

Grov - Wieland.

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Tressler, at Oak Hall, when Miss Claudia E. Wieland was united in holy matrimony to Oran L. Grove, Wednesday of last week. Just as the clock proclaimed the hour of six p. m., the bridal party marched into the parlor to the melodious strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by William Tressler, a cousin of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. A. Black, of Derry, in the presence of about forty relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride was beautifully attired in white silk and carried a bouquet of carnations, while the maid of honor, Miss Ivah Meyer, was also attired in white and carried a bouquet of carnations. Harry E. Grove, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. A delicious wedding dinner was served, following the ceremony, in the appropriately decorated Tressler home.

The bride is an attractive young lady and is held in high esteem in the community. The groom is an ambitious young man and holds a responsible railroad position, at Red Hill, Montgomery county, where the young people will make their future home. Their many friends unite in extending hearty congratulations and best wishes for a long and prosperous wedded life.

Williams-Wagner.

Charles W. Williams, of Lemont, and Miss Bella C. Wagner were married at the home of David Y. Wagner, at Houseville, on the 11th inst. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. A. Snyder. The young couple will take up housekeeping on the Wagner homestead, it being the intention of Mr. and Mrs. Wagner to move to Lemont.

Brooks-Rimney.

The marriage of Douglas L. Brooks, of Pleasant Gap, and Miss Alta May Rimney, of Centre Hall, was solemnized at the United Evangelical parsonage, Centre Hall, Saturday afternoon by Rev. S. A. Snyder.

The Pink Label.

The Pink Label appears this week. Those who paid subscription between December 19, and January 24, should look at the label carefully and report immediately if an error has been made.

President Taft sent to the senate the nomination of Howard B. Calderwood to be postmaster at Tyrone for the term of four years, to succeed John G. McCamant.

Surprise Party.

There was a surprise party at the home of E. H. Shook, Penn Hall, Wednesday evening of last week. Those present were:

Mrs. Albright, Mrs. Gorman, Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. Kreamer, Earl Barges, Frank Knapp, Cora Gorman, Ella Tharp, Carry, Edna and Robert Mess, Miriam and Lydia Breen, Jennie Albright, Vera, Irene and Kathryn Sinkabine, Naomi Tharp, Edwin and Clarence Musser, Christ and Charles Shook, Paul and Yvonia Keller, John and Daniel Gorman, Robert and Clarence Albright, Mrs. Jacob Breen, Mrs. John Bowman, Mrs. W. H. Sinkabine, W. A. Niess, Wallace Breen, W. F. Stoner, John Bowman, Jerry Albright, John Detweiler, E. F. Shook, Frank Fisher, Russell, Lester and James Condo, Belle and Cora McCormick, Alta Sinkabine, Sara Fisher, Ruth Stover, Jennie Barges, Frank Bailey, Charles and Ella Niess, Frank McClellan, Wallace Musser, David Hennigh, Samuel Ulrich, Orris and Bruce McCormick, Bruce Meyer, Mrs. C. F. Long, Mrs. Wallace Musser, John Albright, Mary and Gladys Wagley, Vina Bowman, George, Roy and Maude Gorman, Mrs. Wallace Breen, Carrie, Blanche and Charles Barges, Eva and Ralph Kreamer, Ella Condo, James, Ralph, Erma and Gross Shook, William Braucher, William Smith, Harry Ulrich, George Smith, Cleon Phillips, John Musser, Clifford Breen, Eleanor, Miriam and Austin Long, Maggie Bailey, Charles Carter, Tammie Arney, Mable Zerby, Lloyd Houser, Esther Hennigh, Blain Bitner, Roy Krumrine, Mable Niess, Samuel Hosterman, Grace Musser, George Zerby, Mrs. Detweiler, Mrs. Frank Fisher, Mrs. James Condo, Mrs. George Shook.

Sheep Dog Captured.

On Saturday morning, at about three o'clock, Harry McClellan, of near Tusseyville, was awakened by dogs barking, and on going out to the barn, found two dogs had a flock of sheep cornered in the barn yard. The dogs had not yet torn the sheep, but Mr. McClellan was lucky enough to get one of the dogs by using a shotgun. The second canine escaped, but not before he was recognized.

Fine Egg Record.

