Conductor Rote Killed.

Albert Rote, a conductor in the yards at the Bellefonte furnace, was run over by a car loaded with pig iron, and was so badly injured that he died shortly afterward. He was a resident of Coleville, and was aged about thirty-five years. He leaves a wife, but no children.

From one measured acre, Abner Alexander, of Earlystown, husked one hundred and forty bushels of corn. The plot was selected, but the whole of the field is yielding handsomely.

It is in time of sudden mishap or accident that Chamberlain's Liniment can be relied upon to take the place of the family doctor who cannot always be found at the moment. Then it is that Chamberlain's Liniment is never found wanting. In cases of sprains, cuts, wounds and bruises Chamberlain's Liniment takes out the soreness and drives away the pain. Sold by Murray and Bitner.

DEATHS.

Wednesday afternoon William Homan, of Wolfs Chapel, laid down to take a rest, and fell into that sleep from which there is no awakening. Interment was made in the Union church cemetery, at Farmers Mills, Saturday forenoon, Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder officiating. His age was eighty-two years and some months. The aged gentleman had his home with his sons Jacob and John and daughter, Miss Susan. George Homan, of Aaronsburg, and Samuel Homan, of Lewistown, are sons and Mrs. Thomas Scholl, of Aaronsburg, is a daughter of the deceased.

William Homan was a member of the Lutheran church, and was the oldest member in the Aaronsburg congregation. He was the youngest in a family of thirteen children—seven boys and six girls—and was the last survivor. His father was Jacob Homan, who came to this country from Germany and settled immediately west of Centre Hall. This was in 1772. From the best information at hand, Mr. Homan lived in a house just a little to the north and west of the new dwelling house erected by Frank Gfrerer. He cleared a portion of the Hoffer farms. On leaving this locality he purchased the farms now owned by Joseph K. Bitner and Mr. Rachtow, which at that time were one. Here he lived for many years, and died at the age of eighty-eight years.

Luther W. Wert, a lifelong resident of Aaronsburg, died on Monday on the Wert homestead where he was born and lived ever since. Interment will be made this (Thursday) morning in the cemetery at the Lutheran church, in Aaronsburg, Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder, pastor of the Lutheran church of which the deceased was a member for many years, to officiate. His age was fifty-three years, eight months and twenty-two days.

There survive the deceased a wife, nee Miss Emma Homan, and three children—Nelson, of Aaronsburg; Earl, a clerk in a Philadelphia bank; and Gurney, at home. He was one of three children of Jesse Wert, and is survived by a brother, James B. Wert, also of Aaronsburg, but formerly of Potter township. His death was due to Bright's disease and his sickness covered a period of about three weeks. He followed the occupation of farming.

Mrs. Anna Gramley died Tuesday night, at Rebersburg, from acute indigestion, aged seventy-three years. She was the widow of Reuben Gramley and a daughter of the late Paul Wolf, and was a resident of Miles township during the whole of her life. She was a consistent member of the Lutheran church, and was held in high esteem.

The children surviving her are Mrs. George W. Ocker, of Lewisburg; Mrs. Luther Geiswite, of Harrisburg, and Clark M. Gramley, of Rebersburg. One sister, Mrs. Mary Dinges, of Centre Hall, also survives.

LOCALS.

Read the C. P. Long Company advertisement in this issue.

Centre Hall is not represented in the jury list for the December court.

Mrs. Flora O. Bairfoot has been confined to the house for two weeks or more on account of neuralgia.

Mrs. L. B. Frank, of Rebersburg, was recently the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kreamer, in Centre Hall.

J. T. Potter is in Pittsburgh representing Huntingdon Presbytery in the capacity of a commissioner in the Pennsylvania Synod of the Presbyterian church.

Why not sell your produce where you can get best prices—eggs 30c, butter 30c. Apples, potatoes, onions, apple butter, dried apples and all kinds of dried fruits wanted.—C. P. Long Co., Spring Mills.

