DEATHS.

With its November number the Delineator celebrates its fortieth anniversary. When the magazine issued its first number to illustrate the fashions, women wore hoopskirts and shawls, queer bonnets and quaint coiffures. Some of the early pictures are reproduced in the current issue of the magazine, which has developed marvelously along all lines until it now offers the best in literature, while it speaks authoritatively concerning all that pertains to the art of dressing well.

FIRST STATE BANK. CAPITAL, $25,000. Arlington, Ia., April 23, 1903. Mr. J. Cooper, Decorah, Iowa. Dear Sir: Your letter of inquiry received and noted. The fact that I have two policies of $12,000 in The Royal Union Insurance Co., and that I am perfectly satisfied with the same, is the strongest evidence of my confidence in the company. Any financial institution that is limited by law in the investment of its funds in non-fluctuating, non-speculative securities such as farm mortgages, municipal bonds, and loans on the cash surrender value of its own policies is certainly entitled to public confidence. Add to this the fact that the state of Iowa requires sufficient of these securities on deposit with the Auditor of State to more than equal the amount of the Company's entire liability to its policyholders, and I am unable to conceive of a more complete and absolute protection. This is the law under which The Royal Insurance Co. operates, and for this reason it has my unqualified endorsement and confidence. In addition to this it is an Iowa Company and has for eighteen years been steadily growing stronger and better. It is securing the highest rates of interest from its invested assets of farm mortgages in Iowa and adjoining states; this enables the company to pay its policy holders the highest possible earnings. After a most careful and thorough investigation, I take pleasure in commending The Royal Union Life Insurance Co. as I regard it one of the safest and best. Very truly, D. B. ALLEN.