Some time ago I. A. Sweetwood, of Centre Hall, gave an account of what a flock of pullets were doing for him, and here is another record made: Thirty-four single combed buff Leghorn pullets in thirty days laid seven hundred and three eggs which were sold for $21.11, making a net profit of fifty cents for each pullet over the feed consumed.

Deaths in Union County.

Grant Hafer, aged twenty-five years, at New Columbia.

Mrs. Samuel Beck, at West Milton, aged seventy-five years.

Henry Krick, of near Millinburg, aged sixty years.

Valentine Post Cards.

By the time this issue reaches the readers there will be on sale at this office a large collection of Valentine Post Cards, at ten cents per dozen. Every card is pretty, and sells regularly at the rate of three for five cents. The lot cannot be duplicated, so orders should come early.

"The Brinkly Girl," a musical comedy, will be the attraction at Garmans on Tuesday evening, January 31st.

Tusseyville.

Misses Myra Rockey and Mary Weaver spent several days last week visiting friends at Aaronburg.

Rev. H. J. Dubbs spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Floray.

The friends of Mrs. John Spangler will be glad to hear that she seems to be improving.

Mrs. Thomas Swartz spent Wednesday afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Rossmann.

Mrs. George Ishler and daughter, Miss Effie, were delightfully entertained on Tuesday evening of last week by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swartz. John Dabhem has been kept busy during the past week caring for a sick horse, but thinks the animal will be restored to its former usefulness.

The farm formerly belonging to Jacob Strohm, deceased, and occupied by William Lingle, was purchased by Mr. Lingle on Friday of last week. His friends wish him success.

The following persons have been ill for the last ten days: Mrs. R. R. Rickard, Harry Wert, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wert, and master Grover Colyer, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Floray.

On Thursday morning of last week, upon going to the barn, John L. Runkle was surprised to find one of his horses lying dead. It seems that the animal secured its liberty in the stable, and was kicked by one of the other horses, with the above result. Mr. Runkle is in the habit of taking things uncomplainingly, yet his loss is felt keenly.

On Thursday evening of last week, the ladies composing the Sunday-school class taught by Merchant C. W. Swartz gave him a real surprise at his home. To make his surprise complete, and to show their appreciation of his efforts as a teacher, the young women presented him with a handsome chair. The evening was spent in a manner that will not soon be forgotten. All retired to their homes delighted with the event.

Georges Valley.

M. J. Barger and wife spent last Saturday with friends in Millheim.

Mrs. E. L. Lingle returned to her home on Sunday after spending a week at Spring Mills with Mrs. Grenoble.

D. D. Decker and sisters Ella and Margaret spent Sunday at the home of John Detweiler.

Mrs. J. T. H. Foust and Mrs. F. M. Ackerman spent last Thursday pleasantly with Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Foust.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Barger went to Waddle on Tuesday to visit Mrs. Barger's sister, Mrs. George Klinefelter.

Those who visited A. C. Davis on Sunday were J. H. Wagner and Ammon Vonada and wife.

Mrs. Sara Reeder is taking care of her sister, Mrs. Immel, who is laid up with rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Confer spent Sunday at the home of S. E. Gobbie.

Smullton.

Smullton water company held their annual election beginning of January, and the officers elected are as follows: president, Serene Harry; secretary, H. H. Stover; treasurer, C. C. Smull; trustee, S. A. Wallizer; water supervisor, Jacob Wallizer. The company is now entirely free from debt.

Mrs. Jacob Wallizer spent a few days last week at Spring Mills, having been called there on account of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Solt.

There seems to be plenty of houses for rent this spring, both at this place and Rebersburg; one reason for it is because many moved to other localities.

Serene Harry and wife entertained a young couple from Fugar Valley on Sunday.

George H. Smull was away a few days last week.

Maggie Harry visited at Mill Hall several days last week, returning Saturday.

C. L. Beck has rented the Detweiler property, now belonging to Henry Wolf, of Madisonburg. Mr. Wolf recently purchased same from G. H. Smull.

Aaronburg.

The Misses Myra Rockey and Marion Weaver, of Tusseyville, spent a week very pleasantly with Mr. and Mrs. James Wert.

Mrs. Sadie Hetzle returned home last week, well pleased with her trip.