The sale of the Dr. G. W. Hosterman farm, at Wolfs Store, advertised to take place on Tuesday, did not materialize owing to the very unfavorable weather. The farm was not put on auction, but there is an opportunity to buy at private sale.

J. Finn Stover, of Derry, accompanied by his father, Benjamin Stover, of Centre Hill, were callers at the Reporter office on Wednesday. Mr. Stover came here to buy a car load of potatoes and apples for the Atlantic Supply Company for which company he manages a store at Derry.

Mrs. Sarah Eiters, of Lemont, and her cousin, Miss Sarah Schiver, of Gary, Indiana, were callers at this office on Wednesday morning, having come here to spend the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Emerick. Miss Schiver has been in Pennsylvania during the past five months. She spends much of her time in traveling on both land and water.

Harris Township

There will be services in the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening. Daniel Stover, of near Earlystown, spent Sunday at Boalsburg.

W. C. Meyer, of State College, spent Tuesday in this place.

S. E. Weber, who attended to business in Altoona last week enjoyed an evening at the Synodical meeting.

Mrs. Emma Stuart and son David, of Bellevue, were guests at the W. H. Stuart home over Sunday.

Dr. Kidder and wife and Frank McFarlane and wife were in Bellefont on Saturday evening at the Tenter meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Durst attended the funeral of the latter's sister, Mrs. Katharine Zsaler, at Glen Iron on Saturday.

The grammar school at Boalsburg was closed part of this week on account of the illness of the teacher, E. R. Williams.

The dry spell is broken; we had rain on Friday night, ice on Monday morning, and thunder showers on Tuesday.

James Goss and Miss Sadie Hummel, of Millin county, and Miss Sarah Landis, of Potters Mills, were visitors at the home of Alexander Kuhn over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Keller, of Honesville, spent Sunday afternoon with the former's mother, Mrs. Margaret Keller at the L. Mothers baugh home. Mrs. Keller had a fall several weeks ago and hurt her left arm, which is quite painful sometimes.

Theodore Boal, Miss Cecile DeLagarde, Edward Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarlane, Mr. and Mrs. William Goheen, Mrs. Harro and Mrs. Lindsey, Misses Elmira and Lucretia Goheen, J. N. Meyer, and George E. Meyer were at State College the day of the horse show.

Charles E. Fisher, of Danville, spent Monday night in Boalsburg.

Rev. Charles M. Smith, of Burketsville, Maryland, attended the meetings of the Potomac Synod held in Christ Reformed church at Altoona last week. Before returning to his home he visited the Meyer families at Boalsburg and State College. He is a brother of editor C. M. Smith, of Pen Argyl, who was in Boalsburg recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Elder with their little child, of Ferguson township, were in Boalsburg on Saturday, where they delivered some fine aluminum ware. Mr. Elder had a fall about eighteen months ago and hurt his spine; he was laid up at his home for some time and then taken to a hospital in Philadelphia but was not much benefited. With the aid of crutches he is able to get about in the house but he has little hope that he will ever be able to walk.

Leroy Harro, a little boy of four years, had a birthday party on Saturday afternoon. There were twelve merry little boys and girls. Mildred Kuhn, Sarah and Katharine Gingerich, Paul Penrose, Kenneth and Harold Ishler, Frank M. Hosterman, John H. Motherbaugh, Leroy, Cecil, Henrietta and Virginia Harro. Games of different kinds were played. Miss Henrietta Harro sang a song, "Call me up when it rains" and her sister Cecil played some instrumental music on the piano. Miss Alida Rothrock sang a "Japanese love song." Ice cream, cake and candy were served as refreshments. A frosted cake with four wax candles graced the centre of the table. The children brought nice little presents and his great aunt, Mrs. Mary Lindsey, of Detroit, Michigan, who is visiting at the Harro home, gave him a gold initial ring.

Spring Mills.

C. P. Long, the popular merchant, has returned from Baltimore after purchasing his fall goods.

Samuel Condo and wife delivered a fine rubber tire buggy to Millinburg which proved to be very satisfactory to the purchaser.

