

THE CENTRE REPORTER, CENTRE HALL, PA.

October 6th, 1910.

HON. A. M. TRAVERSE, Acting Third Asst. Postmaster Gen.

DEAR SIR:—In reply to your letter of last June, requesting that the Reporter be brought within the postal laws as to sending copies of papers to subscribers who were in arrears who had not expressly renewed the same within twelve months, let me say that with the issue of October 6th, this paper has been brought within both the spirit and letter of the postal regulations referred to. No paper is sent to any one whose subscription has not been paid to within twelve months.

Very truly, THE CENTRE REPORTER, S. W. SMITH, Publisher.

The above is a copy of a letter forwarded to the Postoffice Department at Washington, D. C.

It will be seen from this that hereafter collections will have to be made promptly, and the publisher makes the further request that as many of its readers as can do so pay their subscription in advance. Many of the readers have been paying in advance for years, and it is urged that others do so.

LOCALS.

A son was born to Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Snyder, of Centre Hall, on Monday morning.

Ex-Treasurer W. T. Spear, who had been in a sanatorium at Cory, returned to his home in Bellefonte beginning of this week.

The personal property of Mrs. Amanda Walker will be sold at public sale on Saturday, at one o'clock, by P. H. Meyer, the executor.

Henry Emerick, who has been confined to the house for some time, is quite feeble. Mrs. Shannon Boal is also in a rather delicate condition.

Saturday morning Postmaster George M. Boal took a chill, and since Tuesday was confined to bed. He was preparing to arise from his bed when he suddenly became ill.

You will find in this issue of the Reporter an advertisement of the Reid cream separator for which George E. Breon, of Centre Hall, is the agent. Read the adv. and consult with Mr. Breon.

Letters uncalled for in Centre Hall post office, October 1st, 1910: Miss Sara Broadhurst, Mrs. Walter Condo, Mr. James B. Thompson, Mr. F. T. Lloyd, Mr. T. H. Livingston, Mr. Ed. Hartman, Peter Hodge. When called for please say advertised.

The Pennsylvania State Grange has decided to confer the Sixth Degree at Atlantic City during the meeting of the National Grange, November 9th. The executive committee has engaged the Monticello Hotel for the use of Pennsylvania Patrons. The hotel management will give a banquet one night during the meeting free to the hotel guests.

The Union county tax payers are making an effort to have more rigid honesty enforced about the court house in Lewisburg, and as a result a number of county officials have been surcharged with items varying from a few dollars to $350. Some of the items are very small, and at first one would think that they had better be accepted, but it is poor policy to permit public funds in any amount to be misappropriated.

The interior of the court house being finished, the commissioners have decided that the great, large porch should also be rebuilt. The floor will be laid with granite tile and the ends built up with solid granite. At the present time there are stone steps at every point. These will be removed, and in front steps will be built up only between the four central columns. The ends of the porch will also have steps. The points not having steps will be protected with a railing.

Now that the schools have begun their sessions, we must not forget that our children are still our children and the more interest we show in their school the more its efficiency is increased. There is no teacher worthy of the name who is not pleased with the judicious advice and assistance and sympathy from the parents. The gulf is too wide between the home and the school, and the more we help to bridge it over the more we are improving, not only our own children, but the general tone of the school. If the children see that their parents appreciate their teacher they are more apt to do so themselves, lend cheerful and willing obedience to the teachers' wishes and have a certain pride in the success of the school.

This from the Democratic Watchman will indicate that Centre county has well furnished the rooms for its chief officials: W. R. Brachbill recently received and now has on exhibition in the show window of his furniture store on Spring street the furniture for the judge's room in the new court house. It includes a desk, two office chairs, a large davenport, one big easy chair and nine small chairs. The wood is all solid mahogany and the upholstering of the chairs and davenport is in dark blue standard leather. The casters and other metal trimmings are all in solid brass. Mr. Brachbill also furnished the district attorney's office with solid oak furniture in natural finish.

GRANGE ENCAMPMENT AND FAIR.

The Antique Department Was Filled With Many New Old Relics Not Before Exhibited.

The antique department at the Grange Encampment and Fair has grown to immense proportions. There were many of the exhibits on the ground for the first time. This department appeals to the ladies, and every article was carefully inspected many times.

When You Take Cold.

One way is to pay no attention to it; at least not until it develops into pneumonia, or bronchitis, or pleurisy. Another way is to ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. If he says, "The best thing for colds," then take it. Do as he says, anyway.

When the bowels are constipated, poisonous substances are absorbed into the blood instead of being daily removed from the body as nature intended. Knowing this danger, doctors always inquire about the condition of the bowels. Ayer's Pills.

Dear Sir: I acknowledge the receipt of the 16th enclosing draft to my order for $1173.70 in full settlement of my policy No. 1306 in your company. I took out this policy ten years ago because I had faith in the officers of the company and faith in the securities in which they proposed to invest the premiums paid by the policy holders. First mortgages on Iowa farm lands are as safe as government bonds in my opinion, and the results of the careful and conservative management and investment of the funds of your company have certainly been satisfactory to all policy holders. I have had $2000 insurance for ten years, and now all the money I have paid your company is returned to me with $77.70 in addition. You have done more than you promised for me, and I certainly feel justified in recommending your excellent company to anyone who wants a safe and profitable investment in life insurance.

Yours truly, GORDON W. WATTLES.
