court opened promptly on Monday morning for the second week of the September session.

Edith White vs. J. A. Hazel, James Carson and Clement Dale; to prove title to personal property; verdict in favor of defendants.

The suit of Williams and Rhone vs. the administratrix of John R. Martin, deceased, to recover a balance on a check, resulted in a verdict of $10.00 in favor of the undertakers.

D. H. Shively, admr. of Sallie E. Gray, secured a verdict against the executors of John F. Gray, in the sum of $685.75 on a note given by Mr. Gray during his life time. The First National Bank of State College also secured a verdict against the same on a note in the sum of $469, and Ella Gray, vs. the same, secured a verdict on two notes for $613.82.

In the Haag Hotel Morris Yeager picked up a twenty dollar bill, which later was claimed by Abe Baum. Yeager claimed Baum had not established sufficient proof, and refused to return the money, whereupon he was found guilty, but recommended to the extreme mercy of the court.

The case of I. J. Dreese, admr. of J. B. Ard, vs. J. N. Everts, was continued.

Agnes M. Grove vs. Wm. L. Grove, executor of Nathan Grove, secured a verdict for $858.39 on a note.

Wagner Saves Carson Dwelling House.

A fire destroyed the outbuildings on the farm of Merchant F. A. Carson, in Georges Valley, Sunday night, and the dwelling house was saved from destruction by sheer accident. On their return from services Sunday evening, John H. Wagner, his son and son-in-law, Elmer Stump, saw a light across the fields, and believing it at Carson's, they at once took a short cut for the scene. When they arrived the outbuildings, consisting of an ice house, wood house, etc., were afire. The newsmen aroused the tenant, James Harshberger and family, who were sound asleep, and then set to work to extinguish the flames, which was done with much difficulty. The dwelling house took fire several times, but each time the flames were successfully battled against.

How the fire originated no one knows. It appears the ice house took fire first. This building was the most distant from the dwelling house.

E. P. Shook Badly Hurt.

Emanuel P. Shook, of Spring Mills, was badly hurt by a fall from a ladder, Friday noon, and is at present in a very serious condition at the home of his brother, George Shook, along Brush Mountain, north of Spring Mills. His suffering has been lessened, but he is yet unable to move, only his left leg and arms. His spine, right leg and breast received the greatest injuries.

Mr. Shook was picking apples from a ladder which turned, his fall being over twenty-five feet. He was alone in the orchard, and lay there for about a half hour before he was found.

The Pink Label.

The Pink Label appears this week. This indicates that all persons who paid subscriptions between August 30 and October 4th have credits given on their label for the first time. Do not fail to examine your label, and if an error has been made report at once; do not wait a day. Where no month is indicated the month of July is implied.

Millinery Opening.

The opening of the millinery store of Mrs. Lucy Henney, at Centre Hall, will be on Thursday and Friday, October 13th and 14th. This will be a real opening, with a large line of reasonable goods for headwear, embracing the latest styles for the elderly, the young and the middle aged.

It is the wisdom in the selection of goods on the part of the proprietress of this store that makes Mrs. Henney's millinery establishment most valuable to its numerous customers throughout Centre county. There is an aggregation of goods purchased to suit the needs of the trade, not forgetting the peculiar needs of many individuals. Style without quality is too often seen in headgear, but Mrs. Henney's goods will have both style and quality.

It is scarcely necessary to refer to prices in announcing an opening of an establishment as old and reliable as that of Mrs. Henney's, yet it might be well to say that the same style and quality of goods cannot be duplicated anywhere in Centre county. The same low prices prevailing heretofore will again rule.

Remember the opening days—Thursday and Friday, October 13th and 14th. No trouble to show goods. Come early.

DEATHS.

John G. Hess, one of Pine Grove Mills best known and most aged citizens, died Monday evening from causes due to age, having been some eighty years old. Interment was made at Pine Grove Mills, Wednesday morning. He is survived by his wife, who before marriage was Miss Sarah Rhone, sister of Hon. Leonard Rhone, of Centre Hall, and one daughter, Viola, wife of Charles Smith, of Madira, Ohio. Also two sisters, namely Mrs. (Rev.) W. H. Groh, of Carlisle, and Mrs. H. Y. Stitzer, of Bellefonte. Three brothers are dead.