Mrs. Moyer, wife of Prof. Moyer, accompanied by her son is visiting relatives in Altoona.

The Spring Mills hotel gave a chicken and waffle dinner on Sunday to quite a number of guests in honor of Miss Blanche Bartges and gentleman friend.

Quite a number of people attended the sale held by Mrs. David Sowers, on Saturday.

Mrs. T. M. Gramley, who for several days was the guest of Mrs. Mary J. Goodhart in Centre Hall also attended a birthday dinner in honor of her daughter, Miss Orpha, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Bartholomew.

M. Shires and family expect to move to Scranton in the near future.

Quite a number of people from this place attended the Sunday-school convention at Centre Hall on Friday.

At this writing Emanuel Shook is not improving very fast.

Mrs. A. C. Dunlap returned home after visiting friends down east.

Eugene Allison, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his parents.

The C. P. Long Company, at Spring Mills, are advertising for hand picked and cider apples.

Freemont Hill, of Pleasant Gap, bagged a twelve-pound wild turkey last Saturday. The bird was killed on Nittany mountain.

See the pretty pieces of glass ware at Kreamer & Son's. Sold at ten cents per piece. Very pretty, very useful, very cheap.

This item clipped from the Phillipsburg Journal will give potato growers, who have their crop on hand a chill: Potatoes are having a drop in price. Some Clearfield dealers now pay only fifteen cents per bushel for the tubers. The late crop is said to be good.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Zeliger, of Altoona, are off on a western tour, and will visit Mrs. Zeliger's brothers in Western Nebraska. They will also see Denver, going by the Burlington route from Chicago. Mrs. Zeliger, nee Wieland, will also stop with relatives in Arcadia, Ohio, on her return.

S. V. Hosterman, Esq., accompanied by his little son George, arrived in Centre Hall Monday evening from Lancaster to be present at the sale of the Hosterman farm, at Wolfs store, on Tuesday. He is an assistant district attorney in Lancaster county, having received his appointment on account of fitness and in part owing to his regularity in Republican party affairs. The position has a salary of $2000 attached.

The apple crop throughout Pennsylvania has been pretty well cleaned from the trees, and many bushels have already been shipped to distant markets. The cider mill and evaporating plants have also used up many hundreds of bushels. Shipments of fall and winter apples have been made from all points along the L. and T. R. R., yet there remains a good percentage of the winter varieties of apples in the hands of the growers, that will not be sold until cold weather approaches.

Instead of delivering assessment blanks themselves as was the custom in years past, the county commissioners call all the assessors to Bellefonte and while there the papers were handed over to them. It was found that even if the county paid the assessors for the day and allowed them mileage, which was done, the cost of delivering would not be as much as was paid the commissioners when they traveled over the county themselves.

WANTED—Hand-picked fall and winter apples; also, drop and cider apples. Highest price paid for them.—Centre Hall Evaporating Company.

APPLES WANTED. Wind fall and shaken for cider making; hand picked fall apples; hand picked winter apples for shipping. Loading cars now. Telephone or write. C. P. LONG CO.

Telling the Time. His horse had lost a shoe, and as it was being replaced by a Somerset blacksmith he asked the time. "I'll tell 'ee presently, sir," said the man. Then he lifted a hind foot of the horse and, looking across it attentively, said, "Half past 11."

"How do you know?" asked Cole-ridge. "Do 'ee think I have shod horses all my life and don't know by sign what time it is?"

The poet went away puzzled, but returned in the evening and offered the blacksmith a shilling to show him how he could tell the time by a horse's hoof.

"Just you get off your horse, sir. Now do 'ee stoop down and look through the hole in your pollard ash and you'll see the church clock."

Hard to Tell. "If your mother bought four bunches of grapes, the shopkeeper's price being ninepence a bunch, how much money would the purchase cost her?" asked the new teacher.

"You never can tell," answered Tommy, who was at the head of the class. "Ma's great at bargaining!"—London Answers.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs.

This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose. Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