Mrs. E. E. Ardery, of Bellefonte, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver, a few days last week, helping to care for her aged father, J. C. Stover.

Mrs. Hess, nee Jordan, of Lock Haven, is at present with her aged sister, Mrs. E. J. Doshler.

Mr. and Mrs. Orwig were visiting friends in Milton, a few days last week.

Mrs. Lizzie Condo Bowersox and children will leave here on Thursday to visit her parents, ex-Sheriff and Mrs. Condo, in York.

On Friday the school mates of Willard Burd had a very nice surprise party at his home for him. Those attending were: Guy McNeal, William Rahm, John Bright, Edgar Stover, Victor Stover, Orris Greenley, Verna Stover, Sara Wyle, Jennie Greenley, Mary Mink, Sara Kreamer, Marion Eisenhour, Albert Mingle, Carl Wert, Henry Mingle, George Balm, Bruce Homan, Harry Roush, Helen Bower, Mae Guisewite, Anna Eisenhour, Nellie Burd, Jennie Ream, Estella Musser, all from twelve to fourteen years of age.

Elmer Miller, who is teaching the public school at Tusseyville, was in town the other evening to attend a meeting of the program committee of the teachers' local institute to be held at Centre Hall, Saturday, February 4.

Valentine Post Cards, every card just as handsome as can be, are offered you at the rate of a dozen for ten cents, or by mail for eleven cents. Not a trashy card in the lot.

Stuart's Store, Boalsburg

Cash Clearance SALE!

JANUARY 12th to 31st, 1911

20 to 50 per cent. Reduction on staple goods

DRY GOODS. There are many odds and ends in dry goods of every description that are being offered at this sale. The goods are just as clean, just as good, and just as seasonable as ever.

NOTIONS. This reduction in notions will permit the buyer to purchase almost anything in that line at much less than the usual selling price. This is not trash that is being offered; an inspection will prove it.

SHOES. Everybody wears shoes, and at the price shoes can be bought at this sale it will pay to buy even if you do not have immediate use for them. All sizes—for the little people and the grown-ups.

A call at this store during this sale will be to the advantage of our regular customers as well as to others.

GOODS SOLD ONLY FOR CASH OR ITS EQUIVALENT.

W. H. STUART . . . Boalsburg

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a very valuable medicine for throat and lung troubles, quickly relieves and cures painful breathing and a dangerous sounding cough which indicates congested lungs. Sold by Murray & Bitner.

The Aaronburg United Evangelical congregation was the recipient of a handsome aluminum individual communion service which was used for the first time last Saturday night. Mrs. Susan M. Krape was the kind donor.

Our HALF-PRICE SALE has proven very successful and we will continue it for ten days longer. Our customers are astonished at the remarkably low prices and great bargains we offer

Be sure to attend this Sale of Men's & Boys' Clothing, Furnishings, LADIES' & MISSES' Tailor-made Suits, Coats and Furnishings, Shoes for Men, Women & Children.

AFTER the success we have had with our business during this season, we find that we still have on hand a surplus of our Fall Goods which must be disposed of at the GREATEST SACRIFICE PRICES. No matter what the cost, the goods must go, for we need the money. You know the quality of Merchandise this store sells. You know that nowhere and at no time can you get more for the money than here.

Extra Special Bargain-- 50 Youths' Suits

Sizes from 14 to 20. They were $6 to $14. All will be sold at this sale for only - - - - $2.75

A Lot of 25 RAINCOATS, worth $14 to $16, at this sale for only - - } $8.48

A Rare Opportunity in SHOES

100 Pairs of Crawford and James Means Shoes that were $3.50 and $4.00 (odds and ends) at $1.98

Extraordinary Bargains in Ladies' Goods

50 Tailor-made SUITS, in all sizes, which formerly sold from $15.00 to $20.00, can now be bought for only $8.98

$5.00 SILK WAISTS, in all the different colors, at the low price of - } $2.48

Remember that space will not permit us to quote prices on everything that will be sacrificed at this sale.

Railroad fare paid on purchases of $25.00 or more.

On account of unfavorable weather conditions last week we have decided to continue our Half-price Sale in order to give all our customers an opportunity to take advantage of these great bargains.

KESSLER'S NEW DEP'T STORE MILLHEIM, PA.