Mr. Hess was a native of Harris township, where in the early history of Boalsburg his father was a hatter. Mr. Hess took up the trade of coach building, and conducted that business for many years in Pine Grove Mills. He was postmaster at Pine Grove Mills during several Republican administrations, and during his active business life was prominently connected with the local affairs of that community.

Isaac Spicher, formerly of Penns Valley, but for many years a citizen of Ellwood, Illinois, died on September 29th, in the hospital at Joliet, Illinois, after a long illness of dropsy and other ailments due to old age. The sad circumstances surrounding his death are that his wife died and was buried just three months from his death and burial, she having died June 29th.

He is survived by three sons and two daughters, namely, Thomas, of Joliet, Illinois; Leckie, of Mobile, Alabama; Mrs. Maggie Redding, Mrs. Winifred Sweetwood, and William, of near Ellwood, Illinois. The deceased was also a brother of the late John Spicher, of Centre Hall, deceased, and of Michael Spicher, of Pleasant Gap. His surviving sisters are Mrs. Sarah Snyder, of Centre Hall, and Miss Catherine Spicher, Pleasant Gap.

Mrs. Annie Marie Stambach, relict of Elias Stambach, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kizzie E. Swabb, in Aaronsburg, Friday of last week. Up to within six months she had been in pretty good health, but at that time she began to fail, and gradually became weaker until the end came. She will be greatly missed, being of a kind disposition she had a good word for everyone. Interment was made on Sunday in the Lutheran cemetery at Aaronsburg, her pastor, Rev. E. E. Haney, officiating, assisted by Rev. Dice.

Seven children survive, namely, Mrs. Harriet Stover and Charles, York; Jerome, Mrs. Victoria Casler, Hollisopple; Mrs. Kizzie E. Swabb, Aaronsburg; Albert, Lock Haven. Twenty-four grandchildren also survive.

By the Boalsburg Correspondent.

Tobias Page, whose illness was mentioned last week, died at the home of his nephew, S. M. Bell, in Boalsburg, Saturday at the midnight hour, aged eighty-five years, two months and five days. He spent the greater part of his life in Juniata county, where his wife died. One sister, Mr. Bell's mother, is still living there. In his boyhood days Mr. Bell was cared for by his uncle, and now in return he proved his gratitude to him by doing every kindness to him during the time he stayed with him, a period of ten years.

Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church, at Boalsburg, on Tuesday forenoon, and interment made in the cemetery adjoining the church. Rev. J. I. Stonypher conducted the services.

Anthony Wayne Gardner, a prominent and well-known citizen of Bald Eagle Valley, died at his home in Howard. Interment was made at Blanchard on Saturday.

Jenkins David died at Snow Shoe aged forty-four years. He was a contractor and lived at Snow Shoe for a number of years. A wife and three children survive.

LETTERS FROM SUBSCRIBERS.

Reporter Subscribers Correspondent Column—New Department.

From Sunbury, Mrs. William Lingle writes the Reporter thus: We have moved from Spruce street to South River Avenue, where we have a very pleasant home. We cannot do without the Reporter, and are always glad to read the news from good old Centre county.

LOCALS.

The section of country about York is experiencing a drought.

The C. P. Long Company, of Spring Mills, is advertising for apples.

This is October, the month in which the corn and pumpkins are husked.

Mrs. H. D. Slagel, of Spring Mill, paid her father, John Carson, at Ocoola, a visit, returning home Saturday.

D. W. Bradford is attending the Bellefonte fair this week in the interest of the DeLaval cream separators.

With all the rains and fine growing weather during the past season, the pumpkin is a total failure in this section.

E. S. Kinch, of Strattonville, on his return from Gettysburg, stopped with his nephew, Isaac Smith, in Centre Hall.

Mrs. H. E. Homan, of Centre Hall, is in Altoona, where she has been visiting her mother during the past ten days.

Surveyor William M. Grove, of Spring Mills, is now doing work for the state in Clearfield county, in the vicinity of Pennfield.

Here is October 6th and no killing frost. Even the tender pumpkinless pumpkin vine has not been frosted, but is as green as ever.

Mrs. John Kreamer made a trip to Pittsburg, last week, and took with her the little Bitts girl, who was left with her mother in that city.

WANTED—Hand-picked fall and winter apples; also, drop and cider apples. Highest price paid for them.—Centre Hall Evaporating Company.

Mrs. Lucy Henney is in Philadelphia making her selections of millinery goods. The opening will be on the 13th and 14th instant. See her advertisement.

George Dale, Jr., midshipman U. S. N., of Rushville, Nebraska, spent a few days with his uncle, J. S. Dale at Dale Summit, before returning to his studies at Annapolis Naval Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bright Bitner, of Spring Mills, on Wednesday morning, stopped with the Reporter for a minute on their way to the fair. Mr. Bitner is engaged in gathering cream for the Spring Mills creamery.

Mrs. S. J. Wolf, of Spring Mills, has returned from the eastern cities with a line of the finest headgear for children, young ladies, and also stylish hats for the elderly ladies. The opening days will be on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Mechtley, the Lewistown brick layer, together with several assistants, is casing the dwelling house being erected by J. W. Mitterling, in Centre Hall. Mr. Mechtley had the contract for the erection of the Lutheran church, in this place.

About forty persons from Centre Hall and vicinity attended the Lewisburg fair, last Thursday. A special train returned as far as Centre Hall, and had that fact been more generally known, the attendance would no doubt have been larger.

Merchant H. F. Roseman, of Spring Mills, is in the city and will be back in time with a new line of goods to have them on sale by the time the readers of the Reporter have this issue in their hands. See the Roseman advertisement in this issue.

Justice J. H. Brown, of the Supreme court of Pennsylvania, has accepted an invitation to preside at the inauguration of Dr. William A. Granville as president of Gettysburg College on October 20th. Justice Brown is an alumnus of the College.

With the advent of Autumn comes the long evenings, when a really good magazine adds immeasurably to the happiness and well being of the whole family. Human Life is the good old English roast beef of the magazine menu—a substantial meal in itself.

Friday evening of next week Delos Edwin Finks will lecture on America in the Presbyterian church. The lecture will be illustrated, the scenes being from all parts of the United States. No admission will be charged, but a silver collection will be lifted.

Elmer A. Harshberger, who lives on the Miss Mary Potter farm, west of Centre Hall, was one of the Reporter's callers Tuesday evening. He is hustling along the farm work, and is endeavoring to catch up, but finds it a big proposition when laborers are so scarce.

Miss Lottie M. Cool, of Spring Mills, in a fall down an embankment at the iron bridge near the Lutheran church, on Saturday evening, broke her ankle at four places. She stepped aside for a vehicle to pass, not realizing that she was so near the edge of the embankment, when she fell. She was assisted to her feet by a companion, but being unable to stand fell over again. She was then carried to her home. Dr. H. S. Braucht reduced the fractures.

We are Ready for the Fall Business as Never Before!Our New Millinery Department!

We are ready for this fall's business as never before. We have added a New Millinery Department and enlarged all other lines carried by us in our great store room. We are working to make this the record season in the history of our mercantile career; if you will please notice, we are always working; we never claim to have enough nor do we stop at anything; always add new lines and improve the lines we have carried. For this season we have our new millinery department, which is superior to any in the county.

Michael Stern & Co. Clothing for Men

In our Clothing Department Michael Stern & Co.'s famous Rochester make of Men's Clothing takes the lead among the different styles.

Stetson Soft & Stiff Hats

We have improved our line by adding to our Hat Department the famous John B. Stetson Soft and Stiff Hats.

Walk Over and Queen Quality Shoes

Our Shoe Department has been improved by the addition of the Walk Over Shoes for Men and Queen Quality Shoes for Ladies. In fact, we have a greater combination of high class merchandise under one roof than any other store in the county.

Saturday Special Bargains

Besides, remember that we have now inaugurated Saturday Special Bargains and you may be sure to expect great savings in high class wearing apparel for Men, Ladies and Children.
